LARGEST CITY CIRCULATION.

RALEIGH, APRIL 9, 1892.

THE Star says there are by actual count forty one churches in that city. That is pretty good for Wilmington.

LOUISBURG is interesting itself on the subject of organizing a military company, which the Times thinks will be worth a great deal to the town in many ways.

THE Argus says the pea fields on all sides in the vicinity of Goldsboro are whitening into bloom under the influence of the "growing" weather of the past week.

Negotiations for the construction of a tobacco factory for the American Tobacco Company, are progressing rapidly. It is settled that Rocky Mount is to be their chief purchasing point for Eastern Carolina.—Argonaut.

The bar room opening in Charlotte seems to have attracted large attention. The building was soon full of people, when the doors were opened and a surging mass outside thronging the side walk trying to wedge themselves in. Charlotte had gotten to be awful thirsty, it seems, not far from the point of a "whisky riot."

A GOOD DRIVE.

The Wilmington papers are constantly referring to their shell road as a resort for pleasure and recreation, and it is one of the prominent attractions of that city. Now there is no reason why Raleigh should not have a splendid drive made just as attractive by crushing rock and macadamising. True we cannot supply as level a road, but level enough for pleasant driving and then the rock roads can be made just as attractive and more durable. Why not.

BIBLES AND TRACTS NEEDED

I am glad to say that of the four families yesterday wanting Bibles, one who lost all by fire was supplied by an old family Bible given to put where needed, and another one is supplied by a large Testament kindly given as a spare copy, but slightly worn. If our more favored citizens can give any old Bibles and Testaments for this good use you can send them to Williams & Haywood's drug store or I will call for them as you prefer. The money sent to the committee is far short of the pressing wants for Bibles and tracts. I have applications for it more or less every day to read and give to others. "He that giveth to the poor lendeth to the Lord." Please try it friends.

W. J. W. CROWDER

OBITUARY.

BROUGHTON—Tommie J. Broughton, son of Joseph T. and Martha H. Broughton, died at the home of his parents on the morning of the 18th day of March, 1892, of heart disease. He was at the time of his death 19 years and 7 months old. He was a consistent member of the M. E. Church, South, at Garner, N. C., about six years. He was an exemplary christian and his faith in God was strong and abiding. No cloud could obscure it, no wind chill it, no storm sweep it away. His eyes were kept fixed upon the Cross, his feet were securely planted upon the Rock of Ages, and in such a position he was serene and confident. A bright smile always irradiated his countenance, fit emblem of the peace within. He was possessed of a sunny disposition, a warm and genial nature, and a true and loving heart. In conversation he was both agreeable and entertaining; in his religious life pure and unspotted, and amid every circumstance courageous and hopeful. He was the personification of truth, virtue and dignity. He was greatly loved and admired by all who knew him, both old and young. We knew him well, he having boarded with us while attending school, and can say of a truth, he needs no fulsome eulogy, nor polished shaft to perpetuate his memory. His beautiful life and triumphant death are monuments that outshine the sun, and that shall yield a sanctifying influence for years to come.

As the end drew near he felt prepared to meet it, for he knew that Jesus would send his angels to bear his weary spirit home.

Farewell, true and faithful Tommie. May we meet again in the "Wonderful Country" above. May God pity the bereaved parents, brothers and sisters.

HIS UNCLE.

ODD FELLOWS' DEPARTMENT

CALENDAR.

Encampments—McKee, No. 15, 2d and 4th Friday; Litchford, No. 26, Mondays.

Subordinate Lodges—Manteo, No. 8, Tuesday; Seaton Gales, No. 64, Thursday.

Ruth Rebekah Degree Lodge—1st and 3d Friday.

Brother Phil H. Andrews, P. G., has been elected to represent Seaton Gales Lodge at the Grand Lodge in Wilmington in May.

Manteo, No. 8, sends our worthy brother, Past Grand W. W. Briggs to represent her at the Grand Lodge.

Grand Secretary Woodell visited Fayetteville this week and gives us a glowing account of the growth and advancement of the Order in that thriving town.

Although very bad weather on last Thursday evening, two candidates presented themselves at Seaton Gales Lodge, No. 64, and were initiated in our usual good style.

A movement is on foot by Manteo, No. 8, to raise funds to build a lodge room. We trust it will prove successful.

McKee Encampment, No. 15, had a very pleasant meeting last night.

The rehearsals of the "Burlesque Initiation" are going on and our citizens who love innocent amusement may expect a very interesting entertainment on Thursday evening, April 21, 1892.

A number of our Order who does not practice the teachings of the Order is not worthy the name of Odd Fellow. When you passed our threshold old you assumed your obligation which you should keep.

Members of the Order should furnish us with all the matter possible for this column and try to get every member, who does not already do so, to subscribe for THE VISITOR.

FLOWER STEALING.

The Charlotte Observer says: "There seems to be a regular gang of flower thieves in the city. Every morning one hears of deceptions committed in different yards. The flowers principally stolen are hyacinths, which bring good prices at the stations, and on the market generally. In several instances, whole beds of hyacinths have been demolished, and not a flower left to tell the story. In a yard on North Tryon, where a raid was made some nights since, a small card case was found the next morning which, besides cards, etc., contained a young lady's photograph. Evidently the raider was white, and evidently his was the girl who was left behind."

There are some of the same breed of thieves here in Raleigh and they should be looked after.
