SYNOPSIS OF THE WEATHER.

The following is the synopsis of the weather at 8 a. m. today:
The pressure is high on the Atlantic coast but is decreasing owing to the rapid advance of the storm from the northwest. The area of cloudy, threatening weather has advanced eastward, the winds have shifted to southerly causing warmer weather in the Eastern States.

The cyclonic disturbance is this morning central over Iowa, where the lowest barometer is reported at Des Moines—29.52 inches. Threatening with light rains prevails in the Mississippi and Ohio valleys, with warm southerly winds west of the storm in Kansas and Nebraska clearing prevalent, with falling temperature.

FOR NORTH CAROLINA.

Light showers followed by clearing and warmer during Thursday.

RALEIGH AND VICINITY.

Till 8 p. m. Thursday—Cloudy and threatening with rain tonight and Thursday forenoon, slightly warmer.

Maximum temperature for the 24 hours ending 8 a. m. today, 69; minimum temperature, 42; rainfall, trace.

CITY IN BRIEF.

Shad getting plentiful and cheaper. Several opinions were handed down in the Supreme Court yesterday.

A considerable crowd went to Norfolk on the regular mail train today.

Mr. W. H. Hughes is moving into the Andrews building today.

The fountain in Moore square is still out of fix.

The Board of Aldermen will meet in regular monthly session next Friday night.

The street car service was suspended for a short time yesterday afternoon, for want of power.

A considerable number of ladies left today for Norfolk to attend the launching of the "Raleigh."

It now looks as if the docket of the Superior Court will be cleared this week.

Durham is enjoying a good trade in horse swapping during the present session of the court there.

It is estimated that about 135 persons from Raleigh and vicinity left for Norfolk today.

Judge Connor is proving himself a valuable auxiliary to the work house of Wake county. He sends them right along.

The city street scraper was at work on Moore square today leveling off the ground. It does most effectual service.

Lt. Shipp gave a tea party at his residence on Halifax street last night to the officers of the military board. It was an enjoyable occasion.

A call has been made for a meeting of the State Democratic Executive Committee in this city on the 7th of April next.

Mayor Badger went to Norfolk on the mail train this morning. His main object was to be ahead of the committee so that he could make all the necessary arrangements to carry out the programme laid down.

During the absence of Mayor Badger at Norfolk, C. B. Root, Esq., will act in his place. He is used to the business and can run the office of mayor to perfection.

The Principal of the Salem Female Academy has leased a nice cottage at Carolina Beach and proposes to take the young ladies there for a while this summer. This is a good idea.

We have reason to think, that the matter of a new station house is being favorably thought of by some of our Board of Aldermen and other city officials. It may be that some initiatory action will be taken by the board at the meeting next Friday night. There is a public demand for early action in the premises.

I. O. O. F.

Seaton Gales Lodge, No. 64, I. O. O. F., meets tomorrow night, the 31st inst., at 7:30 o'clock. Members earnestly requested to attend. A cordial invitation to all Odd Fellows.

THIRM, Sec.

Mr. Huffham Speaks Tonight.
Rev. Dr. Hall received word today from Dr. Huffham assuring him that he will surely be on hand tonight. Dr. Huffham's many friends will be glad to know this and will want to hear him at the Tabernacle tonight.

Died.

At his residence in Norfolk, Va., on Sunday afternoon last, Capt. Henry E. Orr, aged 63.

Capt. Orr is well remembered by many of the older citizens of Raleigh when he edited the Raleigh Progress just after the close of the late war. He was a most estimable gentleman and an able writer.

Help Out.

The Y. M. C. Association rooms have been placed in a most admirable condition. They have been elegantly painted and gas fixtures arranged. The Ladies Auxiliary are taking much interest in the matter and are performing wonders in the way of fixing up. There are many things needed, however, to complete arrangements in the way of furniture, pictures, etc., and anything in this line will be gratefully accepted. Those desiring to help out should send articles to the hall next Monday afternoon, as it is desired to have everything in readiness by April 6th, when Mr. Gales will enter on the work. Let all, who can, lend a helping hand.

Wake Superior Court.

The following cases were disposed of today:
State vs Lee Nelson, forgery; one year on the roads.
State vs Green B. Hobby; l. and r.; not guilty.
State vs Chas. Williams; l. and r.; 2 years on the roads.
State vs Wilburn Collins alias "Stuck" Collins; 3 years on the roads; "stuck very badly."
State vs Candace Hodge; injury to fence; nol pros.
State vs Reuben Hodge; injury to fence; nol pros.
State vs Robt. Baker; l. and r.; 2 1/2 years on the roads.
State vs Henrietta Strickland; l. and r.; not guilty.
State vs Jeffers Rogers and Ben Rogers; l. and r.; nol pros.
State vs Marcellus Hinton; removing crops; on trial.

Best of All.

We have been treated to some fine entertainments in Raleigh during the past season, but in no case has there been presented a performance in the humorous line that equalled the "City Directory," which will be performed at Metropolitan Hall on Wednesday night, April 6th. It has the widest reputation of any play of the kind now before the public. Everywhere it has been presented it has won the highest encomiums from the press and people. From the rise of the curtain to the close of the piece the audience is kept in a continual roar of laughter. All the actors are trained performers, realizing to the fullest extent the parts assigned them. It will be a great occasion, and we bespeak a rousing house.

Fresh eggs 12 1/2c at C. O. Ball & Co's.

Now that one of the engines for the electric power house has arrived, we hope no time will be lost in putting it in place. It is very inconvenient to have the cars stopped on the streets for want of power.

The finance committee for the 20th of May celebration in Charlotte continues to meet with much success. It has been decided to abandon the musical festival and merge all efforts into the declaration day.

Baptist Tabernacle.

Another large crowd attended services at the Baptist Tabernacle last night. Rev. Dr. Durham, Rev. Baylus Cade and Rev. Dr. Carter delivered addresses. Rev. J. N. Cole pronounced the benediction. Tonight is designated "Our Church Night," and the services will be interesting. The pastor will make preparatory remarks after which the following program will be observed: "Our Departed—What we owe them," by J. M. Broughton. "Our former Pastors". Addresses are expected from Rev. J. D. Huffham, Rev. W. R. Gwaltney and Rev. G. S. Williams, also letters from Rev. W. A. Nelson, Rev. Thos. Dixon and others.

Read the advertisement of H. J. Dowell, of the Bee Hive store. Go there today or tonight and buy something. Or if you wish to exchange one article for another, there is the place. If you wish to sell anything, see H. J. Dowell, the manager. Nearly three years have passed since this store was established, and it has been a blessing to many, especially those who are short of means. The fact is, you save money on everything you buy and get the cash money for all you sell. Besides this, he will pack and repair your furniture. Order anything you want and have made to order at the factory any kind of mattress you want at prices lower than the lowest. Will bottom chairs, either cane or perforated bottom, paint, polish and varnish them to order. All work satisfactory, insured and guaranteed for cash only. We wish to buy at once flower pots, fruit jars, old mahogany furniture, books and odds and ends for the cash by the thousands. In a word, go to the Bee Hive store to sell or buy. There you will receive polite and prompt attention. H. J. DOWELL, Manager, 128 and 118 South Wilmington St.
