SYNOPSIS OF THE WEATHER.
The following is the synopsis of the weather at 8 a. m. today:
FOR NORTH CAROLINA.
Fair weather till Friday.
Local data for 24 hours ending 8 a. m. today:
Maximum temperature, 86
Minimum temperature, 56
Rainfall, 0.00

CITY IN BRIEF.

Warm, gentle rains are now to be desired for the growing crops.
The weather has suddenly jumped into the temperature of mid summer.
The maximum temperature in the city of Raleigh was 83 on the 5th of April. The minimum temperature was 51, on the 11th.
The United States District Court is in session at Wilmington, with Judge Seymour presiding.
Mayor Badger had another comparative rest from official cases today. The city is unusually quiet.
The "Daisy Club" will hold their anniversary reception at the residence of Mrs. Vass on the evening of May 6th, from 8 to 10:30 o'clock.
When you buy your spring medicine you should get the best, and that is Hood's Sarsaparilla. It thoroughly purifies the blood.
A dividend of 15 percent will be paid depositors and others holding claims against the First National Bank of Wilmington, in about ten days.
Attention is called to the advertisement of a house for rent. Application can be made to Mrs. M. J. Fentress, Raleigh, or Mr. Herbert L. Fentress, 621, North Fourth street, Wilmington, N. C.
Mrs. Lucy S. Edwards, wife of the late Hon. Weldon N. Edwards, died last Monday night, at the residence of M. J. Hawkins Esq., at Ridgeway. She was 87 years old.
Temperature this morning at 10 o'clock was 28 degrees at Bi-marek and 40 at St. Paul, while at Dodge City it is 44 with the wind at 20 miles an hour. Lookout for hail and a cold wave possibly northwest of us.
At a union mass meeting held in Charlotte last Monday evening enough money was pledged to put the Y. M. C. A., on its feet again Good.
Union prayer service will be held at Central Methodist Church tonight conducted by Rev. J. W. Cole, and immediately after the prayer service the monthly session of the Methodist Layman's Union will be held. All the members of the three churches are especially urged to attend. The public are invited to the prayer service.

Fruit Not all Killed.

Mr. T. C. Harris, of the State Museum, who has fine opportunities to touch at all points of the compass, informs us that he has made special inquiries from various sections, and the reports show that in this section and to the East, there will be a fair crop of fruit. In Wake, the prospect is rather good, while in the western portion of the State, peaches particularly, are largely killed.

Married.

A very pleasant company assembled last night at Mr. Wiley Perry's residence, in House Creek township, the occasion being the marriage of his daughter, Florence, to Charles Griffin, of Sutton, Franklin county. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. J. J. Hall, of the Tabernacle church. Many friends came in town with Mr. Griffin, and the happy couple start off on life's journey with the heartiest congratulations of a host of admirers.

I. O. O. F.

Regular meeting of Seaton Gales Lodge, No. 64, I. O. O. F., tomorrow night at 8 o'clock. The conferring of the 1st degree, and other important business will be transacted, which requires a full attendance. A cordial welcome to the members of Manteo Lodge and visiting brethren.
THIRM, Sec'y.

Statistics.

The Commissioner of Agriculture is now sending out blanks for the Agricultural and farm stock report for the present year. This is a most important matter, and we hope that all who are the recipient of blanks will promptly send in their returns. The returns last year were so inefficient that they will not be published. It is hoped, however, that this year they will be fuller in all particulars. It is the farmers interest that this matter should be attended to.

Wake Superior Court.

The following cases were disposed of this morning:
Trustees R. x Hospital vs. W. S. Wood; judgment of foreclosure against plaintiff.
R. M. Andrews (in re. probate of deed) vs. Mrs. W. N. Andrews; judgment of clerk affirmed.
Moses C. Utley vs. David H. Smith et als; judgment, that plaintiff is owner and entitled to possession of lands described in complaint, also for sum of $166 66 cents etc.

Town Elections.

In Apex, Wake county, yesterday, D. W. Maynard was chosen mayor; J. A. Norris, C. Q. Hudson, W. H. Harward and E. B. Sturgeon, commissioners; Rufus Smith, marshal.
In Carthage, W. H. McNeill was elected mayor.
The election in Louisburg resulted mayor. The following were chosen in the selection of F. S. Sprull for as commissioners: R. Y. Yarboro, J. J. Barrow, G. H. Cooper and J. A. Thomas.
Mr. J. R. Mendenhall was elected mayor of Greensboro.

