CITY IN BRIEF.

A little warmer.
The new awning has been placed in front of the market house.
Peace Institute commencement next week.
The monument to the memory of G. A. P. Hill will be unveiled near Richmond, Va., May 30th inst.
The great reason for the success of Hood's Sarsaparilla is found in its positive merit. It cures where other preparations fail.
The many friends of Governor Holt will be pleased to learn that he has recovered from his recent indisposition and is in attendance daily at the Executive office.
We deeply regret to learn that Rev. J. P. Barrett, former editor of the Christian Sun in this city, is seriously ill at the home of his father in Virginia.
We are requested by Mr. A. Dughi to state that he has a number of freezers out and would kindly request those having them in possession to advise him so that he can send for them.
A musicale will be given on Wednesday evening, May 25th, at the residence of Mr. C. B. Wright the contributions to be devoted to the improvement of Christ church rectory.
Attention is directed to the advertisement of Messrs. James McKimmon & Co., who have for sale the celebrated pure Panacea water the curative powers of which have become most celebrated throughout the country.
The rush at Swindell's today reminded us of Barnum's circus. It was a great rush, but the energetic proprietor and gentlemanly clerks "got there all the same." It was a great time for all wanting bargains.
Under circular order No. 87-A, issued by Capt. Wm. Smith, Superintendent of the Raleigh Division of the Seaboard Air Line, trains Nos. 38 and 41, of the Raleigh and Gaston and Raleigh and Augusta Air Line Railroad will run daily. Nos. 34 and 45 trains of the Raleigh and Gaston railroad will run daily except Sunday.

We invite the attention of our readers to the advertisement of Messrs. Thomas & Maxwell furniture dealers Exchange Place who announce a splendid selection of all kinds of goods in their line, which they are offering to the public at prices that cannot fail to please. These gentlemen are well worthy of the patronage of the public in all particulars. Energetic and accommodating, they cannot fail to please all who deal with them. Call and examine their splendid stock. See for yourselves. The advertisement can only give but a small sample of the pretty articles they have on sale. You will find them all right.

Retail Grocers Association.
Each member of this association is urgently requested to meet at their rooms, Wednesday afternoon, May 25. Business of importance will be brought before the meeting.

Died.
At 12:30 o'clock this morning, of dysentery, Mary, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Richardson, aged 12 months. The remains were taken to Franklin county this afternoon for burial. We deeply sympathize with the afflicted parents.

Manteo Lodge, No. 8.
Owing to the death of our brother, C. H. Lewellyn, the initiatory degree will not be conferred until next regular meeting, May 31. The members of the Lodge are hereby requested to meet at their Lodge room tonight at 8 o'clock for the purpose of making suitable arrangements to attend the funeral tomorrow afternoon at four o'clock.
By order Noble Grand,
GEO. L. TONNOFFSKI, B. S.

Preparing to Receive Them.
We are informed that citizens of Winston have appointed a committee of preparation and reception for the excursion of the Baptist Tabernacle Sunday School next Tuesday, and that everything will be done that is needful to give our people all the enjoyment possible. No place in North Carolina affords more attraction to the visitor than Winston-Salem. It is worth a trip there to see the great Ziebold Hotel and its beautiful grounds. But that is only one of so many things to see. The price of round trip ticket is $3 and it is hardly probably that any other such opportunity for a day of pleasure will be offered this year.

Personal Mention.
Miss Jennie Brown and Mrs. Mary Redford and little daughter left yesterday afternoon for Haywood to spend a few days with relatives.
We most deeply regret to state that our highly esteemed young friend Mr. John W. Jenkins, telegraph editor of the Chronicle, was taken sick with heart trouble last Sunday night, compelling him to suspend work temporarily. He has gone to his father's home at Ridgeway for a short rest, and we hope he will be much benefited by the change.
Maj. R. S. Tucker has gone to Pitt county on business.
Gen. R. F. Hoke has gone to Baltimore on railroad business.
Mrs. John A. McDonald is in the city visiting her son, Mr. C. C. McDonald.
Mr. and Mrs. K. P. Battle are in the city.

