CITY IN BRIEF.

The Mayor's Monday morning levee was thinly attended.

A handsome pulpit desk has been placed in the chancel of the church of the Good Shepherd.

The corner stone of the new court house, at Wilmington, will be laid on the 20th inst.

We learn that no call was made yesterday, as expected, for a pastor for the First Presbyterian church.

Rev. Baylus Cade has entered regularly upon his duties as pastor of the Venable Street Baptist church in Richmond, Va.

Regular Communication of Wm. G. Hill Lodge, No. 218, tonight at 8 o'clock. Work in first degree. Visiting brethren invited.

The stagnant water still remains in the basin of the fountain on Moore Square. The residents in the vicinity are complaining heavily.

The Albemarle and Raleigh Railroad cannot much longer linger in the woods. Competition and policy will force it forward to this city, and further.

The nine cent sale at Swin Dells is rather a unique arrangement. Any person who buys $4.50 worth of goods will be entitled to a $1 umbrella for nine cents. Tomorrow is the day.

Litchford Encampment No. 26, 1 O. O. F., will meet tonight at 7:30 o'clock. Business of importance. Every member requested to be present.

The State arsenal on Capitol square is to be painted and otherwise fixed up. We had much rather hear that it is to be pulled down, but as it must remain, we endorse the proposition to have it made to look better.

Quite a heavy frost this morning, and, no doubt, peaches and forward garden truck were somewhat damaged. Apples and cherries were hardly far enough advanced to be injured much.

The receipts of cotton, in this city, for the past week were 351 bales against 203 for the corresponding week last year; receipts to date 23,200 bales, against 34,710 last year.

Mr. MacRAE, of the Wilmington Cotton Mills, presented to Oxford Orphan Asylum 800 yards of dress goods for the girls of that noble institution. This is a noble generosity that indexes the man.

The Merchants Banking Company, of Durham, have declared a semi-annual dividend of 4 per cent. The following officers have been selected: W. H. Willard, President; J. T. Pinix, Vice President; W. M. Morgan, Cashier.

An interesting debate will be held between the Columbian and Hesperian societies of Trinity College in the chapel of the institution on Friday, April 23d, at 7:30 p. m. The subject for discussion will be:

Resolved, That the payment of no pensions at all would be better than the present system as administered. Messrs. S. J. Durham and Frank Armfield, of the Columbian will take the affirmative and C. E. Turner and W. H. Willis of the Hesperian, the negative.

We invite attention to the advertisement of Messrs. Thomas & Maxwell in this issue. These gentlemen carry a most superb line of furniture and everything pertaining to their line of business, which they are offering to the public at the most astounding low rates. Housekeepers should call and examine the stock. Read the advertisement.

Accounts from the eastern counties today are of the most distressing character relative to the frost last night. A large acreage in Craven county planted in potatoes is destroyed. Similar destruction is reported from the truck lands in the neighborhood of New Bern.

Two letters were dropped on the street this morning. One of them had a stamp on it and was addressed to Rev. Robert Lucas, Wilmington, N. C. The finder would confer a favor by leaving it at the postoffice, as it is of no use to any person not interested.

Arrested.
One of our well-known business men received a telegram this morning announcing that Davis who is charged with forging and misappropriation of funds in Richmond, Va., has been arrested at Denver, Colorado.

A Burlesque.
The next amusement at Metropolitan Hall will be "Van Nest's Burlesque Initiation, or the Secret Work Exposed" which will be presented on Thursday evening April 21st. Seats are on sale at Alfred Williams & Co.'s bookstore and J. Hal. Bobbitt's drug establishment. Admission 10 cents; gallery 25 cents. It will be a splendid occasion to satisfy the curiosity of the ladies (and some gentlemen also) as to the secrets of Odd Fellowship.

Another for the Visitor.
It seems to be definitely settled that a large and beautifully arranged auditorium will be commenced in this city at an early day. It is estimated to cost about $50,000, and the site agreed upon is the corner of Martin and Salisbury streets, only a short distance from the new "Park" Hotel. It will be a magnificent building four stories high, with all modern arrangements. A fuller description and more extended details will be given hereafter. Thus the efforts of the VISITOR are bringing forth fruits. Another for the VISITOR.

Our Chamber of Commerce.
President Latta, of the Chamber of Commerce, has called a meeting of that body to meet at the Mayor's of five tomorrow night, at which matters of importance to the people of Raleigh and vicinity will be discussed. Chairman Latta realizes the importance of prompt action, and the call should be well responded to. All citizens are invited to co-operate. Let there be a rousing turn out. A grand rally is needed.

Interesting Meeting.
On Saturday afternoon last, a most interesting conference of the Baptist, Methodist, Presbyterian and Christian churches, was held at the Yaboro House, and a Bible Conference was arranged to be held next week to be conducted by Rev. Geo. C. Needham as follows:

Sunday morning, April 17th, at First Presbyterian church; afternoon at 4 o'clock, Edenton Street M. E. church; at night Baptist Tabernacle. Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday following meetings in afternoon at 4 o'clock, in First Presbyterian church, and 7:45 in First Baptist church. Ministers and Christian teachers in surrounding country invited.

For Rent.
Two comfortable rooms, with or without board. Apply to No. 11, W. South street. April 4th

To-morrow is 9 Cent Day.
All who spend 45 cents in Swin dell's store to-morrow can buy a one dollar umbrella for 9 cents.
Respectfully,
D. T. SWINDELL.

A Splendid Proposal.
We invite special attention to the announcement of Manager Huff, of the Electric Street Railway, in this issue. It will be found that Mr. Huff, on the part of the road, looking to the interest of our people, has arranged to supply currents for running stationary motors, so that they can enjoy the cooling effects of revolving fans, &c. Besides furnishing the current, the company will supply parties with the necessary machinery and fans. Patterns and designs of machines and prices can be seen by calling on Manager Huff at his office over the old State National Bank. This is an important advance for our people and we hope it will be most widely taken advantage of. In fact we think that Manager Huff is entitled to the gratitude of our citizens for a movement so conducive to their comfort.

Fearful Assault.
Last Saturday evening, in Goldsboro, while Mr. Stephen L. Lynch, of Greene county, was standing in a store door a man named Gray Speight suddenly struck him a tremendous blow over the head with a full beer bottle. Had it not been that Lynch wore a slouch hat the blow would have killed him. The two men had not spoken for months in consequence of a law suit. Speight fled, but was overtaken and locked up.

Funeral.
The funeral services of the late Mr. Charles B. Scales took place yesterday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock and was attended by a large crowd of sorrowing relatives and friends. The burial services were conducted by Hiram and Wm. G. Hill Lodges of Masons. The interment was in Oakwood cemetery.

The religious services were conducted by Rev. Dr. Marshall.
