CITY IN BRIEF.

Evangelist Pearson is in Savannah, Ga.
Lookout for chicken thieves. They are still on the rampage.
The mad dog scare is again up in several sections of the State.
The immediate outlook for spring weather is not very encouraging.
Several pretty and convenient seats have been placed in Moore square.
The farmers are said to be as far advanced as usual in their crop operations.
Clothing and other articles will be cordially welcomed at the Soldier's Home.
The Directors of the North Carolina Railroad are in session today at Burlington.
Two burglaries in this vicinity in two nights. This is going it rather heavy.
Some necessary repairs are being made on the Church of the Good Shepherd.
Several excursions from different parts of the State to Norfolk are expected on the 30th inst.
The receipts of cotton today were somewhat increased, but there is no advance in prices.
The outlook is good for a fine selection of articles in North Carolina for the World's Fair.
The lumber is on hand for building a bridge over the gully near the railroad on West Jones street.
The Odd Fellows Orphan Home, in Goldsboro, is now completed, and will be opened probably next month.
Rev. Baylus Cade takes charge as pastor of the Venable Street Baptist Church, in Richmond, Va., in April.
Officer Beasley returned from Wilmington yesterday afternoon bringing the prisoner for whom he was sent.
Wm. Mangum, of New Light Township, was arrested for being drunk on the streets last night. He was fined $5.25 by the mayor.
The railroads in the eastern part of the State are preparing for a large business this spring in the way of truck transportation.
A Union depot is in contemplation at Goldsboro. There will be a meeting of railroad officials in Goldsboro next Tuesday, to consider the matter.
Regular meeting of the W. R. Womble Truck Co., tonight at 8 o'clock. Every member requested to be present, business of importance.
The question when will February have five Mondays is still an unsettled one, and seems to be puzzling the brains of many a youth throughout the land.
Gen. Milton S. Littlefield, who has been on trial in New York for alleged frauds in obtaining money under false pretence, has been acquitted of the charge.
The officers of the State Guard, now in the city, spent a delightful time last evening at the residence of Surgeon General Hubert Haywood on New Berne avenue.
Two handsome cottages are being built in what is known as the old Crowder homestead, on West Jones street. This is in the right direction, and we hope it will be followed by others.
Whatever is done in the matter of getting up a subscription for a North Carolina house, at the Chicago exposition, must be done soon. The limit of time in which States and foreign countries must accept sites allotted them has been fixed at June 1st, 1892.

There is a large hole in the pavement in front of the office of Messrs. Jones & Powell, on Fayetteville street, which should be looked after.

The whereabouts of the young man Davis, who recently went wrong in Richmond, Va., are still unknown. It is thought he has gotten out of the country.

Maj Roberts is still engaged in beautifying the capitol square. It will be a nice resort for the "baby brigade" during the spring and summer months.

It has been suggested that the lot on the corner of Hargett and Blount streets, where the "spinning jenny" held sway, would be a good site for a wood market.

The grounds of the Agricultural and Mechanical College will soon present a beautiful appearance. They have been sown in grass and the walks nicely and artistically laid off.

We hope our worthy Governor will keep an eye on the old arsenal, and if there is no other way to remove it, recommend an appropriation for the purpose to the next General Assembly.

The cotton receipts in Raleigh, for the week ending yesterday afternoon were 363 bales against 478 for the corresponding week last year. Receipts for the season 22,553 bales against 34,507 last year.

Until further notice the young woman's and Girls' Union Bible Reading Class will hold its regular weekly meetings in the infant class room of the First Baptist church. All ladies cordially invited.

It was asserted today on the streets by one of the knowing ones that there were ten aspirants for the Democratic nomination to Congress from this district. He suggested a modus vivendi until after the nomination.

The baccalaureate sermon at the next commencement of Wake Forest College will be preached by Rev. Carter H. Jones, of Knoxville, Tenn. Hon. J. W. Bailey, of Texas, will deliver the address before the societies.

There are now only about 1,100 convicts in the penitentiary and on the different public works and farms. This is the lowest number for years. There are only about 60 women. About one fourth are white.

State Agent Worth says that orders are being daily received for grass seed in large quantities, which he thinks is indicative of the progressive movement among the farmers of the State. It is asserted that North Carolina is peculiarly adapted to grass growing, and, with the reduced acreage in action the yield may be large.

Served Him Right.

Yesterday afternoon Mayor Badger had on trial a young colored man named Thomas Bradford for a breach of the peace. During the trial Bradford was placed on the stand as a witness. After being sworn he excitedly and contemptuously threw the Bible down on the table and other wise showed contempt of court. This morning the mayor had him up and sentenced him to thirty days confinement in the county jail.

Confederate Veterans.

Col. E. D. Hall, President of the Confederate Veterans' Association of North Carolina, has issued an address relative to the proposed conference to be held at New Orleans, April 8th and 9th.

Besides the appointment of delegates from each district, the following have been selected from the State at large: E. D. Hall, W. L. DeRossett, Wilmington; E. F. Hoke, A. B. Andrews, F. H. Busbee, Raleigh; Rufus Barringer, Z. B. Vance, H. C. Jones, Charlotte; M. W. Ransom, Garysburg; Elias Carr, Old Sparta.

Personal Mention.

Judge H. G. Connor is in the city. He will hold court here next week.

Dr. R. H. Lewis has gone to Greensboro as a delegate to the Y. M. C. Association Convention.

A. J. Field, of Oxford, is in the city.

Maj. R. S. Tucker, Maj. W. W. Vass and J. B. Batchelor Esq., has gone to Baltimore to attend a meeting of the Directors of the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad.

Another Burglary.

Early this morning, as far as can be judged, about 4 o'clock, the grocery store of Mr. Britton Pearce, on the corner of Person and Cabarrus streets, was entered and a considerable quantity of light groceries taken. The entrance was made by cutting a large hole in the door through which, it is evident, the thieves inserted their hands and removed the bar which fastened the door on the inside.— There seems to be no clue to the perpetrators, but it is the supposition that they are the same who robbed the premises of Mr. John Devereux on Wednesday night. It is clear that we have in our midst an organized crowd of thieves, and it becomes our people to be constantly on the alert. Burglary is one of the crimes for which the death penalty is provided in North Carolina. The man or men who would break into private houses would hardly hesitate to commit murder. Such people should be promptly dealt with, and a load of buckshot would not be inappropriate if they are caught in the act.

Read the advertisement of H. J. Dowell, of the Bee Hive store. Go there today or tonight and buy something. Or if you wish to exchange one article for another, there is the place. If you wish to sell anything, see H. J. Dowell, the manager. Nearly three years have passed since this store was established, and it has been a blessing to many, especially those who are short of means. The fact is, you save money on everything you buy and get the cash money for all you sell. Besides this, he will pack and repair your furniture. Order anything you want and have made to order at the factory any kind of mattress you want at prices lower than the lowest. Will bottom chairs, either cane or perforated bottom, paint, polish and varnish them to order. All work satisfactory, insured and guaranteed for cash only. We wish to buy at once flower pots, fruit jars, old mahogany furniture, books and odds and ends for the cash by the thousands. In a word, go to the Bee Hive store to sell or buy. There you will receive polite and prompt attention.
