

PLEASURES OF MEMORY.

What a blessed thing is memory! How it brings up the pleasures of the past, and hides its unpleasantnesses! You recall your childhood days, do you not, and wish they would return? You remember the pleasant associations, while the unpleasant ones are forgotten. Perhaps to your mind comes the face of some friend. It was once a pale, sad face. It showed marks of pain, lines of care. It seemed to be looking into the hereafter, the unknown future. And then you recalled how it brightened, how it recovered its rosy hue, how it became a picture of happiness and joy. Do you remember these things? Many people do, and gladly tell how the health returned, how happiness came back, how the world seemed bright. They tell how they were once weak, nevertheless, perhaps in pain, certainly unhappy. They tell of sleepless nights, restless days, untouched food, unstrung nerves. And then they tell how they became happy, healthy and strong once more. You have heard it often in the past, have you not? You have heard people describe how they were cured and kept in health? You certainly can remember what it is that has so helped people in America. If not, listen to what Mrs. Annie Jenness Miller, who is known universally as the great dress reformer, says: "Six years ago, when suffering from mental care and overwork, I received the most pronounced benefit from the use of that great medicine, Warner's Safe Cure." Ah, now you remember. Now you recall how many people you have heard say this same thing. Now you recollect how much you have heard of this great cure. Now you are ready to admit that memory is usually pleasing, that the highest pleasure comes from perfect health, and that this great remedy has done more to produce and prolong health than any other discovery ever known in the entire history of the whole world. HE IS HIS OWN STEPFATHER.

Mrs. Delia Robinson began an action for divorce at Fort Gratiot, Mich., yesterday against her husband, George, who is only twenty three years old. Young Robinson inherited $200,000 a short time ago, and has since been leading a fast life, squandering his money rapidly. He was formerly very poor, and was brought up by Mrs. Robinson, who was then a widow named Carlisle. Mrs. Robinson, who is fifty four years old, legally adopted Robinson ten years ago, and when Robinson married her two years ago he became his own stepfather. Robinson inherits his money from an uncle, of whom he had never heard.

Cheap Homes.

I offer desirable building lots in the northwestern part of the city as represented on Shaffer's map, lying on the extension of Jones, Lane, and North streets. In order to enable purchasers to improve their property, by extending their available means in building and making their homes comfortable. I will lease these lots at a rent equal to the interest on their value, and give the purchasers twenty years to pay for the property. To mechanics and young men earning monthly wages, this offer enables them to secure a home at moderate prices and long credits, and pay for them as their earnings allow. A man can lease a lot of one quarter of an acre, for say $24 a year, the lease having the transferable character of a fee-simple title, and redeemable at the pleasure of the holder, by payment in full or by installments of not less than one-fifth of the cost of the lot, and can use all the means at command to build his home and make himself comfortable. He thus secures a home free from any debt that can trouble him, by the payment of $24 a year. Apply to WM. J. SAUNDERS Real Estate Agt. dec 19 1m 425 Saunders St.
