THE OUTLOOK IN EUROPE.

Telegrams received from the conti nent indicace that in Germany and Austria-Hungary, as in England, the May Day celebration will partake of the character of a popular fete, and fully insured. On building, $5,000; the duty of the police will be of a passive nature.

On the other hand, in France, Italy, Spain and Belgium the authorities are making preparations as if to suppress a revolution.

At a cabinet meeting in Paris today convened especially to discuss the sitnation, it was decided that it would be highly dangerous to relax the repressive measures already taken in the slightest degree.

The Minister of Justice has instructed public prosecutors and examining magistrates to remain in their offices throughout the day tomorrow.

Prefet of Police Loze today called together the police commissaires to receive final orders as to how to deal with demonstrations in the outlying districts of Paris. No disorderly bands of people will be allowed to as semble, or to penetrate to the city.

DEATH OF MRS. VIRGINIUS BALLARD.

Wilmington Messenger.

The Messenger sympathizes with Mr. Virginius Ballard, an old Wilmingtonian, but for years past a resident of Durham, in the death of his wife, which occurred Wednesday night. The deceased was highly spoken of by the Globe, which states that Mrs. Ballard had been conspicu ous in social circle and in all undertakings having for their object the good of the town, the church, or any worthy organization. She was an active worker and an acknowledged leader She was a member of the Methodist church, and died sustained by a Christian hope. In church work as in other things, she was always in the lead, and will be much missed

The Bath county, Ky, grand jury indicted one W. T. Johnson, of Illi nois, for sending through the mail a blackmailing letter to a citizen of that county. Under the law of Kentucky this is a felony, punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary Governor Brown, of Kentucky, issued a requisition upon Governor Fifer for the man, but Illinois' Governor refused to honor it. Rumor says that Johnson is an influential member of the G. A. R. and Fifer is a candidate for renomination.

FOUND AFTER TEN YEARS.

The little 3 year old daughter of George Smith, of Rosedale, N. Y, disappeared ten years ago.

Soon after the child was kidnapped his wife eloped, and Smith had not seen or heard from either since then until this week, when his stepdaughter, who was in Kingston, N. Y., on a brief visit, learned that a thirteen year old girl living with David Kidd's family was left with them about ten years ago by a woman who gave her name as Contant and said she was the little one's mother but unable to support it. Smith came here and found the girl was his daughter, but the Kida officer of the church is bound to have family refused to give her up. He an investigation, which we learn, he will ask for a writ of habeas corpus. will soon institute.

FIRE AT LITTLE ROCK.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark, April 20 .- The first cotton fire of the year at this place occurred at 9 o'clock tonight, entailing a loss estimated at $35,000. A blaze was discovered in the southeast corner of Dudley E. Jones & Co's large cotton shed at Second and Commerce streets, in which 600 bales of cotton owned by Richard Fletcher were destroyed. The fire spread like lightning and by the time the fire department arrived on the scene the whole shed was ablaze and property for a block around was threatened with destruction.

Adjoining the Jones shed was M. G Hall & Co.'s big shed with 100 bales of cotton. This was soon on fire. By hard work 50 bales were saved.

The buildings of the Dickinson Hardware Company, Dickinson Arms Company and Dudley E. Jones Machinery company now took fire, but by the heroic efforts of the firemen the fire was gotten under control and the buildings saved after slight damage had been done.

The losses are about as follows: Richard Fletcher's loss on cotton $21. 000, fully covered by insurance; M G. Hall & Co, loss on cotton $1,750; no insurance. Dudley E. Jones on building $5.000; no insurance. The origin of the fire is a mystery.

A NEGRO ASSAUSINATED.

YOKENA, Miss., April 80 -A foul murder was committed on the Hant plantation near here at about nine o'clock yesterday morning, the victim being a well known colored man named Wm. Washington, who owns a small farm near there. He had just started on his way home from Mr J W Kline's place where he had leased land for this year.

When a short distance from the Hunt quar'ers, he was fired upon by an unknown party in ambush and was shot in the back with large shot, some of the shot going through his body. His horses turned and ran a short distance when he fell to the ground dead. Parties hearing him ery out and seeing the horses running to the house, went * · the road and found him there dead. Justice W. H. Mapl's being notified, immediately went to the place, impaneled a jury and held an inquest, but was unable to find out anything that would lead to the capture of the mur derer Andrew Washington, colored, as a fend with deceased is suspected and his arrest is anticipated.

THE RIDER CASE.

Purham Sun.

We learn that in the case of Rev. Mr. Rider, his official Board of Carr church, agreed unanimously to sus tain their pastor until the official au thority of the church shall decide the matter. There is much favorable talk amongst our people as to the innocence of this unfortunate, but believed to be innocent, minister. This speaks well for our people, not to condemn a gentleman of unapproachable character until he is proven guilty. The properly constituted law
