SYNOPSIS OF THE WEATHER.

The following is the synopsis of the weather at 8 p. m. yesterday:
The trough of low pressure covers the country from Ohio to Louisiana, having moved eastward but little during the past twenty four hours. The area of rain fall accompanying it has spread over the Atlantic States. A high area prevails over the South Atlantic coast and another in the extreme northwest.

RALEIGH AND VICINITY.

Saturday—Cloudy weather and rain; continued warm.
Sunday—Cloudy weather and rain, becoming cooler Sunday night.

CITY IN BRIEF.

Monday being a legal holiday all the banks of the city will be closed.

A special term of Bertie Superior Court has been ordered with Judge Geo. H. Brown presiding.

Go to the concert of the University Glee Club at Metropolitan Hall tonight. Remember it will be for the benefit of St. Mary's Guild.

It is proposed by Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Erwin, of Morganton, to give an entertainment next Tuesday evening for the benefit of the Soldier's Home.

Rev. J. L. Foster, pastor of the Christian church will begin a series of sermons on "The Work" tomorrow night.

Prof. George T. Winston, of the University, will deliver the address this year before the graduating class of Salem Female College. It will, no doubt, be a masterly address.

The cotton receipts in Raleigh for the week have been 98 bales against 391 for the corresponding week last year. The receipts for the season were 2617 bales against 32,674 last year.

The trial of Wyde, the English bigamist will commence at Guilford Superior Court in Greensboro, next Thursday. An important witness harried from England to testify as to Wyde's first wife.

Last night during a scuffle between a little son of Mr. Sid Solomon and a small colored boy named Joel Perry the former cut the latter with a knife. It was claimed that the cutting was accidental.

The trial of Wyatt Thompson for the murder of the Pearsall family, the burning of their house and three bodies, will come up in Smithfield, Johnston county, next Tuesday. There are a large number of witnesses and it will be an exciting event.

Willie Carrol who returned from his home in Sampson county, to the A & M. College on the 5th day of January, brought with him three hens. He has already gotten seventy five eggs from them and two of them are laying right on yet; the other began setting last night.

We advise the ladies, especially, to call at the Norris' Dry Goods Store and select some of the splendid bargains in white goods and embroideries just received. These are being offered to the trade of Raleigh at such astoundingly low prices as cannot fail to attract. Call and be convinced. Look out for their new "ad" next Monday.

There is still much complaint of the blockade occasioned by the crowd that usually assembles at the southeast corner of Hargett and Wilmington streets, especially on Saturday. This seems to be a general resort for a packed crowd, so that it is almost impossible for pedestrians to get along without leaving the sidewalk and taking to the street. This should not be. It seems that the pavements should be kept cleared of such obstructions. We hope the police will take charge of the matter. It has been frequently alluded to.

Rather a cold rain is the outlook for tomorrow.

All the banks will be closed on Monday next, it being a legal holiday.

Beautiful posters announcing the Harry Lindley company next week are being put up today.

It is said that Evangelist Fife will make his permanent headquarters either at Durham, Charlotte or Raleigh.

There will be Sunday School at 2 p. m., at Woodard's store near the Union Depot. Rev. Kenneth Holmes will preach at same place at 8 p. m.

Accident.

Late yesterday afternoon an old wooden house near Walnut Creek, on Bledsoes plantation, southeast of the city, fell in, some of the timber falling upon and badly injuring a colored man named Robt. Seawell. The matter was reported to Chief of Police Hearty, who took steps to have the injured man removed to his home on East street. Although he is badly hurt, it is not now thought that it will result fatally.

Shooting Match.

There was a considerable crowd in attendance at the shooting match at the fair grounds yesterday afternoon. It consisted of a shooting at 100 pigeons from five ground traps between Mr. Davenport, of New York, and Capt. Engelhard, of this city. The boundary was 50 yards in front and 80 back of the traps. Mr. Davenport killed 85 pigeons and Capt. Engelhard 70. The sweepstakes were won by Messrs. J. D. Creech, E. G. Lach and Samuel Lambeth. The proceeds, amounting to $50, were presented to St. John's Hospital.

Personal Mention.

Miss Evie Ellis left this afternoon on a visit to relatives and friends in Franklinton, N. C.

The little son of Mr. W. C. Richardson is quite sick.

Gen. W. R. Cox is in the city.

Col. Paul Faison left today to inspect the Roanoke convict farm.

Gov. Holt and several other gentlemen connected with the State government will leave for New Bern next Tuesday.

R. R. Bridgers, Esq., superintendent of the W. N. C. Railroad, is in the city.

Important Meeting.

There was a special meeting of the street committee, of the Board of Aldermen, held at the mayor's office, this morning at 9 o'clock, the object being to consider the matter of purchasing a steam road roller. An agent representing the "C. S. Kelly Company," of Springfield Ohio, was present who explained the machine, stating that he had succeeded in selling one to the city authorities of Asheville. The machine in all its parts, seems to be most complete. In its make up it has much the appearance of a freight locomotive. The price of the roller is $8,700. The committee discussed the matter at much length. Mr. Pogue moved to recommend to the Board of Aldermen the purchase of the roller on terms of payment recommended by the agent, payment to be made by August 1st next. The machine to be delivered on acceptance of the proposition by the Board of Aldermen. The motion was adopted. The Mayor was requested to call a special meeting of the board for this afternoon at 5 o'clock to consider the matter.

He is Not Going.

Some people are saying Swindell is not going to move from Raleigh. Now then suppose he is not. None can doubt he is selling out at wholesale cost, and it matters not to you where or when Swindell is going to you get the goods at cost. But, reader, Swindell is going to move to Baltimore in April whether you think so or not.

A. and M. College.

The debate between representatives of the Leazer and Pullen societies of the Agricultural and Mechanical College took place last night and was attended by a considerable crowd notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather. The opening address was made by W. H. Turner, after which the declamations were delivered. They were as follows: "Behold the Republic," L. J. Broughton for Pullen society. "Adams and Jefferson," R. M. Williams for Leazer society. "Curse of Regulus," T. B. Wetmore for Pullen society. "On being Convicted of Treason," C. D. Franks for Leazer society.

Two essays were read after debate—"A Rolling Stone Gathers no Moss," G. P. Gray for Pullen; "The Ennobling of Labor," S. E. Ashbury for Leazer.

The main debate then followed upon the query: "Resolved, That the United States will fall as other nations have fallen." The affirmative side of the subject was taken by W. J. Mathews and O. S. Bostick, representing the Pullen society, and R. W. Allen and H. E. Bonitz, of the Leazer society, representing the negative. It was decided by the judges in favor of the negative. The exercises throughout were of the most interesting character, and those in attendance were highly delighted.

Oh, Me! Money is So Scarce.

Every day there are hundreds of people in this city who make use of this remark, "Oh, me! money is so scarce;" and those very people, when they have to buy shoes or any other article of wearing apparel, go right to some store and pay the regular price with profit on and never think what they lose by not going to Swindell's closing out sale. Now Mr. Madam, Miss, just as long as you are asleep and slow to catch on you will continue to say, "Oh, me! how scarce money is." Wake up, and when anything is to be had be the first to get it.

Yours truly,
D. T. SWINDELL.
