MOON'S PHASES FOR FEBRUARY.

First quarter, 5th—4:35 A. M.
Full moon, 12th—2:24 P. M.
Last quarter, 20th—7:00 P. M.
New moon, 27th—10:33 P. M.

SYNOPSIS OF THE WEATHER.

The following is the synopsis of the weather at 8 a. m. today:
Cloudy weather and rain continues over the country east of the Mississippi river, where the pressure is low, the center of the storm being over Lake Erie. A clearing condition and cold wave has appeared in the extreme northwest. The temperature in Dakota is below zero this morning. It is snowing in Kansas City and St. Louis.

RALEIGH AND VICINITY.

Tuesday: Continued cloudy weather, with rain, becoming fair Tuesday night, colder.

CITY IN BRIEF.

"Ben Fur" tonight.

Rain last night fell in torrents.

There was a slight fall of snow last Saturday night.

Nearly all the sheriffs of the State have settled up.

Round trip tickets from Raleigh to New Orleans to attend Mardi Gras, are $25 50

Who has copy of the Raleigh Minerva of August 10th, 1891? Maj. S. M. Finger wants it.

The health of the soldiers home in this city, is now good. All the grippe sufferers have recovered, or nearly so.

Mr. J. Ruffin Williams has removed to the house formerly occupied by Judge Spier Whitaker.

The Superior Court of Wake county, for the trial of civil cases met this morning. Judge Connor presiding.

The work of tearing down the residence of Mr. J. Ruffin Williams will soon commence preparatory to the erection of the proposed new hotel.

Attention is directed to the advertisement of Mr. Wayne Alcott who announces the advantages of Building and Loan Associations.

There will be a meeting of Trustees of the A and Mechanical College, in this city, during the present week.

The report of the Railway Commission is about ready and will soon be distributed. It contains about 70 pages and will be a most interesting book.

Yesterday was an old fashioned disagreeable Sunday, so far as the weather was concerned. The churches however, were well attended considering the circumstances.

The Treasurer of the Y. M. C. A. has secured the services of Mr. Geo. T. Ball to collect the subscriptions for the Y. M. C. A. We hope those who subscribed will be punctual in their payments.

Remember the "orange Tea" of the "Whatsoever" Circle of the King's Daughters which takes place tomorrow between the hours of 5 and 9 p. m., at the residence of Mrs. R. C. Badger. No admission charged.

Attention is directed to the advertisement of Messrs. S. & D. Berwanger, who announce that it will be a pleasure for any one to go to their store and witness their new styles in spring goods. And so it will be. No better equipped establishment in the south, and no place where goods can be procured at more reasonable prices. It is indeed the great emporium of fashion for North Carolina.

Yesterday morning Rev. Dr. J. L. Watkins preached his final sermon at the First Presbyterian Church to a very large congregation, from Philippians 1 chapter and 18th verse. His sermon at night was from Matthew 19th chapter and 8th and 9th verses. Both sermons were eloquent and touching. Dr. Watkins leaves next Wednesday for his new charge in Spartanburg, S. C.

We hear that many improvements are to be made to Brookside Park, for the spring and summer season. It will be a most delightful resort.

We heard a lawyer say today, that it consumed a considerable time, now, in looking up land titles, on account of the want of a new index book in the Register of Deeds office. This is a matter that the commissioners should not longer overlook. It is a most important one to the people of the county, and the cost would be money well spent.

We are requested by Mr. A. L. Ferrell, Secretary of the Board of Health, to earnestly urge upon physicians and others, whose duty it is to make reports, that they do so promptly by tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock, as this is the close of the fiscal year. This is a very important matter, as Mr. Ferrell is unable to promptly make up his reports without it is attended to.

Personal Mention.

Mr. J. S. Wynne, Secretary and Treasurer of the Raleigh cotton Mills has returned from a business trip to the Northern cities.

Mrs. V. Ballard and Mrs. George Longee, of Durham, are in the city.

Miss Lizzie Bagley is visiting in Louisville.

Masonic Notice.

There will be a special communication of Hiram Lodge No. 49, this evening at 7:30 o'clock. Every member is requested to be present. Business of importance.

By order of W. M.

E. B. THOMAS, Sec'y.

Died.

This morning at 6 o'clock, Mrs. Gergetta Olive, wife of James H. Olive, Esq., of this county, near Apex, and sister of Mr. O. H. Johnson, of this city. She leaves a husband and several small children, brothers and sisters to mourn their loss. She was an earnest and faithful member of the church and Sunday School at Olives Chapel. Loved by all, and noted for her pure christian character. Surely death loves a shining mark. City papers please copy.

