CITY IN BRIEF.

The Supreme Court is now engaged on case from the eleventh district.
Don't fail to attend the meeting at the Mayor's office tonight.
Goldboro claims to have $4,000 surplus in the treasury.
There will be a meeting of Royal Arcanum tonight at 8 o'clock.
The Durham Sun has been enlarged to twenty four columns.
Mr. Hickok representing Pope Manufacturing Co., of Boston was here yesterday.
Oxford has a base ball club called "Fats and Leans," made up of tobacco men.
The First Baptist church, at Durham, has agreed to call Rev. W. C. Tyree, of Amherst, Va.
We are pleased to note that Rev. Dr. C. T. Bailey is fast recovering his usual health.
The Jewish Feast of the Passover commenced last night and will last seven days.
Republican County Convention met today to appoint delegates to the State Convention which meets next Thursday.
Tomorrow is the anniversary of the entrance of Sherman's army into Raleigh, which took place April 13th, 1865.
The Railroad Commissioners, with their secretary, have gone to Washington City to attend the National Convention of Commissioners.
The proposed lecture of Prof. W. F. Massey, at the Agricultural and Mechanical College, will be delivered April 20. Public invited.

Several prominent Republican politicians from a distance are already here to attend the convention of that party to be held next Thursday.
Meeting of Raleigh Chapter Royal Arch Masons at 8 o'clock tonight, to confer the degrees of Past Master and Most Excellent Master.
Mrs. Samantha Dinkins was before the Mayor this morning for keeping a disorderly house on East Cabarrus street and was fined $5 and costs.
Some weeks since the VISITOR assured its readers that a new hotel and an auditorium would be two of the important improvements consummated during the year 1892. This prediction will be verified without doubt.
There are too many youths running at large in the city, with no apparent occupation, and "running to seed" without proper attention. This is apparent from a casual visit to the Mayor's court.
The Wilmington Messenger has a very nice allusion to the removal of Messrs. Rheinstejn & Co., of that city into new and more commodious quarters. This enterprising and progressive firm is represented in the central portion of the State by our friend and townsman, Mr. J. D. Biggen, who has been with them continuously for six years. Mr. Biggen, by his close attention to the business of the firm he represents and the correctness with which he deals with patrons, has secured many warm friends for both himself and his house in his territory.

Attention, Muckers!
Regular meeting of the Muckers to night at 8 at the usual place.

Died.

In Hickory, N. C., at 3 o'clock this morning, Mrs. Lillie W. Hall, wife of Mr. P. C. Hall and sister of Messrs. S. W. and C. G. Whiting of this city.

Rally To-Night.

We cannot too earnestly urge upon our people the necessity of a prompt attendance at the meeting of the Chamber of Commerce to be held in the Mayor's office tonight. It has now been some time since a meeting of the Chamber was held and interest in the matter for awhile at least has seemed to lag. The meeting tonight is stated by the president to be for the consideration of matters of interest, and such being the case no member should be absent unless for cause. The invitation is also extended to all citizens having at heart the interest of the city, and as all good people in this vicinity are presumed to be interested, the meeting should be a full one.

Obituary.

The death of Mr. Charles B. Scales, which took place last Saturday morning at the residence of his sister, Mrs. J. Waters, was a sad blow to his relatives and friends. He had resided in New York city for the last 23 years, and in all respects was a good citizen. He leaves a widow and several children to mourn their irreparable loss. He came here on the 6th of December last, in hope to be benefitted, but it failed to do so, he having that dread disease, consumption. His sister kindly administered to his wants in his sickness and her treatment went far toward his keeping him alive so long. He had the best and the most constant attention. He now rests with his father and mother in Oakwood cemetery, until the day of resurrection.

St. John's Hospital

We must think that our people do not have at heart, to a proper degree, the wants of this noble institution; or else, surely it would not be allowed to lack for what maybe termed necessary conveniences. It is useless to recapitulate what has been done by those having in charge the hospital to alleviate the wants of impecunious persons, and others. This has been laid before our people, over and over again. It cannot be that the generous citizens of Raleigh will allow such an institution to languish, when a small contribution would avail much. It seems that there are no water or sewerage connections, two essentials to the proper regulation and health of the institution. Cannot some means be adopted to raise the necessary funds? Let our people make suggestions. We will cheerfully print them, and do all else in our power for the furtherance of the object.

This celebrated piano combines qualities of rare excellence and is fast gaining a world wide reputation for its peculiarly sympathetic and mellow tone and its charming singing qualities. All admire its superlative depth and richness of tone, with its magnificent volume and power. The cases of the Kimball are artistic in design, and all their leading styles are finished in all the fancy natural woods. The pianos we ask all interested, no matter whether you want to buy or not, to call in and look over and we will surprise you on our awfully close prices.
