CITY IN BRIEF.

The fickle weather of April is upon us.

Go to Metropolitan Hall tonight and find out the genuine John Smith.

The annual meeting and tournament of the State firemen will be held at Asheville July 13-15.

Regular winter weather has prevailed in the northwest the past few days, and we may look out for a cool spell here.

The annual alumni address before the University Alumni Association at Chapel Hill, Thursday, May 31st, will be delivered by President Charles D. McIver.

"The City Directory" is all the talk on the streets today, and there is a prospect for a full house at Metropolitan Hall tonight.

Mr. D. T. Johnson makes an elaborate display of cigars, pipes, chewing and smoking tobacco in one of his large front windows.

With the switchback railway and the skating rink at the fair grounds, the bath houses at Pullen Park and the various attractions to be fixed up at Brookside Park, there will be no want of fun this summer, and a corresponding benefit to the street cars.

Gov. Holt has ordered a special term of the Superior Court of Lincoln county, to commence May 23rd and continue for two weeks for the trial of criminal and civil cases. The county commissioners recommended the term. Judge John G. Bynum will preside.

Messrs. Neil A. Spence, E. A. Adams and H. T. Reeves left here this morning at 5 o'clock on bicycles for Goldsboro. A telegram was received later in the day stating that they arrived there at 11:35 a. m. They remained there half an hour and then returned home.

The advance premium list for field crops offered by the North Carolina State Agricultural Society has been sent out offering liberal premiums on cotton, tobacco, hay, grains and vegetables generally. Our Messrs. R. H. Battle, the president, and B. W. Ayer, the secretary, are abreast of the times in the interest of the State Fair which will be held October 18 to 21.

We were shown today the title page of the music composed and arranged by Mr. A. Pauli, complimentary to the cruiser "Raleigh." It is as follows: "The Raleigh March," composed and dedicated to the United States cruiser Raleigh by A. Pauli, Raleigh, N. C., March 31st, 1892. It will be published soon by a Philadelphia house.

Political elements are getting considerably stirred up around here. All sorts of predictions and counter predictions are being made as to the success of the several candidates for public favor. The VISITOR is in a most comp'acent mode relative to such affairs. We are candidates for public favor in the line of increased subscriptions and advertisements. Our platform is the greatest good to the greatest number of our people of all persuasions. On this line we mean to fight it out, if it takes all this summer and next summer too.

Cooler weather looked for tomorrow.

Radishes and some other spring vegetables are making their appearance in market.

Mr. W. T. Dough, of Dare county, has been appointed by the Governor, a commissioner of wrecks.

Much interest is being manifested here today, in the Rhode Island election. It is expected to be a close contest.

The latest accounts from Justice J. J. Davis are not of an encouraging character. He is in a critical condition.

The improvements upon the church of the Good Shepherd will considerably increase its size and add much to the improvement of the property.

We learn that the contributions to the fund for the enlargement of the Baptist Tabernacle now amounts to about $1,900.

The Board of Aldermen have spoken The Executive Committee of the Agricultural Society have spoken. Now let the Chamber of Commerce meet the question. We mean the centennial question.

Attention, Sir Knights!
You are hereby ordered to meet in your armory tonight at 8 o'clock for business and drill.

J. F. BROWN,
Sir Knight Guard.

Commuted.

Yesterday afternoon Gov. Holt commuted the sentence of Gilbert Dunlop, who was to have been hung in Moore county, May 5th, for the murder of Bob Hoover, to imprisonment in the penitentiary for five years. There was strong evidence that the criminal acted in self-defense, &c.

Hints to Young Men.

A very valuable and interesting little pamphlet with the above title has been issued by the University. It contains practical suggestions how to get an education, what to study, and how to become speedily fitted for law medicine, journalism, teaching, business or agriculture. Any one can obtain a copy by addressing President Winston, Chapel Hill, N. C.

PROMPT ACTION.

The Views of the Visitor Endorsed.

At a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Agricultural Society held last night a committee was appointed to wait on the Board of Aldermen and the Chamber of Commerce, tendering to these bodies the co-operation of the society in the matter of the proposed centennial of the city of Raleigh, and suggesting that the occasion be made a special feature of the next State fair.

Russell's Comedians.

In all probability "The City Directory" by Russell's comedians, will be the last entertainment of the kind we shall have in Raleigh until next fall. All who desire to witness a first class performance, should therefore be on hand at Metropolitan Hall tonight. It is beyond doubt the best company that has performed here for years, especially in the comedy line. It is full of fun, wit and humor and wherever it has performed the audiences have evinced their delight by storms of approbation. Do not miss such an opportunity for genuine pleasure.

A Valuable Book.

The hand book of North Carolina now being prepared by Col. Jno. D. Cameron for distribution at the World's Fair will contain three hundred pages and there will be a supply of about twenty thousand copies. It will contain much valuable information as to the manufacturing industries of the State, the trucking, fish and oyster business, etc. It is stated that Col. Cameron has reports from one hundred and eighteen cotton mills, and there are about ten now in course of construction. It will be a most interesting book.

The Charlotte Murder.

The negro who murdered the policeman James Moran, in Charlotte, was brought from Chester, S. C., to that city last Monday night. It was attempted to carry him to jail secretly but the news spread and a large crowd congregated. The prisoner was strongly guarded, however, and no attacks at violence had been made at last accounts. The Charlotte authorities paid the expenses of the murdered man, and a fund is being made up for his widow and children.

Died.

At his residence on South Person street, this city, this morning at 10 o'clock, Mr. W. H. Howell, aged 55 years.

Mr. Howell has been afflicted for some time with kidney troubles which was the immediate cause of his death. He was a native of Wake county, having been born near Apex, but had been for several years a resident of Raleigh. He was a member of the Baptist Tabernacle church and a consistent christian, highly respected by all who knew him. During the war he served in the Confederate army for the term of four years. He leaves a wife and six children—a boy and five girls to mourn their loss, with whom we deeply sympathize.

A Lovely Sight.

There is nothing more beautiful, if properly arranged, than a nice show window in a first class dry goods establishment. In this respect, Raleigh can now take the lead of any city of its size in the country. We noticed today the artistic display of goods in the windows of Mr. D. T. Swindell, and to say that it is lovely can hardly express it. We doubt, even if in Broadway New York, there can be found a more elegant or a better designed array of beautiful fabrics. In fact, it is a show worthy of the highest admiration and reflects credit upon Mr. Swindell, who thus proves that he is not only a Napoleon in the way of selecting goods, but a first class artist in exhibiting them to the best advantage. We specially invite the ladies to call and see for themselves. There is enough in these windows to attract the most fastidious purchasers.

If You Will

chew or smoke I can suit you in price and quality. I have on sale fifteen leading brands chewing tobacco, worth from 5c to 40c a plug, and smoking tobacco 25c to 50c per lb.
