SYNOPSIS OF THE WEATHER.
The following is the synopsis of the weather at 8 a. m. today:

The storm, central in Louisiana on Saturday morning, has moved slowly eastward to Mississippi. The rain fall area extends far in advance. During the past twenty-four hours heavy rains have occurred at Mobile and Montgomery, Ala., and in Georgia. The storm will probably continue its eastward course today and tomorrow and will cause heavy rains in North Carolina.

RALEIGH AND VICINITY.
On Tuesday, continued threatening weather, with rain, probably heavy, slightly warmer.

CITY IN BRIEF.

The County Commissioners were in regular monthly session today.

See tax notice of Mr. B. F. Montague.

The stamp collections at Durham, for the past week were $7,706 83.

Time for bird hunting will soon expire.

N. W. Pool has been appointed administrator upon the estate of the late Irvin Pool.

It is now thought, that the broken bank, at Clinton, will pay 75 per cent dividend.

A large number of truckers, in this section, will enter largely into the raising of Irish potatoes this season.

The hole in the north walk of the Hillsboro street bridge still remains, much to the danger of pedestrians.

Mayor Badger had a most uninteresting Monday morning levee today. No cases of importance.

Nearly all the sheriffs in the State have settled their taxes with the Treasurer.

We hope the County Commissioners will not overlook the matter of a county index at their present meeting.

Last Saturday 10,000 fertilizer bags were sent to a firm in Richmond Va., being the largest shipment yet made this season.

Old bonds have come in quite largely for re-issuing recently. It should be remembered that the terms of the funding act will expire July 1st next.

Mayor Badger will, no doubt, announce the committee in connection with the christening of the cruiser "Raleigh" in a few days.

Attention is directed to the advertisement of Messrs. S & D Berwaner, who are the recognized "high art clothiers" of this city. They announce some splendid bargains in light weight overcoats and gentlemen's dress suits. Call at once.

We direct attention to the advertisement of J. W. Evans, whose carriage factory is situated on the corner of Blount and Morgan streets. Mr. Evans can turn out work as perfect and fine, in all particulars, as any house in the country. Call and examine his work. You will be convinced.

Mark W. Larkins, District Chief Templar of the Good Templar fraternity of Meadville, Tenn., is stopping in Raleigh a few days and will visit Raleigh Lodge I. O. G. T. at its next regular meeting. Mr. Larkins has visited over 700 Good Templar lodges in all parts of the United States and Canada during the past six years and is without doubt one of the best posted members of the order. All Good Templars in the city should turn out to the lodge meeting and hear what the brother has to report about the work in various parts of the country and find out what the temperance outlook is.

Remember that Guy's Minstrels will appear at Metropolitan Hall next Thursday night.

The North Carolina Teacher for February is a number of much interest. It is gaining rapidly in public estimation and can be classed with the best monthlies of the country.

Rev. J. L. Foster, pastor of the Christian Church, is delivering a series of sermons on "The Work." The two sermons delivered yesterday were indeed striking in their pointness, and is causing his hearers to do some serious thinking. He is handling sin "without gloves" and strikes "from the shoulder." The series will continue for several weeks.

We ought to have before the end of 1892, a new station house, a first class opera house, a complete belt line of street railway, a new index book for Register of Deeds office, a centennial celebration and statue of Sir Walter Raleigh in North square. The VISITOR pledges itself to be an unwavering advocate of all these and proposes no let up until they are accomplished. The people are with us.

A considerable number of our citizens took advantage of the mild weather yesterday afternoon to walk out to "Caraleigh." The improvements in that locality, during the past few months, have been wonderful. It will soon be one of the most thriving suburbs of Raleigh, thanks to the energy of some of our enterprising people. It is hinted that the electric street railway will be extended to the place. We hope it may be so.

Wake Superior Court.

The Court met this morning, Judge Connor presiding. The following case taken up:

Alex. Jones vs. Sophia Jones. On trial.

Get Ready.

The sanitary officers will commence their rounds this week and all persons interested would do well to have their premises in good order. It is the determination of the officials to enforce the law against all who neglect to comply with the ordinance regulating sanitary matters.

Guy Minstrels.

The performance of this splendid troupe at Metropolitan Hall last Saturday night, gave the highest delight to all present. So great is the admiration expressed, that the troupe have, by request, decided to give another entertainment at Metropolitan Hall next Thursday night, the 10th inst. We must think they will have a rousing reception. It is undoubtedly the best troupe of minstrels now before the public.

Pullen Park.

This beautiful resort is to be placed in a most attractive condition for the accommodation of pleasure seekers this spring and summer. Among the improvements a most complete arrangement for bathing is now in progress where all, so disposed can take the benefit of a good bath at most reasonable rates. At no distant day it is expected that the electric railway will be extended to the Park, thus making it of easy access.

Reduced Rates.

We notice that the Richmond and Danville Railroad have agreed to furnish tickets from Charlotte to Norfolk and return for $12.45 on the occasion of the launch of the cruiser "Raleigh," the latter part of this month. We hope that the most liberal arrangements will be made from Raleigh, so that all our people can take advantage of the occasion. An excursion train might be run for say $2.00 the round trip, which is the usual summer excursion rates. In fact, it might be even lower than that, with advantage to the railroad companies. It will certainly prove a great convenience to our people.

Attention, Rescue Company.
Regular monthly meeting of Rescue Company tonight, at 7:30 o'clock.

Notice.
There will be no meeting of Wm. G. Hill Lodge of Masons tonight, as was announced on yesterday by mistake.

Died.

Mr. W. H. Jackson, an engineer on the Tarboro Branch of the Wilmington and Weidon Railroad, died at Plymouth, last Wednesday, from Bright's disease. Mr. Jackson was a native of Raleigh and had many warm friends here who will deeply regret his death.

Sudden Illness.

Yesterday morning, just after the conclusion of his sermon at the Fayetteville Street Baptist Church, Rev. C. T. Bailey, editor of the Biblical Recorder, was suddenly stricken with paralysis of the throat and tongue. He was at once taken to his residence, and last night it was feared that it might prove serious. We are glad to learn, however, this morning his condition was improved. We most sincerely hope that he will soon be out again.

Dime Novels.

Pursuing the line of our editorial in today's issue, the following from the Durham Sun comes in very opportune:

"The fate of that sixteen year old youth in Atlanta, who was shot down while burglarizing a house should be a terrible warning to the kids who select dime novels, and such trash, as a model for their future lives. The anguish of that boy's parents is too heart rendering to contemplate. It is a sad sorrowful story. We have no doubt there are boys in Durham who will come to just such a disastrous ending—it may not be burglary, but other crimes—if their present course does not conform to honoring father and mother and due regard for the laws of God and man. It is too late for reform when the calamity and the wreck of a life comes."

Shoes.

Ladies fine kid button shoes $1.50. Ladies fine kid and grain button shoes, opera and common sense lasts $2.00. Men's medium and wide toes, congress and bala $1.50, $2.00 and $3.50. Children's strong school shoes, $1, $1.25 and $1.50. No house offers such a complete line as we do, and our prices are always the lowest.

It is entirely burglar and fire proof. Every one should see it and be convinced of its merits, costing property owners only a trifle to have it in their houses. The system of call bells in connection with it is complete. The three features combined can be had at a slight cost. Its durability is unquestionable. It will have to be seen to appreciate it.
