CITY IN BRIEF.

Overcoats in demand this morning. There are now about 600 convicts at work on the State farms. Operations of the North Durham pants factory, will begin next week. The cool weather today causes much apprehension of frost tonight. The base ball fever is raging throughout the land. Cotton receipts today rather larger than usual. Mr J. H. Myrover, of the Fayetteville Observer will take a position on the staff of the Charlotte Observer. Southern Pines is getting on a big boom. A new hotel is to be built, and many other improvements are in contemplation. The heavy rise in rivers, creeks ponds and brooks, has blighted the happiness of some of our local fishermen for awhile. Persons from different sections of the county, represent all the streams as very high, owing to the heavy rain Thursday night last. The members of the N. C. Railroad Commission will attend the National convention of railroad commissioners at Washington City, next week. It is the estimate at the Agricultural department that the reduction in the cotton acreage in North Carolina will be about one third. Trains are almost daily passing through Goldsboro, loaded with asparagus, strawberries, etc., from the south for the northern markets. We regret to learn that Justice, J. J. Davis has suffered a severe attack of paralysis, and that his condition is by no means encouraging. A reward of $200 has been offered by the Governor for such information as will lead to the discovery of who was the murderer of Atlas S. Taylor in Northampton. At the game of base ball played yesterday between Wake Forest College and Oak Ridge Academy, the former scored a victory as follows: Wake Forest 7, Oak Ridge 4. Of those who professed conversion at Wilson under Evangelist Fife, the Methodists received 60, Baptist 50, Presbyterian 30, Episcopal 20 and Disciple 10. There will be services at the First Presbyterian church tomorrow at 11 a. m., conducted by one of the Elders. After which there will be a meeting of the congregation for the purpose of calling a pastor. Prof. Dinwiddle, of Peace Institute will fill the pulpit at Edenton Street M. E. church tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock. No services at night. Rev. Mr. Cole has gone to Warrenton to officiate at the memorial services of Rev. R. O. Burton. Attention is called to the advertisement of Messrs. W. H. & R. S. Tucker & Co., who announce a nice mercantile bill of fare for the public generally, in the shape of spring goods. This celebrated house affords superior attractions in all respects. It will no doubt be of interest to the many friends of our venerable and esteemed fellow citizen Mr. Jno. C. Palmer, to learn that today is his 86th birthday, and that he is enjoying about as good health as could be expected at that age. "Uncle Johnny" as he is called, says that sixty years ago he had a wrestle with Mr. Alfred Williams in which he came out second best, having had his arm broken. J. Williams is about 87 years old.

The Charlotte opera house has been closed until sold. This afternoon some person unlocked the construction car at the fair grounds when it ran down the grade of the railway with great force. At the corner of Avenet Ferry road near Mr. Hubbard's residence it ran into a street car going up, tearing it to pieces generally. No one was hurt. Our information was too late for further particulars.

Died.

At the residence of his sister, Mrs. J. Waters, in this city, this morning at 7 o'clock, after a lingering illness, Mr. Charles B. Scales, in the 48th year of his age. He leaves a wife, three devoted sisters and two loving children to mourn their loss. The funeral will take place from the residence tomorrow afternoon at 4:30 o'clock, and the services will be conducted under the auspices of the two lodges of Masons in this city.

Y. M. C. A.

There was a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Young Men's Christian Association last night. W. R. Gales, who acts as general Secretary until a permanent one is chosen, was present.

The parlor, reading room, &c., will be in readiness by the latter part of next week. The Secretary is now in correspondence relative to the gymnasium and will have it ready in a day or so. There will be a tennis court in the rear of the building. As soon as the rooms are properly fitted up, it is proposed, in addition to religious meetings, to have night classes for instruction in mathematics, book keeping, &c., and two competent teachers have volunteered for one night a week each. On the 22d inst. a public reception will be given and the doors opened to the community.

Attention, Wm. G. Hill Lodge, No. 218, A. F. & A. M.

There will be a meeting of the lodge tonight at 8 o'clock for the purpose of making arrangements to attend the funeral of our late brother, Chas. B. Scales, member of Hope Lodge, No. 244, New York City, who died in this city, on the night of April 8th, 1892.

The funeral will take place tomorrow (Sunday) at 3 o'clock p. m. Members of Hiram Lodge, No. 40, are requested to meet and participate with us. By order of the W. M. J. H. ALFORD, Sec.
