

The Daily Evening Visitor.

VOL. XXVI.

RALEIGH, SATURDAY, MARCH 12, 1892.

NO. 120

CITY IN BRIEF.

Full moon today.
Mr. J. T. Bell is quite sick, with grippe, at the Branson house.
Beautiful weather expected for the next few days.
Be sure to remember that you can't shoot birds after next Tuesday.
The official call for the Democratic State Convention will be made in a few days.
It is reported that measles prevails in Wake Forest township and other northern section of Wake county.
To the regret of his many friends, Master Ed. J. Stephens left Raleigh Thursday, March 10th, to make his home in Winston.

We learn that Furman Jones who was injured by the recent explosion at Mr. L. D. Stephenson's mill, is much improved, and now considered out of danger.
Col. Jno. D. Cameron is now engaged in writing up a cotton factory edition for the Fayetteville Observer. We can safely say it will be well done.
We are sorry to state that Mr. J. W. Pike, No. 223 East Hargett street, is reported ill, while his wife, Mrs. C. L. Pike, is quite sick.
The Agricultural department is now engaged in sending out blanks for the weekly crop reports, and the bulletin will be commenced about April 9th.
At 8:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon Rev. K. D. Holmes will preach in Woodward's store on South Dawson Street. Sunday school at 2:30 o'clock.
Rev. Dr. J. A. Cunnigim, the Presiding Elder of the Raleigh district will preach at Brooklyn Methodist church tomorrow at 11 a. m. and at 7:30 p. m. The Lord's Supper will be administered at the morning service.
The graded school committee, at a meeting in the mayor's office at noon today, voted unanimously that pupils should be excused, at the discretion of the patrons, from the "singing lessons."

Central Methodist church will worship to-morrow in their beautiful main auditorium if the weather is what it today promises to be. The subject of organizing an Epworth League in the church and congregation will be presented. Rev. J. B. Hurley will occupy the pulpit both morning and night.
The preliminary trial of the colored man Smith, for an assault upon Mr. Geo. Goodwin in St. Matthews township recently, took place to-day before A. R. Hodge, J. P. in the room over the store of Mr. J. C. Marcum, on East Hargett Street. The case was finally referred to A. C. Green, a magistrate of St. Matthews township to be tried next Saturday. The prisoner was placed under bond of $200 for his appearance at that time.

Funeral Services.
The funeral ceremonies over the remains of the late Miss Nettie Marshall took place this morning at 11:30 o'clock from the Catholic Church of the Sacred Heart, of which denomination she was a member. Bishop Held officiated in the ceremony. There was a large crowd of sorrowing relatives and friends present.

Organized.
The lady managers of North Carolina for the World's Fair organized yesterday by electing the following officers:
President—Mrs. R. S. Tucker.
Vice President—Miss Hutchings.
Secretary—Mrs. J. B. Burwell.
Treasurer—Mrs. J. M. Heck.
The main object of the organization will be for the purpose of raising funds to erect a suitable building at Chicago for the North Carolina Exposition.

Figs in 5 and 15 pound boxes, 15c lb, guaranteed goods at A. Drum's.

Information Desired.

Attorney General Davidson desires the publication of the following letter of enquiry:

LAWSON, Union Co., S. C., March 10.
—Sir: While in prison in Elmira N. Y., a young man named Wm Crocker died in the hospital. He was a member of the 23d N. C. Vol; and I should be glad to communicate with his relatives some information of value to them. He was from the eastern part of the State—do not remember the county. Any other information leading to the family address will be thankfully received by
Yours respectfully,
R. D. ALEXANDER.

The Burglar.

"The Burglar" comes to Metropolitan Hall for one night, on Monday, March 14th. It is a charming adaptation of Mrs. Burnett's pretty story Edith's Burglar presented by a talented and well balanced company—a play replete with laughter provoking humor and eye moistening sentiment and at times bordering on the sensational pleasing and delightful in all its four acts—the plot is interesting, well conceived and admirably worked out, maintaining an unflagging interest of the audience from the rise to the fall of the curtain. In the third act where the burglar un- knowingly enters the apartment of his divorced wife and is interrupted in his midnight labors by an infant child that the feelings of the audience are drawn to their utmost tension, finding relief in frequent bursts of laughter at the innocent prattling of the child with the rough specimen of humanity who, although a criminal, possesses the kinder attributes of nature. Mr. Al. Lipman will be seen in the title role. Mr. Lipman is a forcible, finished actor, and gives close attention to the smallest detail. The company supporting Mr. Lipman is a very excellent one.

Mystery Explained.

Yesterday afternoon about 6 o'clock, the attention of a reporter of the Visitor was attracted to a large, and, somewhat excited crowd that had assembled in front of the hardware establishment of Messrs. Julius Lewis & Co. For awhile, the utmost stir prevailed, and, it was somewhat difficult to unravel the cause. It was soon discovered that the crowd surrounded a very curious little animal, which caused the frequent exclamation of "what is it?" All kinds of explanations were given, and there were wisecracks by the hundred. Some declared it to be a mixture of cat and roon, and the versatile Fauntleroy Taylor, at once pronounced it a "cat-roon." This settled it in the minds of many, but the reporter insisted it was a ground hog. This morning he kept up his investigation, and ran up with a well known citizen who gave the following version which he claims to be reliable.
During the exposition last fall, a gentleman brought a ground hog to the show, which he exhibited. About the close of the exposition, the animal shed his hair, rendering his back almost perfectly slick. From some cause the hair did not grow out again, and the owner gave the animal to a gentleman who, in turn, gave it to an old colored woman residing in the rear of Mr. N. W. West's lot, on Hillsboro street. We suppose the ground hog strayed off to Mr. West's premises where it was found. The reporter's informant declares it to be a ground hog, with no "catacoon" about it.
Now we want to say "that we have told the tale as it was told to us." If there is any mistake, we are not responsible, but as the commercial men say in their letters: "Errors and omissions corrected."

We Are Going to Stay Here and Don't You Forget It.

During the last 30 days our trade has been beyond our expectations, but it shows that the people of Raleigh and surrounding country know a good thing when they see it. We are bound to admit our shoe stock has suffered in the rush. And to make a clean sweep of the odds and ends left in this department we will sell for the next ten days ONLY every pair of shoes in the house at factory cost. Factory cost with us is at least 15 per cent less than any of our competitors pay for goods as we buy for cash—cash—cash, thereby getting 7 per cent off for our money and 7 to 10 cents per pair cheaper than the regular prices, as the manufacturers need money and are more than anxious for us for a customer as no lot is too large for us to buy. We want you to distinctly understand this offer is for 10 days only. And when we say cost we mean what we say. Now for 10 days only we hold this offer open to any and every one who is in need of shoes. To country as well as city merchants this sale should be attractive as our prices will be less than can be bought from any jobber in New York, Baltimore or Philadelphia. Recollect this sale will last 10 days only. We mean business.
Our Mr. Swin Dell leaves for New York Monday. To hear him talk would do you good. His remarks were as follows: "If it takes six weeks to buy my goods I mean to have the most attractive line of goods ever brought to Raleigh," and when he says that we know he means it. Watch the date of our opening day. P. S.—The inducement offered at this shoe sale mean for 30 days only—only 10 days.
Yours, the only the original,
D. T. SWIN DELL.
