SYNOPSIS OF THE WEATHER.
The following is the synopsis of the weather at 8 a. m. today:

The storm in Dakota yesterday morning has moved rapidly southward, and is now central over Kansas and Iowa, where the lowest barometer reading reported is 29.40 inches at Kansas City. This cyclonic disturbance is likely to take the usual course northeast over the lake region and will probably produce heavy gales in that part of the country today and tomorrow. The temperature has risen rapidly east of the storm, and is falling on the west side, with snow in the Dakotas.

The depression in the gulf has advanced east and is now central off the South Carolina coast. The area of heavy rains has moved to Georgia, the heaviest amounts reported during the past 24 hours being 3.06 inches at Savannah, 2.80 inches at Augusta, 1.26 at Charleston, 1.83 at Atlanta, 1.12 at Charlotte.

The storm on the South Atlantic coast will probably move up the coast and may unite over New England with the storm from Kansas. Cloudy, threatening weather with rain prevails nearly everywhere, except in the extreme west and southwest, where the barometer is higher.

For North Carolina: Threatening weather with rain until 8 a. m. Sunday, probably clearing during Sunday, slightly warmer.

CITY IN BRIEF.

Burglars are doing up Durham.
See advertisement of ice furnished by Messrs. Leach & Andrews.

There has been a slim attendance of country people in the city today.

Judge Connor has appointed Mr. R. W. Lassiter, receiver of the suspended bank at Oxford.

Attention is called to the advertisement of the new millinery store of Mrs. P. H. Shivers, corner of Wilmington and Morgan streets.

The Boston Advertiser says "The City Directory" stands pre-eminent among all others of its kind. It will be here April 6th.

Rev. G. Dempster will occupy the pulpit of the First Presbyterian church tomorrow at 11 a. m. The public are cordially invited to attend.

There will be a considerable attendance from Raleigh to the Teachers Convention, which assembles at New Bern next Tuesday.

The Wilmington Messenger very justly complains of the delay in furnishing anything like a proper statement of the affairs of the broken National Bank of that place.

The services at the Baptist Tabernacle Church tomorrow will be peculiarly interesting, and if the weather is favorable, a very large attendance is expected.

Argument in the matter of the taxation of the R. & G. Railroad, before Judge Connor, at Chambers, which commenced yesterday, was continued today.

The difference between "tweedle dum and tweedle dee," was explained by a gentleman on the street today. He said, "if you owe me, pay me"—this is "tweedle dum." "If I owe you, call again—this is 'tweedle dee.'"

Mr. Geo. N. Walters, our champion tailor, is prepared to fit you out with something nice in the way of either a business or dress suit. Go and see him.

Central Methodist church will worship in the main auditorium tomorrow, both morning and night, unless the temperature gets lower. Rev. J. B. Hurley, the pastor, will occupy the pulpit at both services.

Rev. J. L. Foster, of the Christian church, will occupy his pulpit tomorrow at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. The Visitor is requested to say that every member is specially desired to be present. The public are invited. Sunday school at 9:30 a. m.

Owing to the interesting services at the Baptist Tabernacle there will be no services at the First Baptist Church tomorrow night.

The address before the Literary Societies at the University of Virginia will be delivered by Senator Vance, on the occasion of commencement June 1st.

It is highly important that the commissioner of Agriculture should be in possession of statistics from all the counties. He is often requested to give such information.

Among the business transacted yesterday, by the directors of the North Carolina Railroad at Burlington, was a resolution to build a new freight depot at that place and to supply better accommodations for passengers.

Mr. J. C. L. Harris, Chairman, has called a convention of the Republicans of Wake county, to meet in Raleigh, on Tuesday, April 12th, for the purpose of electing delegates to the State and County Conventions.

The old City Cemetery, under the care of Mr. Seth A. Jones, is being excellently attended to. The walks are nicely laid off and other improvements are noticed. Mr. Jones deserves much credit for his faithful discharge of duty.

Orphans Home.

The committee of the Odd Fellows' Orphan Home at Goldsboro, held a meeting last Tuesday for inspection purposes, etc. The committee desires to secure the services of a superintendent and matron. Man and wife preferred. Applicants should address W. T. Dortch, Superintendent at Goldsboro, giving qualifications in full.

