A HORRID SAMPLE

St. Louis Globe Democrat. A commercial traveler whom I know carries perhaps the most unique "sample" in the drumming profession. It is nothing less than a human body, three years old, an example of the efficacy of a certain embalming fluid. For three-years this mummy has been transported on the railroads as a sample case would be, and, indeed, there is no outward sign which would indicate the uncanny nature of its contents. In this instance the longer the body is preserved the more of an advertisement it is for the fluid in the veins of the "stiff.' The box is zinc lined, and does not exceed the limits of the railroad excess baggage rule in weight.

THE COLLEGE GIRL.

Detroit Five Pres

It was her first essay at marketing, but she tackled the work with the beautiful hardihood of youth and inexperience.

"Have you canvas back ducks?" she inquired of the man in the stall "Yes, miss, and they are beauties and mighty scarce at this time of year. An' I've got mallards and red heads, too."

"You may cut me off three quarters of a yard of the canvas back." she said, in her clear, classic tones; "aud cut it diagonaly so that it will not ravel."

ADVENTISM IN GEORGIA.

Wil. Star.

A telegram from Brunswick says: "An effort is being made to revive Second Adventism in Brunswick, and to accomplish that believers in it have called Rev. John E. King, a Loted revivalist of Second Adventism of Wilmington, N. C., to preach in this city. Brunswick has a Second Advent church, but the membership has lagged somewhat, owing to their being for some time without a pastor. The efforts of Rev. Mr. King will be watched with interest both by believers and non-believers."

It is said that the proposed musical festival in Charlotte will be abandoned this year. The success of the committee canvassing for funds has been unsatisfactory, and the Charlottese will have to content themselves with the musical voice of David Bennett Hill on the 20th of May .-Wil. Star.

The New York man who wouldn't take a dare, took a dose of poison when his playful wife jokingly ban tered him to, and next day they took him to the cemetery and buried him. and there was one idiot less in New York.
