CITY IN BRIEF.

Cherries getting plentiful.
Read the advertisement of Mr. E. V. Denton in this issue.
The colored excursionists left this morning for Louisburg. There was a considerable crowd.
The internal revenue receipts for Durham for the past week were $13,873.77.
The Durham Mattress Company is doing a splendid business.
Let us have early closing of the stores. It is getting time. What say our merchants?
Umbrellas, overshoes, overcoats and fires were in demand yesterday. It was a day, in the weather line, long to be remembered.
Regular meeting of Wm. G. Hill Lodge, No. 28 A. F. & A. M., tonight at 8 o'clock. Work in second degree. Visiting brethren cordially invited.
After the Grip Hood's Sarsaparilla will restore your strength and health, and expel every trace of poison from the blood.
Gen. Meade Post, G. A. R., is making preparations for decoration day, at the National Cemetery, May 30th. Notice will be given of programme later.
Messrs. Morson & Denson, of the Raleigh Male Academy, have been invited by President Winston, of the University to take their school up to Chapel Hill, June 1st, to hear Senator Carlisle's address.
Mr. Wm. A. McClellan, the retiring Superintendent of motive power of the Raleigh Street Car Company, was the recipient of a fine watch on Saturday evening, presented to him by the employees of the company, as a memento of their appreciation of his kindness and gentlemanly treatment.
Mr. Mack leaves today for Baltimore.
Manteo Lodge, No. 8, meets in regular session tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock for work in the initiatory degree. There is also other important business, demanding the attention of every member. The badges have arrived and will be delivered. Come.
GEO. L. TONOFFSKI, S. C.
In our rounds this morning we dropped in at the station house, and found it as neat as a new pin under the careful superintendance of our friend, Mr. Miles Goodwin, who seems to be the "right man in the right place."
Attention is directed to the advertisement of Mr. G. U. McDonald who is offering the choicest variety of tomato and cabbage plants at the most reasonable prices. Mr. McDonald has gained a wide reputation for his skill in the way of furnishing early plantings and he can always be relied upon as offering the best. Gardeners and truck farmers generally will find it much to their interest to either correspond with or give him a call. He can suit them.
Now Open.
The box sheet for a front seat at Swindell's big sale tomorrow is now open.

Where Is He?

Our readers will no doubt remember the case of Robert L. Porter, the Irishman who was arrested about four years since and kept in jail in this city for awhile on the suspicion that he was Scott Partin, who murdered his wife and child in the southern part of this county many years since. The arrest of Porter caused tremendous excitement here for awhile, as there were several persons who seemed willing to declare most positively that Porter and Partin were one and the same person. After a full investigation, Porter was discharged, it appearing that he was an Irishman and had connections in that country of high standing. After his discharge Porter remained for awhile at the house of a friend in Raleigh, but left for the supposed intention of returning to Ireland. For a year or so back nothing has been heard from him, and the case had been dismissed from the public mind. It seems, however, that his whereabouts is still unknown, if indeed he is living.

Maj. C. D. Heartt, our Chief of Police, has just received the following letter:

KINGSLEY FALLS, PROVINCE OF QUEBEC, Canada, May 16, '92.
DEAR SIR:—Have you heard anything of my brother, Robert L. Porter's whereabouts, since last I heard from you? Could you kindly inform me what the services of a detective would cost to trace him, as I fancy he must be in the United States if living. It is very odd that his relatives don't hear about him, and have not for a very long period. I shall be much obliged if you can give me the information about the detective office. I beg to remain yours truly,
W. F. LEKSON PORTER.

D. T. SWINDELL.

Mayor's Court.

There was an unusual large attendance at the Mayor's court this morning and the Monday morning levee fully sustained its proverbial interest.

An unsophisticated youth from the rural districts came to town last Saturday, and indulged a little too much in the ardent. He was taken in charge and escorted to lodgings in the station house. It was the first experience of the young man and His Honor dismissed him with the usual reminder. He left with a broad smile of satisfaction.

W. H. Randolph and Ed Atkins were arraigned for an affray. The parties are colored and the difficulty took place in Randolph's house in a locality called "Hood's Alley," near East Cabarrus street. Ed. knocked Randolph off a table with a stick, after which they had a rough and tumble fight. It took place Saturday night about 9 o'clock. It was shown that Atkins had a razor in his hand. Randolph ordered him out and Atkins threatened to cut him. Atkins was drunk. Randolph fined $5 and costs. Atkins discharged.

A. F. Lowery, for assault on his wife last Saturday night was taken up. Lowery came home drunk. His wife took a bottle of whisky from him. He tried to find it, but failed. He then beat his wife over the head with his fist and tore her clothing. He also attempted to whip his little child. He has frequently beat her. He was let off light with $8 and cost. Several trivial cases were disposed of.
