SYNOPSIS OF THE WEATHER.

The following is the synopsis of the weather at 8 p. m. yesterday:
The center of the area of low pressure is off the coast of New England. A clearing condition occupies the entire Mississippi valley and is proceeding to the Atlantic. Following this is fair weather, with a cold wave of considerable intensity.

RALEIGH AND VICINITY.

Fair weather, colder till 8 p. m. Sunday.

CITY IN BRIEF.

Something like a cold wave this morning.

It snowed quite brisk for a short time this morning.

A german will be given by the University Club, Monday evening, February 22nd.

Valentine Luncheons is the new name for evening receptions in some sections.

The Supreme Court is now engaged on cases from the third district. This is quick work.

The North State newspaper, recently brought to this city, from Greensboro, will soon be moved back to the latter place.

A telephone has been placed in St. John's Hospital, through the kindness of a young gentleman who pays the rent. It is number 130.

A cordial invitation is extended to the public to visit the musicale at Peace Institute tonight. It will no doubt, be a most enjoyable entertainment.

The people of the West End are very anxious that the new Baptist Mission church should be regularly opened for service. The congregation will be quite a large one from the start.

There will be no more local forecasts of weather furnished in this city. They will be furnished, exclusively by the bureau at Washington City.

All sorts of predictions about the opening of spring. Most agree, however, that it will be earlier than usual and all contend, that the signs of the times fully bear out the prediction.

A Charlotte correspondent, of the Richmond Times, says that very little evidence is given to the reported confession of John Boyd, charged with wrecking the train at Boston's bridge. On the contrary, the railroad people are confident the right man has been caught. And so we go.

A considerable crowd of our citizens here will attend the anniversary celebration of the Literary Societies at Wake Forest College to night. The special train will leave promptly at 6 p. m., returning at one o'clock a. m.

The appointments of Bishop Lyman for the spring, in this city, are as follows: May 1st, Sunday morning, Christ Church; evening, St. Augustine Chapel. May 8th, Sunday morning, church of the Good Shepherd, evening, St. Mary's School.

It seems now to be understood, that the honors of the encampment of the State Guard are to be divided this year between Asheville and Wrightsville, the first and second regiments going into camp at the latter place and the third and fourth at Asheville.

The debate to take place at the Agricultural and Mechanical College on the night of Friday the 19th inst., between the Leazer and Pullen literary societies, will be most interesting, and will doubtless attract a large crowd. The subject, "Will the United States fall as other nations have done" is one upon which much display of logic can be used.

Fresh herrings getting abundant.

There are about 1,200 convicts at work outside the penitentiary.

The walks around Moore square are to be nicely fixed up.

One of the coldest days of the season.

February has borrowed quite heavy from March today.

About 60 sheriffs have settled with the State Treasurer, in whole, or in part.

Receipts of cotton today were slight. Prices ranged from 7¢ to 8¢ cents.

The song of the turtle dove has not been heard yet, so far as reported. He must hurry up, or lose his prestige.

Mr. W. G. S. park has sold out his entire stock of goods to Mr. H. A. Bland, of Millbrook, Wake county.

J. B. Smith, sheriff of Cumberland, settled with the State Treasurer today, paying $9,083 98.

The board of public buildings and grounds passed suitable resolutions of respect for the late ex Gov. Scales.

We notice that several residences in the city are being painted up. Nothing like it, to improve the premises.

The street car folks report that travel is as good as expected at this season. A much larger patronage is looked for in the spring and summer.

Atlanta claims to have a larger number and a greater variety of manufacturing than any other city South of Baltimore, which give employment to thousands of men and women. This renders Atlanta more independent and less affected by crop failures.

John Williamson and the Wilmington Review want Congress to pay for the slaves Mr. Lincoln proclaimed free, and John wants to go there to fix up the matter. This is a novel scheme to get to Congress.

Quite a large congregation attended the Fayetteville Street Baptist Church last night to hear Rev. J. W. Lee, the Irish Evangelist. Much interest was manifested, and by request Mr. Lee will preach again tonight.

