SYNOPSIS OF THE WEATHER.

The following is the synopsis of the weather at 8 a. m. today:

The storm which was yesterday morning central over Illinois has moved eastward to New York. The cold wave has developed into an unusually severe one for this season of the year, and has advanced with unusual rapidity southeastward. It has reached Knoxville, Tenn., this morning, and it is snowing heavily at Cincinnati, Louisville, St. Louis, Chicago and Des Moines. The temperature has fallen over thirty degrees during the last twenty four hours in the upper Mississippi valley.

RALEIGH AND VICINITY.

Continued threatening weather, with rain, today, changing to snow during the night. A fall of over thirty degrees, to below freezing, may be expected within the next 24 hours, with high northwest winds. Friday evening and Saturday, fair; decidedly cold.

The mayor is busily engaged in making out the list of the committee in relation to the launching of the cruiser "Raleigh."

A considerable crowd of people went out to Col. L. D. Stephenson's residence, in Swift Creek Township, today, to attend the funeral of his son, who was killed yesterday.

Up to date there have been issued 15,072 warrants for direct taxes refunded and there remains about $87,000 left.

There will be a convocation of Raleigh Commandery No. 4, K. T., at their hall, this evening at 7:30 o'clock for the purpose of conferring the order of the Red Cross.

The roads leading into Raleigh were never in better order at this season of the year than at present. This is particularly true of the Asylum, Louisburg and Hillsboro roads.

We take this occasion to return our hearty thanks to deputy clerk Moyer for valuable services rendered the VISITOR during the recent term of the Superior Court. "May he live long and prosper."

It is now generally understood that the 1st and 2d regiments of State troops will encamp at Wrightsville and the 3d and 4th regiments at Asheville. The encampment will take place in July but the precise date is not fixed.

The Burglar.

"The Burglar" opens at Metropolitan Hall for one night on Monday March the 14th.

This play was originally a one act comedy founded on Mrs. Burnett's pretty story, Edith's Burglar, and being so successful as a curtain raiser was written into its present shape by Mr. Augustus Thomas, author of "Alabama," and produced at the Madison Square Theatre, New York, where it was an immediate success, playing there the entire summer to large and enthusiastic audiences. The play presents a story so pure and so true to nature as to force it into immediate favor. The sentimental parts are beautifully flavored at times with clever bits of comedy, thus forming of the whole an artistic intermingling of humor and pathos. Here is just enough sensation in the play to please those who desire sensation, without at any time introducing any blood and thunder climaxes that would offend the more cultured tastes. The title role is in the hands of that capable actor, Mr. A. S. Lipman, who possesses a rich, musical voice, and the bond of sympathy between him and his audience is quickly established. Mr. Lipman has been connected with none but leading attractions, and has for the past two seasons successfully appeared in the title role of "The Burglar." The company, on the whole, is an excellent one.

Rev. Baileys Cade.

This gentleman has been called to the pastorate of the Venable Street Baptist Church, Richmond, Va. The call was unanimous. The Richmond Dispatch says:

Rev. Mr. Cade is quite well known in Richmond. He is a West Virginian, but has been pastor of the Baptist church at Louisburg, N. C., for several years. He was educated at Richmond College and after graduating with distinction returned to West Virginia, where he did pastoral work for several years before going to Louisburg. He is 47 years old and has a wife and seven children.

Mr. Cade has been very successful as a pastor and is represented to be a man of ability and deep research. He is a good speaker and writes well. The committee and congregation feel confident that in him Venable street church will find just such a man as is needed for that field.

Important Announcement.

In Jan. 22d we made the announcement that we should sell out our business in Raleigh and move to Baltimore. Since that time we have made every effort to sell out. We expected to get a customer for our store and stock, but we have not been able to do so, though we have sold thousands of dollars worth of our stock at retail and gotten rid of most of all the old goods which we had on hand. So finding that we will not be able to close out we have come to other conclusions. We have decided to remain in Raleigh and we shall this spring put in one of the most desirable stocks of goods Raleigh has ever seen. We will have a brand new stock. We go to New York next week for new goods and our new goods will begin to arrive about the 21st. We shall continue to sell all goods in our store at exactly what the goods cost us till the new stock comes in. Wait for our straw matting; we will surprise you. Wait for our new dress goods. We will have everything new.

Your humble servant,
D. T. SWINDELL
