CITY IN BRIEF.

The union dead.
Federal memorial day.
National holiday today.
Splendid season for gardens.
The true soldier bears no malice.
Commencements are now in order throughout the State.
Only a few unimportant cases before the mayor at his levee today.
Mr. Thos. R. Parnell has returned to the city from a visit to Winston.
Commencement exercises at Peace Institute tonight. It will doubtless be an interesting occasion.
Centre Lodge, No. 3, K. of P., will meet tonight. Full attendance desired. Visiting brethren invited.
Mr. Willie Vass, a graduate of Morrison and Denson's school is to deliver the valedictory at Wake Forest this year.

Now is the time to take a good tonic medicine. Hood's Sarsaparilla possesses the greatest merit, and it is a popular favorite.

Miss Sallie Bushall, of Washington, is in the city stopping with Mrs. John Simpson, on Jones street.

The outlook for a large attendance at Morehead the present season is unusually good, and great preparations are making for their reception.

Miss Catherine Fuller, daughter of Chief Justice Fuller of the United States Supreme Court, is visiting the family of Maj. R. S. Tucker.

Next Tuesday there will be interesting closing exercises at Raleigh Female Academy. Rev. Dr. G. W. Sanderlin will deliver the annual address.

Col. J. S. Carr will deliver the annual address before the State Tobacco Association which meets at Morehead City, July 15th.

Are there any efforts being made to get an extension of the Norfolk and Western Railroad to this city? It would be a grand scheme in the interest of Raleigh and well worth looking after.

A slight change in the schedule of the Atlanta train took place yesterday. It leaves here now at 4:15 in stead of 4:10.

Be sure and be on hand in time for the excursion to Winston. The train leaves at 6:30 o'clock tomorrow morning, but it is important that scholars, teachers, ect. should be at the church at 6 o'clock sharp. Don't get left. It is going to be a most enjoyable time.

Don't forget the "Strawberry Tea" of the "Whatsoever Circle" of King's Daughters at the residence of Mrs. Wm. Ruffin Tucker tomorrow night from 7 to 10 o'clock. Contributions for the poor.

Suits by several parties, in claim and delivery, were instituted last Saturday afternoon against Messrs. Littman & Co., who recently made an assignment. One of the parties only found property which could be recovered. The case promises to be one of some considerable interest.

Clarkeville, Va., is one of the finest places for fishing you ever saw. There are also two fine springs lithia water near the depot. All who go with the Edenton Street M. E. Sunday school, June 8th, on their picnic are assured a good time. See hand bills.

The Edenton Street Methodist Sunday school are making arrangements to make their excursion to Clarkeville, Va., June 8th, the best they ever had. They will be on the road only three hours and fifteen minutes each way.

Marriage Licenses.

Some little sensation has been produced here on account of the recent marriage of Rev. A. A. Butler a Baptist preacher at Durham, to Miss Annie Christian of that city. The license was procured in this city, it being refused in Durham. Of course, it is known to most of our readers that the Register of Deeds is required to issue such licenses to persons of lawful age, &c. As to this requirement of law, the Register of Deeds cannot of his own knowledge be presumed to know. In this case, it seems that Rev. Mr. Butler signed the oath stating that the young lady was 17 years of age. On this, the license was issued. The onus therefore rests upon Mr. Butler, if any wrong has been perpetrated. The Code provides that it is the duty of the Register of Deeds to issue license, provided it shall appear to him probable that there is no impediment to such marriage. In this case, no such impediment was probable, unless misrepresentation was made by Mr. Butler. The license was issued on the 26th inst. Our Register of Deeds is in no manner responsible if it should turn out that the young lady is not of the proper age.

The Berry Pickers.

This beautiful operetta will be presented at Metropolitan Hall next Friday night, June 3d, for the benefit of St John's Hospital.

The story of the "Berry Pickers" runs as follows:

A company of young people, while picking berries, meet two girls whose home is saddened by sickness and the supposed loss of their father at sea. Interesting their friends in behalf of the unfortunate family, the young people are enabled to place them in a more comfortable home and in more favorable circumstances, when to the surprise of every one, the father returns. A garden party, which was at first planned by the young people for a welcome to their new friends, is made more joyous and memorable by the presence of the unexpected guest.