Capt. J. J. Thomas, President of the Commercial Bank, and Mr. Hal W. Ayer will, we learn, be the committee to bestow the premium to the person making the best answer to the question, "Why is the farmer poorer," propounded by the State Chronicle.

Charlotte is making great preparations for the musical festival in that city this year. A committee has been appointed to secure guarantees. The sum wanted is about $2,000, and the festival will be held in June. Can't Raleigh get up something of the kind again to relieve the dull times.

The Republican State Executive Committee will meet again in this city April 14th. We suppose it will call a convention to nominate State officers.

The fact that valentines day falls on Sunday is rather a drawback. The young folks will have to wait until Monday to receive their tokens of affection.

We are pleased to hear that the ranks of the Governor's Guard are gradually receiving accessions. We hope it may continue until it becomes the largest company in the State.

We heard today that as soon as the newly arrived electric cars receive some needed fixtures, they will at once be put on the Hargett street line. The opening of this route is anxiously awaited.

There is still much dissatisfaction among members of the bar and others owing to the delay on the part of our County Commissioners in having a proper index prepared. It is now almost impossible to search the records of the Register of Deeds office with anything like accuracy. It is a matter that should be attended to at once.

It's a Good One.

A prominent lawyer and one of Raleigh's most enterprising business men wrote us a note this morning saying:

"Discontinue the ad of a house to rent which I sent you a few days ago. It sent me a tenant for the house in a short time."

If you want a customer for anything, and you will advertise it in the Visitor, the customers will call on you if they want what you advertise.

Home Trade.

Our Raleigh merchants in every line of business will soon be receiving their spring stocks. Any possible article of clothing for men, women or children can be furnished by them as cheap as can be purchased elsewhere. With such business men, there is no excuse for our people to send elsewhere to make purchases. Do your trading at home, and buy from those mainly who advertise in the Visitor. This is a safe plan.

Religious Event.

This is the hundredth year since the first Baptist Foreign Mission Society was organized, which, it is claimed was not only the first Baptist Society, but the first Christian Society to prosecute religious work in foreign lands. It has been proposed that the Baptists all over the world shall celebrate the event in an appropriate manner. Public meetings are to be held, addresses made and accounts made of foreign mission work.

Funeral.

The funeral of the late ex-Governor Scales took place yesterday morning, at West Market Street M. E. Church, in Greensboro, and was conducted by Rev. Dr. Smith. There was a large crowd present, including Gov. Holt and several prominent gentlemen from different sections of the State. The remains were interred in Green Hill cemetery, the following gentlemen acting as pall bearers: J. S. Michaux, R. M. Douglas, R. B. King, Dr. B. F. Dixon, David Schenck, Jr., W. P. Bynum, Jr., S. L. Trogden, J. T. Morehead, J. W. Barringer, J. N. Wilson, Pr. D. R. Schenck and Robt. Vaughan.

When the Torture Will Begin.

Forty days more before we leave you in the hands of the "Philistines." Then the torture will begin in good earnest. All dry goods will go up; all shoes will cost you more; all notions will pop up, and if you then need a carpet you must pay for it in good round numbers. Swindell leaves you to the mercy of the hungry in forty days. Better prepare now while Swindell's closing out sale is progressing. On next Monday morning we will open all of our spring goods which we had left over from last spring. Several cases of white goods, dress worsteds, wash silks and all kinds of spring goods, and we think these goods will be sold in two or three days, so you should come in on Monday and secure the pick.

Yours truly,
D. T. SWINDELL

Ladies' Fine Shoes.

We have a "job table" upon which we are showing several lines of our ladies finest shoes at $1.50 to $2.50 per pair, less than they are worth. We are just through stock taking and find that these shoes have not been selling quite as fast as they should, so we have cut the price to hurry the sale. They are all right in every way, and not shop worn, and are splendid values. If you can't be fitted from this table, our shoe people will be sure to please you from the regular stock, but first ask for these shoes on the job table.
