LARGEST CITY CIRCULATION

RALEIGH, N. C., FEB 13, 1892

CHARLES WATERBURY, the kidnapper of the little Waterbury boy, has been making an effort to commit suicide in prison. He was caught in his cell tearing up his shirt to hang himself with.

John B. Royster, the man who murdered John P. Eppes, the manager of the Western Union telegraph office at Suffolk, Va., was captured at Williamston, N. C., and taken to Suffolk day before yesterday. He fought desperately when captured.

The New York Recorder is trying to interest the country in a move to present President Harrison, Secretary Blaine and Secretary Tracy with a silver statue, each, of Charles W. Riffin, the sailor of the Baltimore who was murdered in Valparaiso, by the Chilians last year. A special appeal is sent out to papers and persons in the south, in which the Recorder claims to be a strong friend of the south.

A FAMINE IN BOMBAY.

Official notice has been given by the Bombay authorities that a famine prevails in that country and the famine code has been applied over an area of 5,000 square miles, containing a population of a million and a half of people.

TRY IT.

Here is something which probably all our readers do not know. A lamp may be lit with a piece of ice. A small piece of metallic potassium is laid on the wick and touched with the ice, when the water immediately produces a flame. This is due to the property of this metal to oxidize with exceeding rapidity on contact with water. This curious experiment is to be made with great caution, as if too much of the potassium is used an explosion will take place.

GRABBED $4,500 AND RAN.

St. Louis, Feb. 12.—Geo McKinsley, a restaurant waiter, was riding south on the Broadway line today, and opposite him was Paymaster Robert D. Jennings, of the line, who had just drawn from the bank something over $4,500 with which to pay off the employees.

Jennings sat with the money in a valise between his feet. He turned his head to look out of the window, and as he did so McKinsley grabbed the valise and ran.

Jennings sprang after him, and with others on the car and on the street pursued the thief. Archibald Bruner caught up with him, but McKinsley drew a six inch kirk and cut him. Bruner sank to the sidewalk, but managed to draw a pistol and fire at the fleeing man. He winged him, and McKinsley was soon under arrest.

WE WOULD NOT COMPLAIN.

It is very difficult to satisfy men in this world. The citizens of Baltimore are paying only $.25 per 1,000 feet for gas, and yet they are calling upon their lawmakers to legislate upon it. The company now furnishing it at $1.25 has the monopoly, and that is one of the reasons why legislation upon gas is demanded. There is a wonderful amount of opposition to monopolies in any shape among the American people. They are better satisfied if they have to pay a little more provided they know there is no monopoly about it.

A SINGULAR CRIPPLE.

Public Opinion.

A singular story comes from Russia of a young man known as the "Dying Prophet," who for several months past has died, to all appearances, every Saturday and returned to life every Monday. This person, by name Tagarelli, was born at Tiflis, in the Caucasus, and has been bedridden since early childhood. At the first of these singular phenomena his body was prepared for burial, which was to have taken place on Monday, on which day he returned to life. He declares that he really does die, and is obliged to look upon the book of the recording angel and see on its pages the names of his acquaintances, with the list of their evil deeds and thoughts. These he tells to those of their perpetrators who visit him, and it is said, never makes a mistake.

Among others who visited him was a newspaper reporter, who went with the avowed purpose of exposing a fraud but he rushed from Tagarelli's room with a white face, exclaiming to his friends: "Take me away! I have lived an hour in the day of judgment."

A CHAIR OF "ENGLISH BIBLE."

Mr. James Strong, of Philadelphia, has given $25,000 to endow the chair of "English Bible" in Pennsylvania College, situated at Gettysburg. It is in memory of his wife, and carries with it the chaplaincy of the institution. Rev. Eli Huber, of Philadelphia, will be chosen.

THE CREW WAS LOST.

BEAUFORT, N. C., Feb. 11.—The schooner Wave, Captain Newcomb, bound for Norfolk with a load of oysters, was swamped in Pamlico Sound, and the crew were lost.

About 15 feet of the vessel's mast is out of water.

The captain was from New Jersey. He leaves a widow and one child. The mate, S. D. Parsons, belonged here.

Fire! FIRE! Fire!

Are you insured?
 Is the evidence of your insurance insured?
 A good Fire Proof Safe for their protection is the only insurance for them. Have you a good Safe?
 When placing your insurance did you obtain bids from several companies and select the lowest priced company?
 Or did you consider and decide that the best company would prove the cheapest should a loss occur?
 Why not follow out the same line of reasoning in the selection of a good Safe in which to insure your insurance policies, books and valuable papers from destruction by fire or from theft by burglars?
 When about to employ a lawyer for a case of importance, do you get bids from several and accept the lowest?
 Or do you employ a capable man who has had experience and a good record?
