SYNOPSIS OF THE WEATHER.

The following is the synopsis of the weather at 8 a. m. today:

FOR NORTH CAROLINA

Fair, followed by increasing cloudiness and light showers in west portion. Sunday afternoon to night, slightly warmer.

RALEIGH AND VICINITY.

Till 8 p. m. Sunday, fair, warmer, rain probable Monday.

Local data for 24 hours ending 8 a. m. today:

Maximum temperature 54
Minimum temperature 38
Rainfall, 0.10

CITY IN BRIEF.

Only a very slight frost last night. Another theatrical company in prospective.

Dogwood blossoms are getting out. This looks like spring in earnest.

A number of excursions are mapped out, for the surrounding country next Monday.

Thanks to the energy and efficiency of our officials, the sanitary condition is now first class.

The Wake County Farmers Alliance have adopted the St. Louis platform.

A most excellent musical programme has been selected for Christ Church tomorrow.

It is now thought in weather wise circles that all further danger from frost is over.

The indications now are that next Monday will be a fine day. However the weather these times is very uncertain.

A country friend told us today that the stand of wheat and oats is first rate. The acreage of grain in Wake will be much larger than for some years.

There will be very interesting and entertaining Easter service by the Little Workers at the Christian Church at 8 o'clock tomorrow (Sunday) afternoon.

The Bright Jewels of Edenton Street Methodist Church will hold an Easter service at their Sunday school room tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock. Public invited.

The receipts of cotton, in this city for the week, were 279 bales against 411 for the corresponding week last season. The receipts to date were 23,488 bales against 37,439 for last year.

The rooms of the Y. M. C. A. are now in first rate condition, and open for visitors. It is suggested that parties having pictures, engravings, &c., to donate, could render a valuable service by sending them in. Mr. W. R. Gales will be in charge.

We have heretofore mentioned the attraction at the fair grounds next Monday. An admission fee of ten cents will be charged. Children free. One fourth of the gate receipts will be donated to St. John's Hospital. The cake walk will take place at 2 o'clock p. m. Trotting races will come off at 4 o'clock. The switchback will be in operation during the afternoon, and refreshments will be served in the pavilion.

A Sad Death.

The little son of Mr. T. Q. Byrum, of Barton's Creek township, was fatally burned yesterday morning and died this morning. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock at the residence of the family.

Alliances.

Yesterday was a field day in Alliance circles, there being meetings in many of the counties. The Wake County Alliance met at Apex, and there were twenty three sub-alliances represented.

Educational Convention.

The Methodist Educational Convention in Charlotte has been a great success. The body has adjourned, after electing the following officers for the ensuing year: President, W. M. Robbins; 1st vice president, Rev. J. A. Cunningham; 2d vice president, Rev. B. F. Dixon; secretary and treasurer, Rev. E. A. Yates. The benediction was delivered by Rev. Dr. Reid, of this city. The convention has proven a great success.

Programme.

The following programme for next Monday has been arranged at the fair grounds:

CAKE WALK, 2 P. M.

There will be an old styled "coon" cake walk. The most stylish walker of the African persuasion will "take the cake"—a regulation Ned Jones pound cake. Competent judges will be appointed.

SWITCHBACK RACES

The most fascinating of all past-times. All can renew their youth upon the switchback.

TROTTER RACE, 4 P. M.

There will be three of Raleigh's favorites in this race. Mr. Hubbard will enter his fine gray mare. Mr. Scott will enter one of Capt. Williamson's celebrated Fair View fillies, and a third will be entered by Mr. Batchelor. This promises well for a good race.

The switchback will be in operation throughout the afternoon.

There will be an admission fee of 10 cents at the gate. Children free. Twenty-five per cent of the gate receipts will be given to St. John's Hospital.

Crop Report.

The crop report for the week ending Saturday April 16th, 1892, is as follows:

Eastern District.—Truckers great losers since last bulletin. Frost on 17th, 11th and 13th, great injury to beans, strawberries, peaches. New Bern section damaged over $100,000. Corn coming up damaged some extent. Cotton planting begun, but acreage considerably reduced.

Central District.—Cold snaps 10th to 13th, greatly injured crops. Garden vegetables killed. Damage wheat, oats, tobacco, small cotton planting progressing rapidly. Large increase acreage corn. Severe hail storm at Burlington, Oxford, Kittrell, Dabney, Mebane, Winston, Henderson.

Western District.—Peaches killed—early vegetables seriously hurt; wheat slightly injured; corn and cotton planting retarded.

Easter Hints

If you can do so, we suggest that you call at Tucker's this evening and see the Easter novelties. Rev. Geo. C. Needham Will Preach

Sunday morning, April 17, at First Presbyterian Church; afternoon, at 4 o'clock, at Edenton Street Methodist Church; at night in the Baptist Tabernacle.

The following are arrangements for the proposed Bible Conference in this city:

On Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday following, meetings will be held in the afternoon, at 4 o'clock, in the First Presbyterian Church, and at 7:45 p. m., in the First Baptist Church.

These conferences are specially designed for Christians, but will be open to all who may attend.

A Whiskey Cocktail and a mint Julep.

A young fellow came in yesterday and wanted to see Swindell. On finding this individual, he in a very confidential way told Swindell he had heard a curbstone lawyer expressing himself in abusive and unchaste language about Swindell's business. Having finished our day's work and having nothing better to do, we asked this scavenger of news to repeat what he had heard, which was as follows: Swindell is no good; he won't trust out goods, and if one wants goods ever so much he must wait till he has money to get them from Swindell's, or he must get them somewhere else, and pay much more money, for them. Then Swindell don't allow us fellows to loaf around his store and laugh and tell funny stories. He don't encourage loafing at all, which would make his store popular. Then he ruins the business for all the other merchants by selling goods so cheaply as to keep our old friends from making money. Why, this fellow Swindell is absorbing all the trade. We all thought when he did not move to Baltimore, as advertised, that he was ruined, but that has given new life to his business, and apparently his trade is double what it was before, &c., &c. When he finished Swindell asked if this knight of the curbstone was drunk. No, said he, but he was spitting cotton. Well, said Swindell, this fellow must continue to talk. Take this silver dollar, find him take him to a saloon and give him a whiskey cocktail and a mint julep. Set him to talking again about Swindell.
