SYNOPSIS OF THE WEATHER.
The following is the synopsis of the weather at 8 a. m. today:

The high area, central in the north-west, is spreading southeastward, and forcing the low area to take a southerly course along the gulf coast.

It is snowing this morning from New York to Knoxville and in Kansas.

The weather is clearing in the upper Mississippi valley and becoming colder.

RALEIGH AND VICINITY.

CITY IN BRIEF.

A small sized sleet this morning.

Winter still lingering in the lap of spring.

The State Board of Pharmacy were in session, in this city, today.

The sanitary officers are still on their rounds.

The Supreme Court now has cases from the 8th district under consideration.

We hope our patriotic mayor will spur up the Board of Aldermen on the centennial question.

A life-like portrait of Hon. W. H. Battle now adorns the Supreme Court room.

Look carefully at your half dollars. Counterfeits are about calculated to deceive even experienced financiers.

The weather report does not afford much comfort. Bad weather is the outlook.

Watch out for chicken thieves. They are committing depredations in some sections of the city and in the suburbs.

The vernal equinox is near at hand and bad weather is to be expected. After this we can consistently look for the opening of spring.

President George and Superintendent Hall made a visit of inspection over the electric street car lines today.

A gentleman from this county informs us that the cold snap has, as far as he can discern, done no injury to the fruit as the trees were not far enough advanced.

The "Parish Monthly" is the name of a periodical issued by the Church of the Good Shepherd. It is an interesting paper, containing much information relative to the parish and other matters.

Our people should not grumble at the present cold snap, if it keeps back the fruit. A fruit crop in our State means many thousands of dollars in the pockets of our people.

It is reported that the cold weather in Delaware has damaged the peach trees. We hope this is a mistake. It seems strange that the fruit as far north as Delaware should be damaged, when in North Carolina it is unhurt, especially as our climate is much milder.

It has been suggested that the date for holding the festival at the fair grounds might be appropriately changed to the date on which the centennial of Raleigh occurs in April. This might do, in our opinion, if the spring were far enough advanced, but so early in April the weather would, in all probability, be too cool. Better let the proposition remain as it is.

Our friends, Messrs. Jones & Powell, say that the orders for coal and wood have just poured in for the last day or so. Many families tried to squeeze through with the remaining stock on hand, but found it would pay better to have a good fire. This is regular pneumonia weather and the more care taken in the way of fuel is less physics. Be on the safe side and let prudence reign.

Spring goods a little out of joint today.

The cotton trade today has been at a stand still. Very little doing.

The latest news is, that severe weather accompanied with snow storms prevail in the north and north west.

The military bands of Norfolk and Portsmouth are practicing on the music of "The Old North State" for the coming launch of the Raleigh.

It will soon be time to paint up houses and put on a spring dress. Nothing adds so much to a dwelling as a new coat of paint. It goes far too in the matter of preservation.

Can't our Board of Aldermen strain a point and procure a new bell for the market house building? We want one that won't persist in striking at any time it takes a notion.

The Epworth League of Central M. E. Church will meet immediately after the prayer service tonight in the lecture room when the organization will be completed and new members will be enrolled.

It would appear from the number of cows that are often found running at large, that many people do not know that the stock law is in operation here.

Gen. James R. Carnahan, a distinguished member of the Knights of Pythias, addressed the lodges of that order and exemplified the work last night.

The work of fixing up the rooms at the Y. M. C. A. building is progressing. When finished they will be admirably and beautifully arranged.

Senator Hill will return to Washington City, by the Atlantic Coast Line. We suppose there will be large crowds out at Goldsboro and other towns to see him.

There were sixty eight carts loaded with wood, on Hargett, Wilmington and Martin streets today, by actual count. Business in that line seemed lively.

Several northern gentlemen are in the city, prospecting. Some of them express a desire to locate here. One drink of Pseud's pump water will fix it. When they once settle here they "will never go back"—this is a fixed fact.

There will be a meeting of the Walnut Creek Sporting Club tomorrow night for the purpose of making arrangements relative to the new lease of Taylor's pond north of the city.

