NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief.

Lent will soon be here. Another cold snap, but can't last long.

There was quite a large number of country people in the city today.

The hunting season, as we understand it, ends March 15th.

The mayor had no case to engage his attention today.

We are promised warmer and fair weather tomorrow.

An effort is being made to get Judge Merrimon, of the twelfth district, to withdraw his resignation.

A further reduction of the force at the office of the R & D. freight office is ordered.

Not an item of importance in any of the departments at the capitol today.

The name of Kope Elias, Esq., is being pressed for the vacant judgeship in the extreme western district.

Rev Sam Jones will preach at the Edenton street church tomorrow morning at 11 a. m. and 3:30 p. m. He will not preach at night.

There will no doubt be a very large crowd in attendance at Edenton Street M E Church tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock and 3:30 p. m., to hear Rev. Sam P. Jones.

The seating capacity of Edenton Street M E. Church is about 1,000, we learn. Remember that Rev. Sam P. Jones will preach tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock and at 3:30 p. m. Go early and secure seats.

The hens are beginning to cackle like spring. We expect soon to hear of the housewives beating out the carpets; then we know it will be all right.

Our street commissioner deserves much credit for the manner in which Moore Square is being fixed up. It will soon be a credit to the city. Now let the fountain be kept in order and the improvement will be complete.

In the Baptist Tabernacle at 7:30 o'clock p. m. Wednesday, Rev J. J. Hall, D. D., will deliver an address on C. H. Spurgeon, being a review of the wonderful life and great work of the man. The public invited.

Two fire alarms were turned in yesterday evening, one at 6:10, the other at 6:31. Both were unimportant, the first proceeding from a chimney in rear of No. 801, South Wilmington street, the other from a defective stove pipe in the house of Mr. Alonzo Williams, 209 North West street.

At a meeting of the Wilmington Light Infantry held Tuesday night, there were 21 applications for membership. There seems to be a real military boom in that city. We hope the Governor's Guard will spruce up, so that the membership may be increased.

We hope our worthy mayor will consider the proposition of making a suitable presentation to the officers and crew of the new U. S. Ship, Raleigh, at the coming launching, on the part of our city. Bring the matter to the attention of the Board of Aldermen, Mr. Mayor, and urge them to adopt the scheme. It will be a graceful act.

We have heard but little of late concerning the establishment of a canning factory in this vicinity. Surely such a chance for investment ought not to be neglected. There are any quantity of fruits and vegetables every year wasted that could be turned to good account, and the experience of other places show that there is money in such enterprises. The fruit season will soon be on us, and there is no time to lose. Let some enterprising citizen make the start.

Nice Entertainment

One of the most enjoyable occasions of the season, was the musicale of Lend a Hand Circle of Kings Daughters at the residence of Mrs. Kreth, on West Edenton Street, last night. The proceeds were for the benefit of the poor of Raleigh. Some of the best musical talent of Peace Institute were present, and an additional interest was lent to the performance by the solos of Mr. Horwitz of the Ray L. Royce Company and the dancing of Miss Jessie Lindsay.

The New Hotel.

We have good reason to state that the new hotel on the corner of McDowell and Martin streets opposite Nash square, will be pushed during the spring as rapidly as possible and that it will probably be in readiness for occupancy by mid-summer, or, in any event, by early fall. It will have all the modern arrangements, and will be fully up to the first class establishments of the country in every respect.

Y. M. C. A.

We hope our citizens will aid all in their power the efforts of those engaged in the work of reorganizing the Young Men's Christian Association. It is a matter that needs encouragement to rescue it from its languishing condition. We hope the directory may be able to receive such aid as will enable them to secure an eligible site, and, with this, the work of organization can be the more readily pushed. It is a cause that should appeal to all our people. Help them out.

Synopsis of the Weather at 8 P. M. Yesterday.

The storm center in Kansas has moved rapidly to the southeast, over North Carolina, which is an unusual direction for such storms to take. A high area and cold wave followed it with extraordinary speed, the temperature falling more than twenty degrees in eight hours at stations east of the mountains. A new storm center has appeared in the west Gulf.