Everybody then goes in a body to the Gypsy camp to have their fortunes told, after which they all go to the Flower Queen, who holds a grand reception. There are some very fine choruses, solos, duets and dialogues, and fancy dances will be introduced in the Gypsy camp and in the Flower Queen's garden and in the picnic scene by Prof. Allmon's pupils. The scenery will be fine and the costumes beautiful. The chorus consisting of thirty five voices and the principal characters represents some of the prettiest young girls ever seen on our stage. The tickets will be for sale next Tuesday at Alfred Williams & Co.'s bookstore. General admission 50 cents, gallery 25 cents. No extra charge for reserved seats.

A Change.

It is to be deeply regretted that the Hon J. G. Carlisle has been compelled on account of sickness to abandon his engagement to deliver an address at Chapel Hill commencement. With this exception, the regular program as laid down will be carried out.

Millinery Goods, Oh, how Lovely

Any one who has unsightly millinery goods has unsalable millinery goods. Each day we have new evidence that our millinery stock is what it should be because ladies of rare taste tell us in plain English that we keep the most beautiful millinery goods in Raleigh and sell it lower in price than any one ever sold millinery goods in Raleigh, and they prove this by buying of us and advising their friends to go to Swindell's for their hats if they want a real pretty hat and same time save about half the price.
D. T. SWINDELL.

A NOBLE GIFT

For a Noble Purpose—Who Will Do Likewise?

Through the kindness of Mr. B. H. Woodell, the very efficient and zealous secretary of the Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows of North Carolina, we are enabled to lay before our readers the particulars of a most creditable and generous bestowal in furtherance of the objects and aims of the noble order of Odd Fellows. Actuated by a spirit of benevolence, dictated by a wise and just philanthropy, Ernest Boissiere de Boissiere, a Frenchman of wealth, but an honored citizen of Silkville, Franklin county, Kansas, determined to bestow upon some worthy object in the country of his adoption a large sum of money for worthy purposes. Mr. De Boissiere is not an Odd Fellow, but an investigation was sufficient to convince him the noble order was in each and all respects most worthy of the bestowal of whatever aid was prompted by his generous heart. Acting upon this, he gave the munificent donation of $125,000 for the purpose of endowing an institution for the care and manual training of the orphans of Odd Fellows of the State of Kansas, under the name and style of "The Boissiere Odd Fellows Orphan's Home and Industrial School Association of Kansas."

This noble gift has been placed in charge as custodian and manager of the Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows of the State of Kansas. It consists of money, lands, tenements and personal property, and the institution has therefore been incorporated. In their due appreciation of the generous gift, the Grand Lodge of Kansas have passed suitable resolutions of reception and thanks. The reception was given to Mr. De Boissiere at the auditorium in the city of Ottawa on the evening of May 15th, 1892, a cordial invitation to which for himself and lady was received by Mr. Woodell.

In noting the bestowal of this munificent donation in a sister State by a foreign gentleman to an order, of which he was not a member, but actuated by motives of the broadest philanthropy, we cannot refrain from an expression of hope that it may lead to spur up the friends of the order in North Carolina to a similar course of action. It, of course, is known to most of our readers and to the public at large, that the order of Odd Fellows in North Carolina has very recently opened an orphan's home at Goldsboro, which since the 9th of the present month has been in operation for the purposes indicated. That this noble charity needs the fostering care of all charitably disposed persons of whatever creed, should go without saying. We can point with just pride to the action of Mr. De Boissiere, and express the sincere hope that in the Old North State he may find a prototype in the great cause of humanity. There is ample room for the bestowal of aid, and in no better direction can it be given than to alleviate the wants and render comfortable the helpless orphans. Mr. De Boissiere has the thanks of the good and true everywhere. Let those of our grand old State whom God has blessed with abundance open their hearts to "go and do likewise."

Special Sale Next Week.

Next Tuesday, June 7th, we will have something entirely new on special sale for one day only. You will all appreciate this, though it looks unreasonable.
