REMOVAL.

The Office of the EVENING VISITOR has been removed to the second story of the building corner of Fayetteville street and Exchange Place, over Mr. Hal Bobbitt's drug store. Entrance at door on Exchange Place.

CITY IN BRIEF.

Splendid season for gardens.

A considerable crowd of Raleighites are at Morehead.

Work on the exten-ion of the street railway through Brookside Park has commenced

Several of the private residences of the city are being painted and otherwise fixed up

It is said that the recent docket of the Supreme Court was the lightest in twenty five years. out.

Grend Sire C. M. Busbee is in Wil mington, in attendance on the Grand Lodge of Odd Fello vs in that city.

Be sure to attend the free lecture to be given by Rev. W. S. Creasy, at Metropolitan Hall tonight.

No cattle show in Raleigh this year, but we can have a centennial all the same, provided the hearts of our people can be enlisted in the matter.

The Mayor's office was today barren of interest so far as trials were concerned. Nothing to disturb the Baptist Tabernrcie Tonight. Mr. N. B. Broughton, who returned yesterday from attendance upon the Southern Baptist Convention in Atlanta, Ga, will give some account of the trip and of the proceedings of the body at the Baptist Tabernacle

Daily

Lodge tomorrow night at 8 o'clock sharp. Work in the first degree. Candidates for this degree will present themselves promptly at 7:15 o'clo k. A cordial invitation to all THIEM, Sec. Odd Fellows.

Meeting.

Members of Centre Lodge K. of P. are requested to meet in Castle Hall of Phalanx Lodge No. 84, this even. ing at 7:39 o'clock for the purpose of attending the lecture of Brother W. S. Creasy.

By order of the Lodge. W. W. WILLSON, K. of P. and S.

A Good Suggestion.

With his characteristic energy and disposition to please the public, our friend, Capt. B. P. Williamson, proposes to have a special show of his spleudid stock at his Fairview farm, near the city, at such time as may be decided upon. Our contemporary, the State Chronicle suggests May 17, for the occasion, as many delegates to the State Convention will be in the city. The idea is an admirable one, and we hope it may be carried

Memorial Day.

Although the inclement weather of last evening had a somewhat unfavorable effect upon the occasion, there was nevertheless a considera ble turn out. Metropolitan Hall was pretty well filled to hear the address of Hon B. H. Bunn upon the life and will mention the date of our great services of Gen. Wm. Mc kae, of Wil mington, N. C. After the exercises days. See our large assortment of in the Ball the procession moved to straw matting; also our large stock the cemetery in the order laid down of rugs in all the late and new de in the programme. Gone Wrong.

Evening

We briefly mentioned in our issue of yesterday, that an agent of the Richmond & Danville Railroad, on the Oxford and Clarksville road, had decamped with funds belonging to the company. Later intelligence reveals the fact that the name of the man is C. D. Wilkins a station agent. It seems that a considerable quantity of iron ore is shipped from the station, on which the freight is prepaid. Wilkins collected this money and went on a trip to New York where he inve-ted funds in a green goods enterprise Of course the money was lost and Wilkins, fled His whereabouts is unknown, but a force of officers are after him, and he w ll, in all probability be caught.

Rather Heavy.

It seems that the winding up of the affairs of the First National Bank, of Wiimington, will work hardship on the stockholders of the institution Comptroller Lacy has issued an order to the effect, that to pay the debts of the bank, it will be necessary to enforce the liability of the stock holders An assessment has there fore been made upon the shareholders for $250,000 to be paid on or before the 18th of June 1893, and requires from every one of them $100 upon each share of the capital stock held or owned by them at the time of the bank's tailure. These demands will be enforced by suit.

A great deal of just indignation is expressed here, over the uncalled for and shameless attack of a Durham paper upon the party of gentlemen who recently appeared in that city in the representation of a humorous performance for charatable purposes Of course, the people of Durham do not endorse any such proceedings.

Don't fail to attend the strawberry festival of the Lend a-Hand Circle of the King's Daughters tomorrow evening at the store formerly occupied by Mesers. McGee & Movely. Ice cream and other delicacies will also be served. We hope it may be liberally attended.

The VISITOR acknowledges the reception of an invitation to be pres ent at the marriage of Miss Mary Desharo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Larkin Desharo, at Glendale, Spencer, Va., on Wednesday, May 25th, to Mr. Geo. P. Pe'l. Mr. Pell is well and favorably known in Raleigh, his former home and the place of his nativity.

Hits and Howls. Whenever you throw a rock in the dark and hear a howl, you can bet a Cog has been hit. The Amateurs made some local hits at Durham There has been a howl ever since from a miserable cur called Fairbrother.

husband, several children and a large circle of relatives and friends to mourn their loss. The funeral took place this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock from Edenton street church.

In Sanford, Moore county, N. C. ou Tuesday evening, the 2rd day of May, 1892, at 4 o'clock. Mr. L. T. Brown He had been confined to his room for some time with an inflamatory disease which gradually destroyed his constitution. He was the devoted son of R. M. Brown, Esq., of Haywood, Chatham county, N. C., and was in his 33d year. He went to Sanford some years ago, and was employed by the McIver firm as salesman. He remained with that house about 8 years and retired from the mercantile business about two years ago. He was at one time very popular in commercial circles, and was considered a shrewd, capable business man. He leaves an aged father, seven sisters and four brothers, to gether with many other dear relatives and friends to mourn their loss. His remains were laid to rest by the side of his wife in Baffalo cemetery on the 4th day of May, the day after his death. Funeral services conducted by Rev. D. N. McLauchlin.
