SYNOPSIS OF THE WEATHER.

The following is the synopsis of the weather at 8 a. m. today:
The clearing condition has moved southward to Tennessee and Alabama and dominates the weather over the entire country east of the Mississippi with a moderate cold wave.
The storm on the Atlantic coast has disappeared. The storm in the northwest has moved south to Dodge City causing rising temperature in the west.

RALEIGH AND VICINITY.

Fair till 8 p. m. Saturday, becoming rapidly warmer.

CITY IN BRIEF.

Big frost this morning.

Fine weather again, and farmers have resumed work in earnest.

Ashe Wednesday was appropriately observed in the Episcopal and Catholic Churches yesterday.

A tarbed wire fence is being placed around some of the mounds in the capitol square to protect the turling.

Go to the "C. C." supper tonight at the residence of Mrs. H. J. Brown. Lots of enjoyment.

The beautiful weather, today, brought out the ladies in force, and shopping was quite brisk.

See notice of Samuel D. Griffin, administrator of Solomon Brown, deceased.

Return of the favorites, Guy Bros. Minstrels at Metropolitan Hall Saturday, March 5th.

The motion docket will be called in the Superior Court next Saturday morning. A full attendance of the bar is requested.

Don't forget the entertainment at the residence of Mrs. H. J. Brown, tonight. It will be a most pleasant occasion.

The Board of Aldermen will meet in regular monthly session tomorrow night. Some important matters under consideration.

The Democratic State Executive Committee have called a convention to meet in Raleigh, May 18th, for the purpose of nominating a State ticket, delegates to Chicago, &c.

There will be a full meeting of the "G. G's. Drum corps tomorrow night at 8 o'clock, sharp. Business of importance to be transacted.

J. J. THOMASON, Drum Major.
There are yet many persons who have not paid taxes. They should hurry up as Sheriff Page will soon be compelled to publish the list of delinquents.

Oakwood Cemetery, in a month or so, will be one of the most beautiful in the country. It is nicely kept, in all particulars. If the idea of building a chapel should be carried out, it would add much to the convenience of the place.

It is expected, that the Board of Aldermen, at their meeting, tomorrow night, will take proper action relative to the movement concerning a subscription for a suitable present to the cruiser "Raleigh." Our people look for it.

We are delighted to see our friend Mr Samuel Wilder, formerly of Raleigh, but now a resident of Alabama, in the city. He is in the enjoyment of most excellent health. We are glad to hear there is some prospect that he will again become a citizen of our city.

Let every citizen of Raleigh, who can possibly do so, attend the meeting of citizens, called by Mayor Badger to take place at the Mayor's office tonight. It is an important assemblage, and one that should, by no means, be overlooked.

It is now stated, on authority, that our new depot will be completed in sixty days.

"The world do move," and in this respect it differs from the Indianapolis street cars.

The work of tearing down the William's property, corner of McDowell and Martin streets, preparatory to the erection of the new hotel, has commenced.

Go to the Mayor's office tonight and show your appreciation of the effort to procure a handsome testimonial on the occasion of the launch of the cruiser "Raleigh" next month.

New Berne has an organization, under the name of "Female Benevolent Society," with objects and efforts indicated by the name.

Quite a number of strangers from different sections of the State are here, in attendance on the meeting of the Democratic State Executive Committee.

Mr. E. C. Young, the young advance man for Guy Bros. Minstrels, is in town making arrangements for their appearance at the Opera House, Saturday march 5th. This company is composed of well known artists of ability, and a good first class long to be remembered show is guaranteed. The Marine uniform band of twenty pieces, is one of the best traveling with any theatrical company and make a full appearance on parade.

Executive Entertainment.

The members of the Democratic State Executive Committee were handsomely entertained last night at the Governor's mansion. The usual hospitality was displayed and the occasion was one of much enjoyment.

I. O. O. F.

Seaton Gales Lodge, No. 64, I. O. O. F., meets to night at 7:30 o'clock sharp. The conferring of the initiatory degree and other matters of importance will take place. The members are earnestly requested to attend. A cordial invitation to Mantio Lodge and visiting brethren.

Funeral.

The funeral services of the late Mrs. Henry H. Staunton, who recently died at Rosnoke, Va., took place from the Baptist Tabernacle, in this city, this morning at 10 o'clock. Rev. Dr. Hall, pastor of the church officiating. There was a large attendance of sorrowing relatives and friends. The interment was made in Oakwood Cemetery the following persons acting as pall bearers: Messrs J. O. S. Lumsden, S. M. Parish, John Briggs, James Parham, Wm. King, J. W. Cole.

Ex-Gov. Holden's Funeral.

The late hour at which the funeral exercises of ex Governor Holden took place, yesterday afternoon, prevented us from giving anything more than a very short notice and this had to be anticipated. The services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Cole, pastor of Edenton street church, assisted by the presiding elder, Rev. Mr. Cunningham and Rev. Dr. Reid, editor of the Christian Advocate. There was a large attendance, including Governor Holt and other officials of the State government. The Typographical Union, of which ex-Gov Holden was an honorary member, turned out in large force.

Horses for Sale.

Administrator's Notice.

Having this day qualified as the administrator of the estate of the late Solomon Brown, this is to notify all persons having claims against the estate to present the same to me for payment on or before the 4th day of March, 1892, or this notice will be plead in bar of recovery. All persons indebted to the estate will please settle without delay.

SAMUEL D. GRIFFIN, Administrator.

They Put Them Up.

The remarks made when SWIN DELL put up drop curtains on his show windows yesterday were unique, amusing, entertaining, deplorable, unbearable, enjoyable, disgusting, laughable, disdainful, unavoidable, beneficial, amusing. Indeed, some thought we really had no right to put up curtains if we were going to Baltimore. But we are going to Baltimore just the same. The curtains going up will not prevent unless the Governor calls a special session of the legislature and that august body make a law prohibiting us from going. We shall go to Baltimore just as advertised, and in order to have as little stock as possible on hand when we go, we have made the last and final reduction on all goods, and for the next twenty days we will sell many lines for really less than cost.

Putting up the awning will not affect our move.

Yours truly,
D. T. SWIN DELL
