NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief.

The baby brigade will soon muster strong in the afternoons.

The sheriff is still anxious to write tax receipts.

There will be a regular meeting of the Foyal Arcanum tonight.

There is comparatively but little cotton on the platform at the R. & G. Depot.

The bright, bracing weather this morning, brought out the ladies in force.

Don't fail to hear Rev. Dr. Hall's lecture on Rev. Mr. Spurgeon tomorrow night. It will be an intellectual treat.

There are now only eight prisoners in jail, here, and these are for small offences. This speaks well for Wake county.

Old bonds continue to be received at the treasury. The amount of $3,000 were exchanged yesterday afternoon.

There will be a meeting of the Raleigh Euchre Club tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock, at the residence of Mr. C. B. Wright.

The opening of Boylan avenue from Hillsboro street northward, will be of great advantage to the north western section of the city.

There are now 400 pupils in the Garfield graded school (colored) in this city. There is talk of enlarging the building.

"The Old, Old Story" will be performed at Metropolitan Hall next Tuesday night. It is said to be a splendid performance.

There will be a special meeting of Raleigh Chapter No. 10, Royal Arch Masons tonight at 7:30 o'clock. Work in Past and Most Excellent Master's degree.

The attendance at the Agricultural and Mechanical College continues to increase. The wisdom of the establishment of the institution is every day getting more apparent.

Mr. Kemp W. Merritt, the efficient registry clerk of the post office, will be united in marriage tonight to Miss Roxie May Royster, daughter of our esteemed fellow citizen, Mr. D. L. Royster.

We deeply regret to note the death of Mrs. Clements, mother of Rev. W. G. Clements, Superintendent of public instruction for Wake county, aged 70. She was found dead in her bed at Morrisville, last Sunday.

Rev. Sam P. Jones expresses a willingness to spend a while in Raleigh provided a tabernacle to hold about 5,000 people can be provided. The proposition should be considered.

The Atlantic Hotel at Morehead, will be thoroughly overhauled for the approaching summer season. Many conveniences will be added making the resort one of the most pleasant and healthful on the Atlantic coast.

It is understood that Mr. A. F. Page, of Aberdeen, offers to contribute liberally towards the erection of an auditorium in Raleigh. He should be liberally responded to by our people. Such a building is getting to be an absolute necessity and should not be longer delayed.

The Atlantic Methodist, volume 1, number 1, of Wilmington, is on our table. Rev. L. L. Nash, D. D., is editor, and Revs. C. P. Jerome and H. B. Anderson, associate editors. It is a weekly at one dollar a year. The editor promises that every dollar paid as subscription shall go to pay the debt on Fifth street church of which he is pastor. The paper presents an attractive appearance and will doubtless prove a valuable visitor to many homes.

Shad continue to come in freely. The song of the plough man is heard in the land.

Clean up your premises. The sanitary officers will be along after awhile.

Comic valentines will be all the rage this year. The sentimental business seems to be on the wane.

Some right cold weather yet ahead for us, but no doubt the worst of winter has spent its force.

It would have tempted the most confirmed epicure to see the splendid beef in market today.

Statistical information of a most valuable character is being daily received by the Commissioner of Labor Statistics. The forthcoming report will be the fullest yet issued.

Stella Reese, aged twelve years, died at Lancaster, Pa., Friday, from trichinosis, contracted by eating raw pork. This is the second death in the Reese family from the same disease.

Among the recent applicants for license before the Supreme Court, who passed, was H. C. Denny a colored man. There are now about a dozen colored lawyers in the State.

The funeral of the late Miss Martha Maynard will take place tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock from the Central M. E. Church. Friends and acquaintances invited.

The negro, John Boyd, in prison at Charlotte, on the charge of wrecking the train at Boston's bridge, states in his confession that he was, at one time, an employee of the Carolina Central road, upon which he once attempted to wreck a train.

News at the mayor's office today was perfectly flat. A little darkey was caught on the street singing a popular song, which he said he learned in Barnum's circus. He made proper explanation and was released.

Considerable tobacco is being brought here, but not near so much as should be. Raleigh has all the advantages of a good market for the weed, and it should be one of the foremost in North Carolina.

The keeper of the capitol and square, is fixing up the premises for spring and summer. He will have all the shrubbery nicely trimmed and arranged. It will be a most delightful place in the hot summer afternoons.

