NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief.

There were no cases today before the mayor.

Shad are getting quite plentiful, and cheap for the season.

There are now only nine prisoners in Wake county jail, most of whom are for minor offences.

Seventeen applicants for license to practice law were before the Supreme Court yesterday.

The tobacco trade is looming up considerably in Raleigh. The sales at the different warehouses are daily increasing.

Ray L. Royce and his talented company of comedians are booked for Metropolitan Hall for one night next week.

About one half of the sheriffs in the State have now settled their taxes with the Treasurer, either in full or in part.

Preliminary arrangements are already on foot for opening the Atlantic Hotel at Morehead for the coming season which is expected to be one of unusual success.

A union meeting of one section of the Raleigh Association is now in progress at Cary. The attendance is very good.

The report of the Railway Commission will probably be ready for distribution next week. It will be a most valuable document embracing statistics relative to the different corporations in the State, not heretofore made public.

Tobacco is being brought here from some counties in the eastern part of the State, going to show that Raleigh is coming up as a good market for the weed. It is predicted that the receipts this season will be much increased. Good prices are obtained, and the quality of tobacco is over the average.

Mr. James A. Askew left for the North on the noon train yesterday to purchase machinery for a complete paper mill plant to be located near Charlotte. Mr. Askew says this mill will be first class in every particular. He has been long connected with the paper mill business, and will no doubt be able to furnish the trade with a class of paper on reasonable terms.

A Fine Contract.

The Seaboard Air Line has given the Richmond Locomotive Works a contract to build ten locomotives, which are to be delivered as rapidly as possible, owing to the pressure of traffic and the opening of the line to Atlanta next month.

Funeral.

The funeral services of the late Mr. James Bryan took place yesterday afternoon from Central M. E. church and were conducted by Rev. Mr. Bishop of the Main Street M. E. church of Durham, assisted by Rev. Mr. Hurley. The remains were interred in Oakwood cemetery. The following gentlemen acting as pallbearers: Messrs. S. M. Parish, F. C. Redford, J. M. Broughton, S. V. House, John T. Pullen and Rev. L. Branson.

Synopsis of the Weather at 8 P. M., Yesterday.

The storm has moved eastward to New England, with a trough of low pressure extending south to North Carolina. A trace of rain fell in Virginia yesterday. A new and extensive high area with clear, cold weather covers the country west of the Mississippi and will move eastward during the next three days, causing continued fair weather in this vicinity.

Local forecast for Raleigh and vicinity, continued fair, generally cloudless weather, cooler tonight and tomorrow.

Dissolution.

In the dissolution of partnership of Messrs. Evans & Martin, a notice of which we publish today, Mr. E. M. Martin retires from the firm. Mr. J. W. Evans will continue the business of the former firm, at the old stand, corner of Blount and Morgan streets.

Mr. Evans has been connected with the carriage making business in Raleigh for about sixteen years and has been at the head of this firm for over twelve years, during which time they have enjoyed the confidence and respect of the business community to a very flattering extent. We know well, both of these men and take great pleasure in saying that those having occasion to patronize a carriage maker, will find J. W. Evans a straight forward, conscientious business man and one of the most competent carriage makers in all departments to be found in the State.

We trust Mr. Martin may find it to his interest to remain with us. He is too good a man for Raleigh to lose.

Personal Mention.

Rev. Jonathan Wood continues quite sick.

Mr. Sidney Terrell, of Rolesville, is in the city.

Maj. W. A. Guthrie, of Durham, is in the city.

Col. Benjamin Cameron, of Stagville, was in the city yesterday afternoon.

Dr. E. F. Ashe, one of the most prominent physicians in the State, died at his home in Wadesboro last Thursday.

President John M. Robinson, of the Seaboard Air Line, who has been on a tour of inspection, left here yesterday for Portsmouth.

Judge Whitaker arrived home yesterday. Although he is considerably improved, he is still feeling quite unwell and did not feel justified in undergoing the fatigue and labor of holding Orange court.

