SYNOPSIS OF THE WEATHER.

The following is the synopsis of the weather at 8 a. m. today:

RALEIGH AND VICINITY.

Till 8 p m Sunday, combined cloudy weather with northeast winds growing colder Saturday night. No rain.

CITY IN BRIEF.

New moon this morning.

Politics will soon be all the rage.

There were only comparatively a few country people in the city to day.

The Democratic State Executive Committee will meet here next week.

The bigamist "Wyde" has been sentenced at Greensboro, to five years in the penitentiary.

The penitentiary was reinforced yesterday by two convicts from Johnston county.

The railroad commissioners made an examination of the Atlantic and North Carolina Railroad and found it in good order.

A full rehearsal of the characters in the tableaux of "Ben Hur" will be held to night at the rectory of the church of the Good Shepherd.

Copies of the Monthly Bulletin are being sent out from the Agricultural Department to the number of ten thousand.

It is seriously in contemplation to break up the crowds of idlers who lounge around the Mayor's office during trials.

Sleeping in dry goods boxes out houses etc., is getting to be common among some of the small colored boys. This should be broken up.

There was a large attendance at the Agricultural and Mechanical College last night to hear an address from Maj. S. M. Finger, Superintendent of Public Instruction. It was an occasion of much interest.

Mrs. E. K. Bradford, the author of the Ben Hur tableaux is in the city and is at the rectory as the guest of the Parish of the Church of the Good Shepherd.

There will be a rehearsal of the tableaux this evening at the Rectory at 7 o'clock, sharp, and all who are to represent characters are urgently requested to be on hand promptly at that hour.

The Rev. Dr. Watkins will tomorrow occupy his pulpit in the First Presbyterian church of this city, for the last time as its pastor. He will not preach a farewell sermon, in the general acceptance of that term, but a simple gospel sermon.

Col. A. K. McClure, of the Philadelphia "Times" has started for another tour through the South. All who remember Col. McClure's visit to Raleigh last year, can realize his true devotion to the Southern people. Hope he will have a pleasant trip.

Are we to allow the centennial year of Raleigh's existence to pass without some appropriate celebration. Such an event in most cities would be occasion of grand celebration. Let us be up and doing. Our Board of Aldermen should take the initiative. The people generally are favorable to the proposition.

The road question is still looming up all over the State. Why cannot the matter be a well discussed one on the stump this year? It is a subject, that enters closely into all neighborhoods. Good roads are a blessing, and it is the duty of the State to furnish its citizens with all the blessings at its command. Let the legislature take it in hand, and see to it that a large force of convicts is kept constantly at work on the roads of the several counties.

The Lenten season is near at hand.

A gentleman who has traveled most extensively and made a tour of Europe says Fayetteville street is one of the prettiest he ever saw.

Although the weather continues cool we should not complain. It should be remembered that the longer the budding of the trees is postponed the better will the prospect be for a good fruit year.

The present weighing of the mails on the railroads show, that the weight of mail matter has largely increased since the last weighing three years ago. For the purpose of weighing the mail matter in the country, geographical divisions are made by the department; Georgia, the Carolinas, Florida, Alabama and Tennessee forming this division.

Mayor's Court.

The case against Mack Freeman, colored, for being drunk and disorderly and resisting an officer. The evidence showed Freeman to be a desperate character. He was fined $50 and cost.

A case of drunk and down was fined $1 and cost.

Personal Mention.

Mr. John W. Baker left this morning for a short visit to friends in Va. Miss Ettie Mangum, of Chapel Hill, is in the city visiting friends.

We are pleased to learn that Capt. S. A. Ashe, who has been sick with the grippe, is improving.

Mr. W. D. Hay has gone to New Orleans to see the Mardi Gras.

Grand Sire Busbee has received an invitation to attend the dedication of the New Odd Fellows Temple at Baltimore, April 26th.

$1.50 and $2.00.

We are selling the best $1.50 and $2.00 ladies buttoned shoes sold in this market.

Dunlap's Hats.

We are Raleigh's agents for Messrs. R. Dunlap & Co's fine hats for gentlemen Saturday, Feb. 27th, is opening day for Spring styles 1892, and we are now showing the new shapes for this season. We cordially invite an inspection of the new styles. The hats shown by us here are identical in shape and quality, as those sold from Dunlap's 5th salesroom, New York.

W. H. & R. S. TUCKER & CO.

Only Twenty Days More.

We have but twenty days more in which to complete our closing out sale at cost prices, and as we have many handsome Spring Dress Goods, we think you could spend next week very profitable in shopping through our big store. Our shoe department alone is a show of itself, and our dress goods department is yet full of desirable dress material, and our carpet department is well stocked with the most beautiful patterns of carpets, Ingrain, Moquet, Velvet and Brussels. We can suit you in a carpet and will sell you for less money than than any one else. Buy a nice carpet at SWIN DELL'S. Our stock of men's furnishing goods is probably the largest and most complete in Raleigh, and every dollar's worth of goods in our store is being sold at cost.

Yours truly,
D. T. SWIN DELL.

Wanted.

A good boy, 16 or 17 years of age, to learn carriage painting. One willing to learn and not afraid of work, will hear of a good place by applying to John W. Evans, corner of Morgan and Blount streets. Feb 27 2t

"The Raleigh."

We hear that our people will probably be called upon to subscribe a sufficient sum for a present to the cruiser "Raleigh" on the occasion of its launch at Norfolk next month. We hope that the response in this case will be liberal so that we may show our appreciation of the compliment bestowed, not only upon our city, but upon the State of North Carolina.

Y. M. C. A.

Yesterday afternoon the Board of Directors met to hear a report from the committee on buildings. The chairman reported that the three story brick building at the corner of Fayetteville and Morgan streets, near the capitol had been rented for the association. This announcement gave great satisfaction, as this is the most desirable place in Raleigh.

The board also took steps for the formation of a ladies auxiliary society to consist of three ladies from each church, whose names will be announced shortly.

Up to this time no collections have been made, although they run from January 1st, 1892. The reason for the delay is in the fact that no suitable building could be secured until now. The pledges may be paid to the treasurer, Mr. C. P. Wharton. During the next week Mr. Geo. F. Ball will wait on the subscribers.

At a meeting to be held March 4th, a general secretary will be elected.
