SYNOPSIS OF THE WEATHER.

The following is the synopsis of the weather at 8 p. m. yesterday:
The cold wave has reached the Atlantic coast today; the lowest temperature will be reached Saturday morning. A new storm over Iowa and Wisconsin is causing the temperature to rise rapidly in the Mississippi valley, with southerly winds.

RALEIGH AND VICINITY.

On Saturday and Sunday, fair weather, rapidly becoming warmer.

CITY IN BRIEF.

The mayor's court was void of interest today.

Yesterday's blizzard seems to have been general throughout the country.

Half interest in the Henderson Tomahawk is offered on reasonable terms.

Mrs. Harriet Baucum has qualified as administratrix of the late Wiley Baucum, of Cary.

There was a large attendance at the soiree at Peace Institute last night. The programme was a most enjoyable one.

Prof. Moses informs us that there are about 2,400 pupils in attendance in the graded schools, white and colored, in this township.

F. H. Busbee, Esq., of this city, will deliver a memorial address on the late E. W. Pou, at the coming term of Johnston County, Superior Court.

Let our mayor lose no time in calling a public meeting for the purpose of taking some action concerning the launching of the new cruiser, Raleigh.

Mr. E. B. Martindale, died suddenly in Richmond, Va., last Tuesday. He was born in Raleigh and was a brother of Mr. H. H. Martindale, so well known here.

Ex President Cleveland will soon be one of a hunting party near Wilmington. It would be a graceful act for our Governor and municipal authorities to extend him a cordial welcome to the "City of Oaks."

The receipts of cotton in this city for the week ending last Thursday afternoon were 397 bales against 293 for the corresponding time last year. The receipts for the season were 20,349 bales against 32,273 last season.

The alarm of fire last night between 9 and 10 o'clock, was caused from the burning of a chimney at the residence of Mr. A. L. Moore on West Jones street. A few shingles on the roof were burned. Damage slight.

We hear that there is considerable suffering among the poor in some sections of the city, on account of lack of fuel as well as provisions. When appealed to our people should lend a helping hand as far as they can, and, no doubt they will.

There will be a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Laymen's Union in the Sunday School class room of Edenton Street Church on Monday night at 8 o'clock. All the members are requested to be present.

We regret to state, that a telegram was received last night, announcing the death in Springfield, Massachusetts, February 12th, of Mr. Gustave Gruendler, aged 71 years. He was father-in-law of Mrs. E. V. Gruendler, of this city. Mr. Gruendler was well known in Raleigh.

We direct attention to the advertisement of Mr. C. H. Anderson, who announces that he is receiving spring goods daily. Call and examine his stock, which will be found to be excellent in all departments and the prices so low as cannot fail to satisfy.

The Dialectic Society, of Chapel Hill University have passed suitable resolutions of respect to the memory of the late ex-Governor Seales.

Don't forget that tomorrow is St. Valentine's Day.

The general verdict of the weather prophets is, that tomorrow will be a warm, pretty day.

One of our trucksters will have ripe strawberries in market in a few days, so we learn.

It is said that the tobacco crop will be a large one. Let us hope that our dealers will make earnest efforts to have much of it sent to Raleigh.

There was a meeting of the Board of Health this morning at 11 o'clock at the mayor's office, at which some matters connected with the sewerage were discussed.

Evangelist Lee preached to a large crowd at the Fayetteville Street Church last night. Much interest was manifested.

In order to allay public apprehension in some quarters, we will state that the standard silver dollar is still passing current for its full value, and likely to so continue. Let no one be alarmed.

We believe that if some enterprising owner of real estate would come forward with a reasonable proposition to furnish an eligible site, a good sized auditorium would soon be an accomplished improvement.

Attention is directed to the advertisement of Messrs. H. G. Rhodes & Co., in this issue. These gentlemen carry a first class stock of furniture of the latest and most approved styles which they are offering to the public at prices which cannot fail to meet the approval of the public. Housekeepers will do well to call and examine. They can doubtless be suited.

At 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, Rev. K. D. Holmes will preach in Wm. T. Woodward's store room, on South Dawson street, between West Davis and Cabarrus streets. The Sunday School will be held there at 2 o'clock. Let there be a full attendance as the house will be made comfortable.

Masonic.

Hiram Lodge, No. 40, will meet in regular communication Monday evening, Feb. 15th, at 7:30 o'clock sharp. Every member is requested to be present. Brethren of sister lodges cordially invited. By order of W. M. E. B. THOMAS, Sec'y.

THE "CITY OF DELIVERANCE."

RICHMOND, Ind., Feb. 12.—Many families of this place have become converts to a new faith and taken their departure for Detroit, the "City of Deliverance" and dwelling place of "Prince Michael" the leader of the new sect, which is denominated the "Disciples of the Flying Roll." Michael K. Mills, a native of Elgin, Ont., is the leader, to whom they have turned in the fear and belief that the world is about to be visited by some dreadful calamity.

Personal Mention.

The condition of officer Lewellen is not so favorable today.

Mrs. W. R. Blake, who has been quite sick, is much improved.

W. D. Faywood, Esq., is still quite sick.

How It Happened.

The co-author of "The Old, Old Story" tells how it received its name. It appears, that on one occasion, as they emerged from the theatre after remaining until the early morning hours, struggling to bring out the admirable ending of the third act, when the problem refused to be solved, each with a roll of manuscript under his arm, they encountered two well known Thespians who were apparently suffering from a slight attack of ultraconviviality superinduced by several bottles of champagne. The tired playwrights regarded the artificially joyful actors almost enviously and as they passed they overheard one of them say somewhat thickly to his companion: "I say old chap, (hic) there you are, (hic) the old, old story, (hic) two struggling artists trying to name a play, (hic) I'll bet a bottle I'm right."

The remark was one hardly calculated to revive the slightly drooping spirits of the playwrights, and as they slowly crossed Madison Square, a prolonged silence ensued, which was at length suddenly broken by Bellows exclaiming:

"What's the matter with 'The Old, Old Story,' for a title? I think the gentlemen with the 'jag' has given us a good name for our play."

A few months later when the play was completed, and the subject of the title was being considered Bellows again suggested "The Old, Old Story" and it was adopted. The theatrical public as well as the hilarious Thespians have since learned that the "two struggling artists" succeeded in writing a successful play and one that ranks high in the list of American efforts.
