SYNOPSIS OF THE WEATHER.

The following is the synopsis of the weather at 8 a. m. today:

FOR NORTH CAROLINA.

Showers.

RALEIGH AND VICINITY.

Occasional showers, stationary temperature till 8 p. m. Wednesday.
Local data for 24 hours ending 8 a. m. today:

Maximum temperature, 88
Minimum temperature, 61
Rainfall, 0.46

CITY IN BRIEF.

Col. Wharton J. Green is here.

Commencements now in order.

Hon. B. H. Bunn is in the city.

Who is who?—that's the question.

The new Durham graded school will cost $25,000.

Counterfeit twenty-five cent pieces are in circulation in Goldsboro.

Garden thieves have put in their appearance in the suburbs.

Attorney General Davidson has returned to the city.

The street cars are in their glory today.

The friends of Governor Holt will hold a meeting tonight.

Brick for the new opera house is being hauled to the site.

Ex-Governor Jarvis is in the city. He is looking exceedingly well.

Col. J. D. Whitford, of New Berne, is in the city.

A most delightful rainfall last night and this morning.

Splendid seasons for setting out plants.

Call at the store of Messrs. W. H. & R. S. Tucker and see the model of the cruiser Raleigh.

An excursion train is to be run soon from Raleigh to Wilmington. It will probably come off June 10th.

The political hitch will end this week, and, then let us talk up the centennial.

The Odd Fellows orphan home near Goldsboro has been opened for the reception of inmates.

The new Union Depot was the centre of attraction to many strangers today.

A considerable number of Northern gentlemen are in the city who will remain until after the convention.

Remember that you can now get six street car tickets for twenty-five cents.

The gymnasium of the Y. M. C. A. will open tonight with a dumb bell drill.

Strawberries are coming down. Three quarts for a quarter is the correct thing now.

Let the Business Men's Carnival be repeated by all means. It is too good an entertainment to stop at one rendition.

The Raleigh and Gaston Relief Society has now 150 members, has been in existence 12 years and has paid out $3,000 in aid of the sick and needy.

Drs. R. H. Lewis and A. Knox will attend the Medical convention at Wilmington. Dr. K. P. Battle left for the same place yesterday.

The Medical Society of North Carolina will meet in this city next Tuesday in the auditorium of the Young Men's Christian Association.

At the opening of the next term of the Supreme Court a fine oil portrait of the late Chief Justice Peason will be presented.

The committee of arrangements is hard at work today fixing up Stronach's Ware House for the convention tomorrow. The seats from Metropolitan Hall are being removed to the ware house.

See notice of Mr. C. A. Sherwood, administrator of the late Ex Governor W. W. Holden.

The success of Hood's Sarsaparilla is because it possesses true merit, and no claim is made for it which is not fully supported.

The Congressional Convention of the 5th, District is held in Durham today. It is thought that Biddy Williams will get the nomination.

The telegraph offices are crowded with business. The state convention is attracting attention from all sections of the country.

The Alliance wing of the Democratic party has been in session most of the day. It could not be learned what line of action had been agreed upon.

The sale of the personal effects of the late Nancy Allen, will occur at auction at the store of Messrs. Yancey & Stronach, tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock by Mr. John W. Brown, Executor.

How about the early closing movement? The weather is getting too hot to work from early morning until late at night. It will be economy in all respects, for our merchants to close up early. We hope there will be no further delay in the movement.

We most sincerely hope that the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad authorities may find it convenient, at as early a day as possible to re-instate those employees whom it was found necessary to dispense with some months since. We know of several cases of hardship in the matter.

Every thing is at sea politically here. It is of no use to speculate as to the chances of any man. Combinations of every conceivable kind are rumored. At the hotels, boarding houses, on the streets, and, at almost all street corners on our public thoroughfares the situation is being fully discussed. It will be at least mid night tomorrow night before the smoke clears away sufficiently to find out who is who. At present, the middle is beyond comprehension. "All is well that ends well we say."

The Grand Carnival.

The entertainment at Metropolitan Hall last night was a grand and most complete success. The building was crowded to its utmost capacity, there being hardly standing room. We regret that for want of space we are unable to give even an extended synopsis of the entertainment. It can be summed up in the words, lovely, splendid and most entertaining. The hits were peculiarly to the point, eliciting the greatest amusement.