Our friend Mr. Miles Goodwin is keeping things in "apple pie" order at the station house so far as sanitary matters are concerned. Instead of carbolic acid for cleaning purposes, he uses copers water, which is a great improvement, especially in avoiding unpleasant smell.

A friend from the country today, asked us if we could refer him to the locality in which "Jesse Holmes" formerly lived. He said he wanted to re-establish the headquarters of that honorable gentleman as he thought in the near future, he would have use for him. We did not ask for particulars.

The sensation that gained a little credence on the streets yesterday, that the city water was effected by the Phosphate Mills, is somewhat ridiculous, when it is known, that the water is procured a long distance above the factory, in the upper part of the Grimes plantation. There is no purer water than that furnished by our city water works. Should there be, at any time, a defect in it, our Superintendent of health would quickly detect it, and let the fact be known.

Dry Pine Wood.
Leave your orders at B. F. Cheatham's store, No. 233 South Wilmington street.

Efforts of the Ladies.

Much good work was done by the ladies at their meeting yesterday concerning the building for North Carolina, at the Chicago Fair, and the outlook for success is promising. The different sections of the city were laid out as "circles," and some of our most energetic ladies were selected to solicit subscriptions for the object in view.

They are Moving.

Mayor Badger today received the following letter:
GOLDSBORO, N. C., March 15, '92.
Hon. Thos. Badger, Mayor City of Raleigh:

Dear Sir:—Replying to your circular letter of the 10th, we will, at your suggestion, call a meeting of our citizens at an early day, but would like to have your idea of how much you intend to raise, and about what you propose presenting to the cruiser "Raleigh" on the occasion of the ship going into commission. We think all the towns in the State should take some action in the matter.

Respectfully,
A. B. HOLLOWELL, Mayor.

Bird Law.

There seems to be some doubt in the minds of many of our people, as to the species of game covered by the bird law. To set the matter at rest, we have made a careful examination, the result of which is as follows:

Section 2884, of chapter 21, of the code, reads thus: No person shall kill or shoot, trap or net any part-ridges, quail, doves, robins, lark, mocking birds or wild turkeys between the first day of April and the fifteenth day of October in each year; and the person so offending shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and fined not exceeding $10 for each offence.

This was the act at the time of the codification of the laws into the code in 1883. No subsequent Legislature has amended the general law as to the species of birds. The only amendment passed upon the subject, was at the Legislature of 1891, when the time for hunting was changed to read between the 15th of March and the 1st of November. In other respects the provisions of the code are in full force and effect.

A Sad Case.

The downfall of Mr. Jno. T. Davis, lately a book keeper for the firm of Rand & Barbee and another well known commercial house of Richmond, Va., and a former book keeper for Messrs. Thos. H. Briggs & Sons, of Raleigh, is cause for the deepest regret in this city, where he was so well known and enjoyed a good reputation. The crime for which the young man has blighted his life, consisted in forging and embezzling money from those by whom he was employed, the exact amount of which has not been definitely ascertained, but which is reckoned to run up into thousands of dollars. Not the least distressing feature of the sad case, is the fact, that the young man leaves an aged mother, and a child to mourn over the downfall of their natural protector.

The case of Mr. Davis, is but the usual result of reckless living, springing from a desire to make such a show in life, as is not warranted by the income at command. It is the "old, old story," and the result is the same in all cases. While we cannot palliate the crime, we must say that our hearts go out in deep sympathy to the stricken and innocent ones, in this, their sad time of domestic affliction. It has been truly said that "an honest man is the noblest work of God." Without honesty there can be no true happiness. "A thief, in each bush fears an officer," and the first false step leads to a life of indefinite misery.

THEM, Sec.

The World's Fair.

Mr. T. K. Bruner, commissioner of North Carolina to the World's Fair, says the work of getting up county and industrial exhibits is progressing well and that our people who visit the grand show will feel proud of their State. He thinks that the next General Assembly will contribute a fair sum to help out the cause.