Berry Pickers.
This beautiful cantata will be presented in Metropolitan Hall next week for the benefit of St. John's Hospital. It will be given by the scholars of Prof. Allmon's dancing class and other young people of Raleigh. The plot is beautiful and the music superb and catchy. The cantata will be interspersed with fancy dances by Gypsy flower girls and beautiful tableaux. The music is in charge of Prof. Paul and the dancing Prof. Allmon. Several of the leading ladies of the city have kindly consented to act as chaperones and general managers which together with the training the participants will receive of the Professors assures the success of the cantata. The scenery and costumes will be magnificent. It will be one of the finest entertainments ever given in Raleigh. Rehearsals are in full progress and never before was so much interest and enthusiasm shown as in this cantata by the participants. The date of performance together with the price of admission will be given later on. It.

Second hand Bicycle for sale cheap. Call at Telephone Exchange.

For Sale.
A fine 4 size—4 stringed, Double Bass Violin, &c. W. J. Brown, may 18 1m 108 Edenton Street.

W. B. Mann & Co received new mullets today, the best thing you can have for breakfast.

Death of Officer C. H. Lewellyn.
Charles Harrison Lewellyn died at his home, corner of Person and Lenoir streets, at 4:30 o'clock this morning.

He was taken down with a grippe during last fall, which gradually wasted his strength, consumption set in and the end came.
He was born in Clarksville, Va., August, 1833, came to this city in his young manhood, where as caterer at the Yarburo House he made a large circle of friends throughout the State. Afterward he was elected a member of the city police force, and for the past eleven years has been recognized as one of its most efficient officers.
Mr. Lewellyn was Past Grand of Manteo Lodge, No. 8 of Odd Fellows of this city, and it is safe to say that no member of that Lodge served it more faithfully than he since first he became a member.

He was a member of the Baptist Tabernacle Church and in his last hours gave the strongest assurances of a well grounded hope in Christ. In his church he was much beloved and in its work he rendered noble service.
He leaves a wife and three children, to whom he was most fondly attached. His father, three sisters and two brothers live in other portions of the State. His wife was Miss Ida Edwards, sister of C. B. Edwards, Esq., of this city.

We speak for our whole people in mourning the death of "Harry Lewellyn." He was popular and beloved by all because he was the friend of all. On duty he knew no fear; in friendship he never wearied in constant service.
May the oil of Divine consolation be poured into the wounded hearts.
The funeral will take place from the Tabernacle Baptist Church tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Early Closing.
The undersigned merchants have agreed to close their places of business at 7 o'clock p. m., commencing June 1st, 1892, and terminating Aug 31st, 1892, (Saturdays excepted):
Rosenthal Clothing Co.,
Whiting Bros.,
S. & D. Berwanger,
I. Rosenthal,
Miss Maggie Reese,
W. H. & R. S. Tucker & Co.,
Mrs. Besson,
Heller Bros.,
Cross & Linehan,
Norris' Dry Goods Store,
O. H. Anderson,
Miss Julia Woodward,
H. H. Crocker,
H. A. Littman & Co.,
Woolcott & Sons.

The above list constitutes nearly all the dry goods, clothing, millinery establishments, etc., and we most sincerely hope that the arrangement may be made unanimous. It is due to our young men and ladies employed in these places of business that they should have a much needed respite during the summer months. Many of them desire to spend evenings at the Young Men's Christian Association and it is eminently proper that they should have a chance to do so. Let the movement include all. There can nothing be lost by it.

Public Speaking.
Ex Gov. John P. St. John, of Kansas, one of the grandest orators of this country, will address the people of Raleigh and vicinity Thursday evening, May 26, 1892, at 8 o'clock, in City Hall, on the issues of the day. By the way, he is the only speaker that has a National reputation or has had the honor of being placed at the head of the National ticket for President that has spoke in this city for thirty odd years. Every one should avail themselves of this opportunity and hear so honored a man. Ladies especially should attend. A chance of a life time for all to hear.