Statement.

The quarterly statement of the State penitentiary presented yesterday, shows expenses to be $55,443.63; earnings $33,270.40; excess of expenses $22,173.23. The chairman says the excess of expenses is on account of the want of railway work, and the extra expenses of equipping and building quarters, etc.

Patent.

We have been shown a patent No. 471,473, dated March 2nd, 1892, issued to our fellow citizen Mr. Laurens A. Fort for an improved specimen of a bird trap. It is a most ingenious idea, and will be perfect in its execution. Mr. Fort offers the right for sale and all who desire a good thing should give him a call. The trap can be used on a wall or post, with telling effect. Mr. Fort can be found at No. 10 and 11 East Martin street.

A Sad Misfortune.

We are in receipt of the sad intelligence of the misfortune that lately befell Mr. W. M. Jewell and family of Winston, formerly a resident of Wake county. On the night of the 23d instant his house which contained all of his personal property, valued at about $800, was consumed by fire. They did not save anything and are now turned over to the mercies of the people. Mr. Jewell left this county three months ago after sustaining a loss of his real estate which consisted of a good farm. He went to Winston hoping to get work. He has written to friends in this city for help, and his misfortune should reach the sympathy of the friends of his former home, and we hope they will respond.

For Saturday Evening.

A special display of new styles in gentlemen's furnishings, which includes a magnificent line of scarfs, collars, cuffs, dress shirts, underwear, half hose, suspenders, handkerchiefs, etc. A splendid showing of new things in scarfs, were received by express today. V. M. & Co's collars at 12 1/2 cents each, to close the line. Gentlemen are cordially invited to see the new spring shapes in Dunlap's hats.

W. H. & R. S. TUCKER & Co.

Personal Mention.

Mrs. D. O. Honeycutt remains quite sick at her residence on Morgan St.

Miss Lena Horner has returned to the city, after a visit to friends in Durham.

Norman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Hogan, of Hogan Avenue, is very sick with pneumonia.

Gen. R. F. Hoke, is in the city.

Lieut. W. E. Shipp, of the United States Army, is in the city.

Mr. C. C. Barbee, of Richmond, Va. is here.

Prohibition Convention.

There were about one hundred delegates in attendance in the prohibition convention which met in Greensboro, on the 24th, inst.

Delegates were chosen to the National Convention which meets in Cincinnati, June 29th, next.

It was resolved to start an organ in this State, and a fund was raised to defray the expenses of ex Gov. St. John to lecture in North Carolina the coming summer. It was decided to put a state ticket in the field.

Station House.

There is no matter that has been more persistently advocated, or which is generally considered more needed in Raleigh, than a well arranged and comfortable station house for the incarceration of offenders against the city ordinances. This must be apparent to all who have examined into the subject. We must think, that if the Board of Aldermen would address themselves to the task of diligent investigation, they would, at once, proceed to meet the public wants in this respect. It has been frequently called to their attention by the city officials. Let us hope that it may not much longer be delayed.

NEW MILLINERY STORE.

Just opened, corner of Morgan and Wilmington streets, at the old Pen-derrast place New spring shapes for ladies and children. Ribbons, flowers, etc. Also shaping and repairing old hats in the latest styles. Please give me a call and you will be surprised at the good bargains.

Bologna sausage at C.O. Ball & Co's.

Read the advertisement of H. J. Dowell, of the Bee Hive store. Go there today or tonight and buy something. Or if you wish to exchange one article for another, there is the place. If you wish to sell anything, see H. J. Dowell, the manager. Nearly three years have passed since this store was established, and it has been a blessing to many, especially those who are short of means. The fact is, you save money on everything you buy and get the cash money for all you sell. Besides this, he will pack and repair your furniture. Order anything you want and have made to order at the factory any kind of mattress you want at prices lower than the lowest. Will bottom chairs, either cane or perforated bottom, paint, polish and varnish them to order. All work satisfactory, insured and guaranteed for cash only. We wish to buy at once flower pots, fruit jars, old mahogany furniture, books and odds and ends for the cash by the thousands. In a word, go to the Bee Hive store to sell or buy. There you will receive polite and prompt attention. H. J. Dowell, Manager, mh24 6t. 128 and 118 South Wilmington St.
