Minimum temperature, 64

CITY IN BRIEF.

Strawberries getting quite plentiful.

Lamb and peas will be the correct thing in a few days.

The University Glee Club performed in Goldsboro today.

"Page's Opera House" should be its name.

Temperature in the neighborhood of 90.

A warm, gentle rain is now much needed for growing vegetation.

Fishermen report splendid luck in this vicinity.

The pond in Brookside park is to be stocked with fish of the superior species.

The young ladies are making necessary preparations for the business men's carnival.

The State Board of Medical Examiners will be in session, at Winston on the 24th inst.

The convention of the Episcopal church will meet in Greensboro, May 18th.

Don't take off your flannel. You might have to don it again before next Monday.

The justices of the peace for Wake county will meet the first Monday in June for the purpose of levying taxes.

Col. W. H. Newsum has been elected mayor of Hillsboro over Joseph A. Harris by 18 majority.

Next winter the General Assembly will meet. Let us hope that by that time, the new Opera House will be ready for business.

After the Grip Hood's Sarsaparilla will restore your strength and health, and expel every trace of poison from the blood.

There will be an interesting meeting of St. Agnes Guild on tomorrow, Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the Chapel of Christ church.

While there is a considerable "let up" in the matter of applications for payment of direct taxes there are still about three hundred warrants issued each month.

The friends of Mr. Joseph Perry will regret to learn that he is seriously ill at his residence on the Avenet ferry road, formerly occupied by W. P. Batchelor, Esq.

Thieves entered the kitchen of the Oxford Orphan Asylum last Saturday night and stole half a beef which was to have been cooked for the pupils' Sunday dinner. Too bad.

Already the Democratic primaries next Saturday night are being extensively discussed on the streets. The hot weather with the additional boiling of the political cauldron, will make things lively soon.

Snowing at Bismarck, North Dakota, at 8 o'clock this morning with temperature at 30. At Chicago the temperature was 46 with wind at 43 miles an hour. In Raleigh we are at midsummer heat. Lookout for squalls.

The county home for the aged and infirm, popularly known as the "poor house," was visited last Tuesday by the county commissioners. An inspection of the management was made, and a report resulted complimentary to Superintendent Allen.

We are glad to notice the improvement in the health of Mr. W. T. Mabry, who has recently suffered much from sickness.

It should not be forgotten that the ladies of St. Mary's Guild will give the first strawberry festival of the season at the Rectory of the Church of the Good Shepherd this evening. The ladies will serve their friends from 6 to 10 o'clock, p. m.

We take it for granted that during President George's present visit to our city, he will look into the matter of an early extension of the street car lines to Pullen and Brookside Parks. The heated term is, or soon will be, fully upon us, and we must think that these delightful resorts will be freely patronized. Let the matter be fully determined, and we feel sure that Manager Huff will push its consummation. It will be most assuredly a step in the interest of the company, and there can be no doubt of the results to the public will be of the most convenient character.

Knights Templar.

The regular monthly convocation will be held this evening at 8 o'clock. The templar order will be conferred.

Killed.

Mr. R. T. Wilson, of Hoffman, was killed last Saturday, by a falling tree. He had only been married about four months and was a young gentleman of much popularity. He was buried near New Hill on Monday last where his mother resides.

Pretty Early.

Mr. W. H. Bunch brought to the Visitor office this morning some very nicely filled garden peas which he raised in his garden on North Bloodworth street. They are the early May variety and are early for the season. This only shows what can be done when proper effort is made.

Wake Superior Court.

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Mrs. A. M. Andrews vs R. M. Andrews; judgment for plaintiff for possession and for $200 damages.

Elizabeth Emory vs Alvarado Jones et als; judgment for plaintiff for possession.

Jno. J. Johnson vs W. Z. Blake et als; set for trial Friday, May 6th.

Bathing.

The bathing houses in Pullen Park are now open for use. They will be kept open during the day and until a reasonable hour at night. It is contemplated to set apart hours for ladies, which will be made known hereafter. The small fee of ten cents will be charged for bathing, which is set apart for current expenses. This is a great convenience for our people.

In the City.

We are pleased to meet in the city Mr. John C. George, of Baltimore. President of the Electric Railway of our city. He will remain here a short time, during which he will devote himself in looking after the affairs of the road. It will, no doubt, be gratifying to him to note the splendid manner in which the affairs of the plant have been managed by the efficient and gentlemanly superintendent, Mr. S. W. Huff, whose entire energies seem to be devoted to the interests of the work he has in charge, and an earnest zeal for the convenience of the citizens of Raleigh. Mr. George is always a welcome visitor here, where he has scores of friends.

Our millinery department is full of all the latest styles and shapes. This season is the most successful we have ever had. Our prices are right and our styles cannot be surpassed.

We will continue our ribbon sale till the lot is closed out, and it is the greatest bargain in ribbons that has ever been shown in this State.

1,000 pairs all silk mitts and gloves 25 and 50c a pair.

1,000 ladies ribbed vests 10c each.

WOOLCOTT & SONS

THIRM, Sec'y.

Mose.

We had the pleasure of seeing in the city today our old friend, Col. John N. Bunting, of Panther Branch township. We are pleased to see that time is dealing gently with the Colonel, and he presents all the appearance of a well fed planter. He speaks most hopefully of the future and thinks that the coming crops will put us all right in the matter of prosperity. Col. Bunting is full of reminiscences, and under his well known literary title of "Mose," he promises us some of his spicy productions at no distant day.

Scarcity.

A business friend told us today, that so far as his experience goes, very little of the new silver coin had put in its appearance in Raleigh. Large sums are being daily issued at the mint, but the bulk of it seems to eschew the South almost entirely. We told our friend that possibly we had no quid pro quo to offer, as it was a rare exception to obtain something for nothing. When the new crops are forwarded to market, however, if they should not turn out failures again, we may expect our quota. As newspaper men are proverbially poor, we will be satisfied with the old issue of coin; however sleek it may be worn.

One Cent Challie.

We will have a sale of nice Challie at one cent a yard right soon. We go to New York next week and when we return will sell you a nice dress for ten cents, or one cent a yard. So wait for our sale. We will have a big lot and our store is large enough for all the crowd to get in this time.

Yours truly,
D. T. SWIN DELL.

Is This Store Never Clear of Customers.

We are asked nearly every day by some one if this store is never clear of customers. Some others say, "Well, I never come in this store without finding a crowd of customers." If you see a swarm of bees you know honey is near. We know why our store is crowded each and every day, all day. We sell goods cheaper than anybody else. Read our price list:

Now, my dear friend listen. Don't waste your money, but come direct to Swindell's store. Don't buy new experience just for the sake of saying "I am sorry."

Yours truly,
D. T. SWIN DELL.