Big Auction Sale.

Tonight at 8:30 o'clock, at A. G. Rhodes & Co's old stand, one door east of Citizen's Bank, I will offer for sale the entire stock of the E. D. Robinson Pub. Co., containing about 3000 books, Bibles, &c., about 500 labor and capital books, a Farmer's Alliance book by E. A. Allen. Will be sold without reserve. A big chance for bargains.

Teacher's Assembly.

Mr. Eugene Harrell, the energetic secretary of the North Carolina Teacher's Assembly has not been idle of late in looking after the next session.

The executive committee has mapped out a program, which for interest will fully come up to that of former occasions. The highest ability has been placed at the disposal of the committee from which selections for addresses, &c., can be made. Days have been already set apart for various purposes, such as popular education, classical, academic, county superintendence, English literature, modern languages, temperance and general history. An excellent program is arranged for each day. Among the humorous lectures will be Frank Beard, who writes under the cognomen of the "Chalk Artist." He gives numerous illustrations on the black board. Rev. Thomas Dixon has also been engaged as a popular lecturer. Musical entertainments will be given by the Glee club of the University of North Carolina. An inter-collegiate oratorical contest for the Assembly gold medal will be given.

In all respects it will be an occasion of rare interest.

The Democratic Convention.

This body will meet in Stronach's warehouse tomorrow, and will be called together by Mr. E. Chambers Smith, Chairman of the Democratic State Executive Committee. In order to facilitate matters, the delegates from each Congressional District will meet at 10 o'clock to-morrow morning at the following places and select:

One member of a committee on credentials; one member of a committee on permanent organization; one member of a committee on platform and resolutions; four members of the State Executive Committee.

In all cases where Conventions have not been held two delegates and two alternates to the National Convention at Chicago.

The districts meet as follows:

- 1st District—Rescue Engine house.
- 2d do Stronach's warehouse.
- 3d do do do
- 4th do Commons Hall.
- 5th do Senate Chamber.
- 6th do Mayor's office.
- 7th do Democratic Headq'rs (front)
- 8th do Democratic Headq'rs (back)
- 9th do Democratic Headq'rs (front)

Early Closing.

It is a matter of some surprise that no action has, so far, been taken by our merchants looking to an early closing of their places of business during the heated term. This is somewhat outside of the usual mode of procedure. The arguments in favor of early closing are so numerous, and have been so often presented that it would seem almost superfluous to reiterate them. The advantages to the employer, employees and citizens are alike beneficial. It must be apparent that but little custom can be gained by a merchant keeping open his store these short nights. It can hardly reimburse him for the lights burned. Of course the argument will be advanced that by keeping open, a portion of the community is accommodated, and this argument would hold good if a sudden shut down be made, but while it is generally known that the store will be closed at night, the public would soon become acquainted with the situation and govern themselves accordingly. In this way our merchants would sell equally as much and both employers and employees would have much needed rest. We hope to see the ball set in motion at once. It is a custom in most cities of the country, and wherever adopted it works well for all concerned.

We are receiving daily new goods in wash fabrics, ribbons, lawns, flowers, millinery goods, silk mitts, gloves, handkerchiefs, dress goods, &c. Our goods are marked in plain figures and sold at marked prices, and are as cheap as they can be bought anywhere in this city.

A large lot of pineapple tissues, 10c a yard, cheap at 15c.

We close our store at 7 p. m.

Our shoe and slipper stock is good and cheap.

Sing Song Sixpence.

If you have no sixpence you can't sing much song; and if you squander the sixpence the dollars will go. If you spend your sixpence at Swin Del's you will soon have dollars to spare. Last week we were in New York and bought thousands of dollars worth of real solid bargains in straw matting of the prettiest patterns you or any one else ever saw. Price little over half what they are worth. In the dress goods world we found people who were willing to unload at any price for cash, which we had and which we spent freely. A trip to Swindell's means a great deal for you.

Water coolers and refrigerators just received at Hughes'.

Do you want to know who will be the next Governor? If so, call at the Central and try a glass of Bergner & Engel's beer.

Special Sale of White Skirtings.

We began yesterday a special sale of ladies and children's white skirtings. We have put them just as one enters from Fayetteville street, and they are at lower price than they have been known in Raleigh. Those who come first will get the best. This lot of skirtings cannot last long. They are so cheap everybody will want one.
