SYNOPSIS OF THE WEATHER.

The following is the synopsis of the weather at 8 p. m. yesterday:
The storm has disappeared off the New England coast. It is followed by a clearing condition and cold wave of considerable extent, which will prevail over the Atlantic coast on Tuesday.

RALEIGH AND VICINITY.

On Tuesday—Fair weather; colder.
On Wednesday—Fair, slightly warmer

CITY IN BRIEF.

Johnston County Superior Court commenced yesterday.

The New Berne fair will open next Monday.

Go to Metropolitan Hall tonight and see the "Old, Old Story."

Much interest is being worked up in the matter of exhibits for the World's Fair.

Associate Justice J. J. Davis was in attendance yesterday, on the Supreme Court, for the first time this term.

Fourth district appeals will be called in the Supreme Court next Monday. There are only five of them.

The plate ice factory is being rapidly rebuilt. The roof has been finished.

The press in every city in which the "Old, Old Story" has been produced, pronounce it a splendid performance. Go and see it.

Remember the concert of the University Glee Club next Saturday night. It will be an interesting entertainment.

Attention is called to the advertisement of Mr. L. H. Adams offering houses for rent and shingles for sale. Go and see him; he will treat you right.

Wake county could well afford to issue a large amount of bonds for the purpose of working the public roads. It would largely reimburse the taxpayers of the county in many ways.

Remember that the "Old, Old Story" will be about the last play of the kind this season. It is a first class production, and is of special interest to the ladies. Let the hall be crowded.

Attention of those desiring convenient board is called to the advertisement of Misses F. & J. Miller in this issue. This is a very desirable place for those having business downtown.

We were told by an employee of the electric street railway, today, that cars on the Hargett street line would commence running March 1st. "We tell the tale as it was told to us."

There is a general demand for a new city clock. The present one no doubt costs as much in repairs during a year or so as a new one could be purchased for. We hope to hear soon that our Board of Aldermen have acted in the premises.

The black and white calico used for decorating the public buildings on the occasions of the deaths of Col. Saunders and Gov. Fowle, have been donated to the Orphan Asylums at Oxford and Thomasville.

The Commissioner of Agriculture has received a letter from Mr. Thos. K. Bruner, commissioner of collections of exhibits for the World's Fair, who is now in Washington City. Mr. Bruner says that he is making much progress in the matter.

It is much to be regretted, that there is not a substantial fund at the disposal of St. John's Hospital. It is often seriously cramped financially which seriously checks its operations for good. We sincerely hope that in the not distant future, the institution may be placed on a firm foundation.

Not much of a cold wave after all.

There have been, so far, 290 brands of fertilizers registered for sale in this State.

The german at the Capital Club was well attended last night.

Two cases of drunk and down were dismissed by the mayor this morning with a most solemn warning.

The cotton market was quite flat today. Very little of the staple coming in, and prices as low as usual.

A large and modern arranged hotel is to be built at Chapel Hill. It is a much needed improvement.

A pigeon shooting match will take place at the fair grounds next Friday afternoon.

The February bulletin of the N. C. Agricultural and Experimental Station, has made its appearance. It is a valuable number.

We would state, in answer to an enquiry, that so far as we can learn, Col. A. B. Andrews is still 2d Vice President of the Richmond and Danville system.

We have been requested to call attention to the condition of the sidewalk near the southeast corner of Wilmington and Hargett streets. It is in a bad fix and needs repair.

The Fifth Maryland Regiment Gazette for this month contains a most interesting account of the regiments visit to Raleigh, with pictures of some of our most popular young ladies.

All parties indebted to A. G. Rhodes & Co. will make settlement at once to A. G. Rhodes at his office, No. 12 East Hargett street, and save expenses. All parties holding claims against A. G. Rhodes & Co. will present the same to A. G. Rhodes at once for settlement. fe16 6t

The question is being asked why the light committee, appointed some time since, does not make a report. There should be some substitute for the gas lights recently discontinued.

We hope the work of merchandizing the street leading directly to the Federal cemetery will not much longer be delayed. Such work, we believe, has been ordered by Congress in most places having such cemeteries. It will be a valuable improvement.

It looks a little strange that oranges are cheaper in Raleigh than apples, when it is considered that the former are raised elsewhere and the latter can be produced in North Carolina, and as fine as can be found in any State in the Union.

A Washington correspondent reiterates the assertion that Hon. E. G. Reade is to resign the presidency of the National Bank of Raleigh, and that Chief Justice Merrimon is to succeed him. It is announced on authority that the rumor is entirely unfounded.

There is a general idea that fruit is seldom, if ever, killed in March. This is, for the most part, true, but a country friend tells us that it can well be accounted for. He says that there is usually but little frost in March, and this is owing to the high winds that prevail in that month. He contends that if March is a calm month, there is as much danger of a killing frost as there is during the full moon in April. We merely throw out the idea, because we confess we are much of a novice in such matters.

It is a most remarkable error to suppose that in dull times advertising should be curtailed. Of all other times it would seem that this is the most appropriate. In fact, advertising is the means by which trade can be most easily spurred up. Let the people know what you have to offer them, and the prices at which it can be obtained, and rest assured you will have customers, let the times be ever so hard. Try this plan in the Visitor, and take our word for it, the plan will work well.

Secretary Harris Honored.

The Mobile, Ala., Daily Register has the following to say of Secretary Harris, who will soon leave to enter upon Y. M. C. A. work in that city: "Mr. Eugene L. Harris has been elected general secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association of Mobile. He has accepted the position and will enter on the discharge of the duties of the office in February. He has been three years in charge of the flourishing association at Winston, N. C., and has brought it up from nothing to a membership of three hundred. He has been six years in the work. He has been for some time Treasurer of the State Committee of North Carolina, and, according to Mr. L. A. Coulter, State Secretary of North Carolina, is with one possible exception the most efficient secretary in that flourishing commonwealth. Mr. Harris is thirty six years of age and has a wife and two children. He is described as a careful and able worker in all lines, including the gymnasium. The association here is fortunate in securing him and will give him a hearty welcome."

Entertainment.

There will be an entertainment at the A. and M. College chapel Friday night, Feb. 19th, beginning at eight o'clock. The public are cordially invited to attend. Arrangements have been made with the Street Car Co for special cars to run until after the exercises are over.

News and Observer's Enormous Statement.

On last Sunday the News and Observer said Swindell had but two rolls of carpeting left, when it should have said Swindell had sixty rolls of carpeting left. This carelessness of the News and Observer has worked to our loss the sale of several nice carpets. Now we have sixty rolls of ingrain carpets, forty rolls of moquette, forty rolls of Brussels and thirty rolls of velvet carpeting, quite enough to satisfy any one, and we are doing our best to sell all these carpets at whole sale cost before we move to Baltimore. Get a carpet at our store while you can save big money on it. Yours truly,
D. T. SWINDELL