The grounds of the Agricultural and Mechanical College are being placed in first rate condition. They are being laid off in nice walks and the plots are being sown in grass. It will be a beautiful place when the spring fully opens.

It is to be hoped, that we will not have a warm spell of sufficient duration to cause the fruit trees to bud this month. When such is the case, the frosts of April almost invariably kill the buds, and shorten the crops. A good fruit year is always desirable.

A Good Showing.

In a recent interview in Washington City, Maj. James W. Wilson, chairman of the North Carolina Railroad Commission, is reported to have said that while the commission had only been established about ten months, they have increased the assets in tax valuation of railroad property in the State about $3,000,000, and by regulating the telegraph tariffs and reducing passenger fares and freight charges have saved to the people between four and five hundred thousand dollars.

Funeral.

The funeral services of the late Mr. N. L. Jones took place yesterday afternoon from Christ Church and was attended by a considerable crowd of relatives and friends, Rev. Dr. M. M. Marshall officiating. The interment took place in Oakwood cemetery, the following gentlemen acting as pall bearers: Messrs. G. E. Leach, Benj. Moore, J. P. Haywood, E. B. Engelhard, T. B. Cowper, Jno. A. Duncan, J. I. Johnson and Wm. Boylan, Jr.

Painful Accident.

Last Sunday a little son of Mr. W. J. Wyatt, named George, about three or four years old, met with a serious accident in Durham. The Sun says: Some time during the morning he was in one room and his mother in an adjoining room. She heard him scream and ran in to find his clothes on fire, and the flames gaining considerable headway. She seized him and laying him on the floor smothered the flames with her clothing. Our informant did not learn how the little fellows clothing caught fire. He was burned very much about the face, but not serious it is thought.

Mr. Wyatt was a former resident of Raleigh.

The Road Question.

Although this is a year which will seemingly be devoted to political matters, yet there are many domestic affairs which will claim the attention of the people. Among these is the question of proper roads, it being of the utmost importance to all classes. Many of the States are now discussing the subject in all its bearings. Commissioner Jno. Robinson has lately received a letter from the Secretary of State of New Jersey, stating that a convention was held in January last to consider it, and that the legislature has passed two bills upon the subject. Good roads are almost indispensable to a State, and we are sorry to say that North Carolina is somewhat behind in this respect.

Weather Bureau.

Synopsis of the weather at 8 p. m., yesterday.

The storm has moved off the New England coast after causing considerable rain in all the Atlantic States. A second slight storm exists in the middle Gulf.

A clearing condition and cold wave of considerable extent is moving in from the northwest, causing rapidly falling temperature and clear weather with north winds.

Local forecast for Raleigh and vicinity, on Tuesday, partly cloudy weather, no rain; temperature falling rapidly tonight. Wednesday, fair weather, decidedly colder.

In Memoriam.

Resolutions in memory of Bro. Frank Webber Sherwood:

Whereas, The Grand Chief of the universe has seen fit to summons from our ranks our beloved and honored brother, F. W. Sherwood; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the B. of L. E. Relief Association, of Division 389, has lost, not only a trusted officer, but one who from his unselfish interest in the members of Division 389, first advocated the forming of this association, an honored citizen, a gentleman in the fullest and truest sense of the word and a friend cordial and devoted, to whom we now give this tribute of our sincere love and tears, and whose memory we will ever cherish as a sacred heritage.

Resolved, That this association offers its tenderest sympathy to those most deeply bereaved in this sad affliction as being themselves sorely bereaved, and lament with them the untimely and irreparable loss.

Resolved, That in outward expression of our profound grief, and in memory of our departed brother, the usual symbol of mourning be worn by the members of the association for thirty days, and the charter be shrouded with crape.

How about the musical aid concert for the benefit of the Soldier's Home. We think it is a capital idea, and one that would result in much good. We hope our friend, Mr. W. C. Stronach, will look into the matter. He is good at such arrangements.

The backbone of the amusement season seems to have been broken.

Ladies' Fine Shoes.

We have a "job table" upon which we are showing several lines of our ladies finest shoes at $1.50 to $2.50 per pair, less than they are worth. We are just through stock taking and find that these shoes have not been selling quite as fast as they should, so we have cut the price to hurry the sale. They are all right in every way, and not shop worn, and are splendid values. If you can't be fitted from this table, our shoe people will be sure to please you from the regular stock, but first ask for these shoes on the job table.