Mrs. E. S. Brown is somewhat better today.

We are glad to see Mr. Howard Haywood out again, after a severe struggle with the grippe.

Mrs. Julius Lewis has returned from a visit to Mrs. Leo D. Heartt in Durham.

Miss Carrie H. Smith went to Mt. Olive yesterday afternoon to assist her brother, Prof. J. E. Smith in the High School of that place. We are glad to learn of his success at that place.

Mrs. Burnett's Great Play.

"Little Lord Fauntleroy" was written for the young, and more than a million children have been made happy and better by reading it—to say nothing of the thousands and thousands of older people who have pursued it with quite as much interest and delight. As a story, "Little Lord Fauntleroy" has gone through many editions. Thousands and thousands of copies of the book have been sold, and as ready a market has been found for it in Europe and Australia as in America. In its dramatized form—as it will be presented at Metropolitan Hall Tuesday night February 2nd. It has been seen by more than a million and a half of people, and has been accorded the distinction of being the greatest and most unqualified theatrical success of modern times. It will be presented by Mr. French's own company from the Broadway Theatre, New York, and will have the advantages of the same special appointments that characterized its production at that house.

Mr. A. Dughi has received a fresh lot of excellent canary and parrot seed and mocking bird food.

LOST THE BET.

Forest and Stream.

There is a negro man at City Hall Point so old that nobody knows how old he is—one of those old knock-kneed negroes about 100 years old, all twisted up.

One day the old fellow was slowly making his way through the village street when along came a white man, a very well known character in that town, "half seas over." He was pretty nearly as "full as a goat," and he happened to have a rifle with him, and a crack shot he is, whether drunk or sober. As soon as he saw Uncle Joe seated on a stump he sung out:

"I say, Uncle Joe, let me put a potato on top of your head and shoot it off. I will give you fifty cents if I burst the potato, or a dollar if I kill ye."

The old negro looked up and replied:

"Do you say, boss, you will give me fifty cents if you bust the potato or a dollar if yer kill me?"

"Yes," was the reply.

"Well, den, go ahead, boss," said the old man.

The potato was placed on the top of the old negro's head, and the white man staggered off about thirty paces and drew a bead. The smoke and fire shot from the rifle and the potato spun high in the air.

He staggered up to Uncle Joe, fumbled around in two or three of his pockets, fished out a half dollar and handed it to him.

The old man seemed very much surprised. It was a long time since he had seen so much money. He looked at it lovingly, bit it, turned it over, looked up to Jim and said:

"Well, boss, I'se sorry I did not get de dollar."

Will Move to Baltimore.

We are not moving to Baltimore because of lack of business as our business has been some better so far in January than last January; and it is not because we don't like Raleigh, but because we expect a much larger business in Baltimore than we can hope to ever have in Raleigh. We are selling our entire stock of all kinds of goods at actually what the goods cost. And our dress goods department should be of great interest to the ladies as it will probably be a long time before another such opportunity to buy dress goods at actually New York cost will be had. We have a very, very large stock of fine grades of black dress goods, and it will pay you to examine the line. You had as well buy these goods now as wait later and pay more money. If you will need a carpet any time soon you had better buy now when there is no competition. You know well you will have to pay for what you buy and pay heavily.

Yours truly

D. T. SWINDELL

Ladies Fine Shoes, $1.50 to $2.50, Less Than Regular Price.

We are "stock taking," and find that we have bought a few too many of some of Laird, Seaber & Mitchell's fine shoes, so we have put them upon tables in the shoe department and they will be offered from $1.50 to $2.50 per pair, less than regular prices. These are some of our finest goods, and we cut the prices, not because they are shop worn, but because we have too many. At $3.50 cloth top, kid button, with and without patent leather tips, worth $5. At $4.50 fine kid button, hand sewed, worth $6.50. At $5, gray and tan cloth top, patent leather rawps worth $7.50. Of course when these are sold, we can't supply more at the same price.
