THE MORGAN STREET EXTEN-SION.

There has been a good deal said about the extension of Morgan street, and a committee was appointed some time since, by the Board of Aldermen. with reference to it, and that com mittee has made its report, we suppose, but nothing tangible is being done. The opening out of this street is one of the necessary things to be done. One of our city merchants told us the other day, that a gentleman, a farmer who lives out in that direction, and whose way of entry into the city is by the Fair grounds and down Hillsboro street, came to town soon after the electric cars began to run out that way, had his horse frightened and came near a smash-up. That when leaving he bade good-bye to Raleigh, saying he would not come here again until some other way could be found for him to get to the market without driving by the side of the street car track. This merchant says he has not seen that far mer in the city since, and believes he has kept his word. Now, just how many others there are of the same mind among the farmers of the coun ty living in that direction, but few of us know. We do know this, that horses unaccustomed to street cars are liable to be frightened by them and made to run away, and it is reasonable to suppose that farmers living about half way between this city and Durham would consider this danger when about to send to town for dry goods, groceries or whatever else a farmer's family might need. It is true these farmers might find what they want at Durham, but we take it that our merchants want this trade Morgan street should be opened for this reason, if no other existed. It certainly will be wise in our city fathers to make all the lines of travel to and through our city as attractive as practicable for those upon whom we are dependent for trade and supplies, and this is an important line.

The New Bern Journal says: In alluding to the fact that several west ern towns were making donations for the sufferers in Russia, the Atlantic Seaside asks if the people down this way are too poor to lend a helping hand. We have alluded to the matter before and think that a contribution for the purpose ought to be procured here in some way. In the midst of our plenty we should remember those who are starving.

REPUBLICAN COVNENTION IN WEST VIRGINIA.

Special.

MARTINSRURG, W. Va., May 5 .-The influence of Secretary of War Elkins is felt here today in the willinguess of the Republican Conven tion to instruct for Harrison. There seems to be no opposition of note to the administration. The convention to nominate State officers will be held A 1g. 3.

STATE MEDICAL ASSOCIATION

Special to the VISITOR FIRT, Mich., May 5 .- The annual meeting of the State Medical Associ ation opened with a good a tendance of the leading physicians of the Sta te

WISCONSIN STATE CONVEN-TION.

Special.

MII WAUKER, May 5.- The men who boomed Secretary Rusk for the presis dency four years ago are the leading lights of the State Convention, called to order at noon today by chairman and national committeeman Henry C. Payne. The West side Turner Hall, where the convention is in progress, is filled to overflowing, and the Rusk enthusiasm is by no means dead. It is believed that the Secretary of Agriculture has expressed the desire to see the delegation instructed for Harrison, and that will probably be done. Ex Governor Hoard, Henry C. Payne and Horace Rublee are names prominently mentioned for delegatesat large.

POLITICS IF VIRG NIA.

Special to the VIS TOR.

ROANOKE, Va., May 5.—It looks as though Mahone had settled the factional fight which has been tearing up the Republican party of the State, for at the Republican State Convention, called to order here today, af fairs looked serene, and a delegation without instructions will probably represent the State at Minneapolis. It will be remembered that Virginia transferred its fight into the National Convention hall four years ago. The feeling engendered then seems to have died out. General Mahone will go as a delegate at large.

MEMORIAL MONUMENT. 2

Special to the VISITOR.

WOOSTER, Ohio, May 5 - The city is in gala attire today, the State's most prominent citizens are here, and fully 10,000 visitors are jostling each other in the streets and hotels. To day the memorial monument and fountain, raised to commemorate the deeds of Ohio soldiers is being unveiled, Gov. McKinley will deliver the address and a speech will also be made by Jacob Funk, the donor of the monument. All the State officers of the G. A. R. have positions on the platform in the public square, where the ceremonies are in progress.

REPUBLICANS OF MINNESOTA

Special.

St. Paul, May 5.-When chairman foel P Heatwole called the Republican State Convention to order at 11 o'clock this morning almost every one of the 549 del gates entitled to seats was in his place. Four delegates at large and four alternates will be chosen. Nine electors will be named. The city is crowded with Republicans from every section of the State, as the occasion has been made one for special excursion rate. The contest for delegates at large is warm as every section of Minnesota has its favorite. Senator Washburn may be named and so may Col. C. H Graves, the favorite of the northwest end of the State.

DEMOCRATS IN VERMONT.

Special.

MONTPELIER, Vt., May 5.-Chairman S. Haselton rapped the Demo crats of Vermont to order at noon and the work of selecting the State dele gation is in progress. Chairman Haselton will probably head it.

POLITIUS IN KANSAS.

Special.

HUTCHINSON, Kan., May 5.-There are queer battles in progress here to day. At noon the State Republican Convention was called to order and in addition to naming delegates at large to Minneapolis, it will nominate a candidate for Congressman at lar. e The friends of ex-Senator Ingalls have been trying to secure the nomi nation for him, but he has positively refused to even consider the matter. The leading candidate is George T. Anthony and the opposition to him, which is most bitter, is headed by his cousin D. R. Anthony, the famous brother of Susan B. Authony. Ingalls will probably be asked to head the delegation to Minneapolis.

Don't get angry at trifles. Look at vexations now as you will view them thirty days from date. The angry man, who gets the wrong key and pushes and rattles the door till he breaks the lock, loses more time than if he had quietly gone for the right key, and pays for a new lock besides.