Local forecast for Raleigh and vicinity, Saturday, fair weather, decidedly colder Sunday fair weather, slightly warmer.

A Good Sign.

The Statesville Landmark says, the fertilizer agents at his point say that they expect their sales in that odorous community to fall off more than half this season, as the farmers have come to the conclusion that there is no money in using it to the extent they have in former years. The best farmers say they expect to pay more attention to making their own fertilizers and will raise less cotton and more grain and home supplies. In former years our merchants were heavy shippers of flour and grain to Southern markets and if the farmers carry out their present intention, they will again be exporters instead of importers, and we will all enter upon a new era of prosperity.

Ladies' Fine Shoes.

We have a "job table" upon which we are showing several lines of our ladies finest shoes at $1.50 to $2.50 per pair, less than they are worth. We are just through stock taking and find that these shoes have not been selling quite as fast as they should, so we have cut the price to hurry the sale. They are all right in every way, and not shop worn, and are splendid values. If you can't be fitted from this table, our shoe people will be sure to please you from the regular stock, but first ask for these shoes on the job table.

W. H. & R. S. TUCKER & CO.

Special Attention.

Special attention of the ladies is directed to our line of new wash fabrics in gingham, outing cloths, Inverness cloths, prints, &c.

Norris' Dry Goods Store.

A Smart One.

The Concord Standard says: A Standard subscriber said this morning that he had all his cotton for 1890 baled up and his 1891 crop was not yet ginned. He further said that by hauling wood and bartering produce his cash paid out did not amount to $35 per year.

This speaks well for Calarrus county, and we commend the foregoing incident to the calm consideration of our Wake county farmers.

Personal Mention.

Mr. S. L. Gilmer, of Greensboro, is in the city.

Mr. J. A. Thomas, editor of the Louisburg Times, is in the city.

Miss Ellen Rosenbaum, of New York, is in the city the guest of Miss Eliza Primrose.

The condition of ex-Gov. Scale is slightly more favorable, but there seems to be no hope of his ultimate recovery.

Miss Florence Love, who has been visiting in Salisbury, to the delight of her many friends, returned home yesterday.

Miss Nellie Lougee, of Durham, who has been on a visit to this city, returned home yesterday accompanied by Miss Effie Broughton, who will spend some time as her guest.

Funeral Services.

The funeral services of the late F. W. Sherwood took place this morning from the First Presbyterian Church and were attended by a large concourse of sorrowing relatives and friends, together with Phalanx and Centre Lodges, Knights of Pythias, which attended in a body. The floral offerings were profuse and beautiful and the utmost feeling of sorrow was demonstrated over the loss of one held in such just esteem. The services were conducted by Rev. Dr. John S. Watkins, and the remains were interred in Oakwood cemetery.

The following gentlemen acted as pall bearers: W. S. Primrose, H. W. Jackson, J. R. Ferrall, Geo. E. Hunter, David M. King, Daniel Hicks, D. T. Ward, F. H. Briggs.

Board of Aldermen.

The regular meeting of the Board of Aldermen was held last night.

The street committee recommended the opening of North street from Saunders street to St. Mary's, and Boylan avenue from Mr. Willard's to Tucker's meadow. Also instructing the street commissioner to define the proposed new line for widening Fayetteville street from South street to the city limits. The report of the committee was adopted.

Mrs. M. K. Denton was allowed to repair the wood building on Exchange Place with tin roof.

Mr. J. Bledsoe was refused allowance for damage on account of right of way for a sewer line through his land. He gave notice of an appeal to the Superior Court.

The city ground in Oakwood cemetery was ordered to be put in good condition by the city force.

Forty posts for use of the fire alarm telegraph and a four foot circuit automatic repeater for the same at a cost not exceeding $900. The purchase of the poles was ordered, but action on the repeater was postponed. Alfred Tate was granted liquor license.