Rex Hospital.

It is much regretted that circumstances are such that no action can be taken just now, for utilizing the Rex Hospital fund. At least, we understand this to be the case owing to some difficulty in disposing of certain property. That Raleigh needs an institution of the kind, and needs it badly, there is little if any, difference of opinion. We know that most of the cities have such resorts, and we as the capital of the State should not be without one properly supported. St. John's Hospital, of course cannot be expected to fill the want, although it must be said, that it has accomplished great good, and is still doing so. We hope that some mode of utilizing the Rex fund may soon be determined, so that a long felt need for our city may be accomplished.

Wake Superior Court.

This tribunal met today, Judge Connor presiding. The following cases were disposed of:

State, ex rel W. R. Lyon vs. C. D. Upchurch et als; judgment $4,863 97.
Notice of appeal.
State ex rel R. S. Hudson vs. C. D. Upchurch et als., on trial.
The following additional cases are on calendar for Monday, March 7th, 1892:

5764—L. A. Jackson vs. Geo. H. Jackson.
5081—A. J. Ellis vs. M. L. Green.
203, S. D.—Ed. M. Jones vs. Annie Jones.

5071—Atlantic Express Company vs. R. & D. & W. & W. R. R. Cos.
5095—W. P. Carlton vs. J. H. Fleming, Exp.

TUESDAY, MARCH 8TH.

4763—J. M. Luther et als., vs. J. A. Norris et als.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 9TH.

4991—Gaston Williams et als., vs. Emily Johnson et al.

Important Meeting.

The citizens of Raleigh are requested to meet at the Mayor's office next Wednesday night for the purpose of considering the proposition to procure an appropriate gift for the new cruiser "Raleigh" which is to be launched at Norfolk early in April next. It is most earnestly hoped that there will be a large attendance and that the proposition will meet with a most hearty response at the hands of our people.

Destructive Fire.

We learn that the residence of Mr. Alex. Jeffreys, on the Fayetteville road, a few miles south of this city, was destroyed by fire this morning about 4 o'clock. All the furniture, together with the wearing apparel of Mr. and Mrs. Jeffreys were burned. In fact the family are left almost destitute and need assistance. It is not known how the fire originated.

Mayor's Court.

There was, what might be termed a motley assemblage of all colors, races, and we might add nationalities in attendance at the Mayor's office today, drawn hither in expectation of a sensational time for Monday morning. The case of Caroline Simmons vs. Presilla and Eliza Whitfield was called. Mr. Thos. P. Devereux for State and J. C. L. Harris for defendant. There were a large number of witnesses. The charge was using bad language last Wednesday week. After a full hearing, the Mayor concluded that there "was nothing in it" and dismissed the case.

A Splendid Cast.

The following is the cast for the beautiful tableaux of "Ben Hur" which is to be rendered at Metropolitan Hall tonight:

Ben Hur, Jos. F. Pogue.
Messala, A. W. Haywood.
Herod, Dr. V. E. Turner.

The most popular brand of laundry soap now on the market is the Southern Family—made by the Southern Soap Manufacturing Company of Raleigh, N. C. The printer, the painter and the washwoman all say it's the best.

Having resigned my position with Mr. F. A. Watson, I offer to the public my services and skill as an artistic paper hanger. I am prepared to do first class work on short notice. My office is at Messrs. Jones & Powell's, No. 107, Fayetteville Street.
fe29 1w L. C. WEATHERS.

Three Weeks More.

We will be with you but three weeks more and during that time we will offer some lines of goods far under New York cost. We have a large lot of millinery goods for spring wear which our milliner has instructions to sell for less than cost. One lot of zephyr hoods and jackets for infants, hoods 10 cents, jackets 25 cents and in dress goods, carpets and clothing we are fully prepared to show you anything you may want. Spring styles and many of these goods will be offered for less than cost. If you spend your dollars at Swin Dell's during the remainder of his closing out sale you will get 1 and half times more for each dollar than you will get later. To those who have been waiting for the last reduction on carpets we would say this morning the last and final price has been made which brings a little below cost. Swin Dell has one hundred real nice trunks left and these you can buy a little less than cost.

Yours truly,
D. T. SWIN DELL

Now is the time to get bargains in China &c., as Hughes is going to move to the Andrews building. Goods will be sold at reduced prices.