Personal Mention.

Maj. Crenshaw, of Wake Forest Township, is in the city.
Mr. S. M. Terrell, of Rolesville, is here today.
Col. J. D. Cameron, the Veteran Journalist, is in the city.
We were pleased to see officer Lewellen on the streets today after a protracted spell of sickness. We sincerely hope he may continue to improve.
Our friend, Prof. Von Herrman, of the weather service, left for the north this morning on a ten days leave of absence. During his absence, we hope there will be no great deal of bad weather, especially cyclones. We wish him a pleasant trip.

Opinions.

The following opinions were handed down in the Supreme Court yesterday:
State vs. Cutshall, from Mecklenburg; no error.
Wilson vs. Charlotte; new trial.
State vs. Crane, from Union; affirmed.
Greensboro vs. McAdoo, from Guilford; affirmed.
Jenkins vs. Railroad, from Martin; new trial.
State vs. Yount, from Catawba; new trial.
Phifer vs. Berry, from Burke; modified and affirmed.
Williams vs. Railroad, from Duplin; no error.

Special sale of ribbons and towels, Thursday, May 5th, 1892.
Woolcott & Sons

Remember the sale tomorrow of calico at 2c at the New York Bargain House.
Don't fail to go to the New York Bargain House and see their men's patent leather Oxfords at $1.50, well worth $2.

Early.

Mrs. H. H. Crocker, had new Irish potatoes, of her own raising, for dinner today. They were nearly as large as an ordinary hen egg, and were the first we have heard of.

Appointments.

Bishop Lyman will officiate at the Church of the Good Shepherd next Sunday, May 8th. On the same day, in the evening, at St. Mary's School, Holy communion at all morning services. Collections for Diocesan Missions.

Aged Persons.

In the report of vital statistics yesterday we gave a list of persons, over seventy years old, who had died during the month of March, instead of those in the month of April. The list for April is as follows:
April 3d, 1892—Creasy Bradford, colored, aged 72.
April 18, 1892—Mary Hinton, colored, aged 76.

Strawberry Festival.

The first strawberry festival of the season will be given by the ladies of St. Mary's Guild, at the Rectory of the Church of the Good Shepherd, on next Thursday evening.
The ladies will be glad to serve their friends on this occasion, from 6 to 10 o'clock, p. m.
Special sale of ribbons and towels, Thursday, May 5th, 1892.
Woolcott & Sons.

Auction Tomorrow.

Beginning at 6 o'clock p. m. will sell to the highest bidder a lot of tables, counters, two large mirrors, a nice trimming case, stove, irons, etc., at 114 Fayetteville St. pd may 4 2t.

Gentlemen's Spring Underwear.

Now open, our lines of gentlemen's "Summer Merino" soft and light weight underwear. Just the kind to wear right now, before one puts on gauze for summer. We are also displaying some nobby things in gentlemen's negligee shirts, in Madras wash flannel and percale. It is best to make selections now, before the assortments are broken.
W. H. & R. S. TUCKER & Co.

One Cent Challie.

We will have a sale of nice Challie at one cent a yard right soon. We go to New York next week and when we return will sell you a nice dress for ten cents, or one cent a yard. So wait for our sale. We will have a big lot and our store is large enough for all the crowd to get in this time.
Yours truly,
D. T. SWIN DELL

Is This Store Never Clear of Customers.

We are asked nearly every day by some one if this store is never clear of customers. Some others say, "Well, I never come in this store without finding a crowd of customers." If you see a swarm of bees you know honey is near. We know why our store is crowded each and every day, all day. We sell goods cheaper than anybody else. Read our price list:

Now, my dear friend listen. Don't waste your money, but come direct to Swindell's store. Don't buy new experience just for the sake of saying "I am sorry."
Yours truly,
D. T. SWIN DELL.

Attention, Ex-Confederates.

Next Tuesday is memorial day, and it is desired, that the ceremonies over the lamented dead should be as well attended as possible. It is particularly expected that all the ex-Confederates who can possibly do so, should be on hand, and that those who can procure horses should act as marshals.

A Live Institution.

Covenant Building and Loan Association of Knoxville, Tenn., is showing practical results. It has already loaned over $ 000 in Raleigh, and in a letter to their agent the Association offers to loan to other members here who offer good security. This association is popular, prosperous and liberal. Attention is called to its advertisement in another column.
