CITY IN BRIEF.

The car shed at the new depot is about ready, including painting.

We are fast approaching the longest day in the year.

Several of our citizens, as "lookers on in Vienna," will go to Minneapolis next week.

Politics will soon be boiling hot in our midst. Very little else is now talked of.

Cotton receipts very light and there is no decided improvement in the market.

Work on the extension of the street car line to Brookside Park will soon be completed.

The Methodist local preacher's conference will meet here July 20th to 24th.

Annual concert and presentation of medals at Peace Institute this evening.

The "Cyclone Club" will visit Peace Institute this evening on the invitation of the young ladies. A good time is expected.

A ball room of considerable dimensions is to be placed in Brookside Park for those desiring such recreation.

Dr Thos. D Hogg left yesterday afternoon for St. Louis where he goes as one of the delegates from North Carolina to the Nicaragua Canal Convention.

It is in contemplation to put down heavier rails on the Hargett street railway line at an early day. The present rails are too light for the cars.

The Governor has ordered a special term of the Superior Court of Rutherford county for the trial of civil cases to begin July 25th with Hoke presiding.

Go to the "Strawberry Festival" of the "Whatsoever Club" of the King's Daughters, at the residence of Mrs Wm. R. Tucker this evening from 7 to 10 o'clock.

One of the most convenient and useful arrangements for the season is the electric fan, and numbers are being placed in different places under the direction of Manager Huff of the electric railway. We hope their use may become general.

Some persons or persons, not having the fear of the law, are in the habit of taking our morning papers from the foot of the stairs leading to our office. To all such we give words of caution, as they will be dealt with if caught.

There seems to be an impression in some quarters that the "shoo-fly" train on the Raleigh and Gaston train has been taken off. This is not so. It runs regularly every day, Sundays excepted, and leaves here at 5 p. m.

The commencement exercises of the Davis school at Winston will take place June 7th. The annual address will be delivered by Hon R A Doughton, the Democratic nominee for Lieutenant Governor.

A series of bicycle races are on foot for July 4th in Greensboro in which any wheelman in the State can participate. We hope our Raleigh champions may be on hand and represent the Oak City in becoming style.

Politicians are looking with much interest to the proposed meeting of third party delegates in this city soon.

The station house matter seems to be at a stand still. It is a much needed improvement and the year should not pass without a new one.

Our market keeps well supplied with all the vegetables in season and prices are fast getting down to the level of the ordinary pocket book.

Hood's Sarsaparilla absolutely cures where other preparations fail. It possesses medicinal merit peculiar to itself.

The Board of Aldermen are willing. The Agricultural Society say they are willing. Where then is the hitch in the way of a proper celebration of Raleigh's centennial?

Dr Jas. Stuart, one of the foremost and most distinguished physicians of the Piedmont section of North Carolina, died last Friday in Concord, aged 75 years.

The health of the city during the past month has been good for the season of the year. We hope to be able to lay the report in full before our readers in a day or so.

One of the charges against Mr. Littman by New York creditors, is to the effect that he represented himself to be worth $15,000, when in fact, he could not command that sum.

During the vacation, the grounds and buildings at Wake Forest College will be put in a much improved condition. It is a source of gratification to know, that this time honored Institution is now well endowed, with a fine prospect for the future.

The trial of D A McDougald, at Fayetteville, for the murder of his nephew Simon Conolly, has been gotten out in book form, and is now ready for delivery. The price is $1. Address Whitehead and McMullen, Fayetteville.

Late Saturday night a most enthusiastic meeting of the citizens of the city of Greensboro was held in the court house for the purpose of completing plans for the celebration of the 4th of July. Stirring speeches were made by Judge Schenek and other prominent citizens. Committees were appointed to solicit contributions, and the outlook for a grand celebration is good.

The attendance at Chapel Hill is said to be as large as at any commencement for many years past including gentlemen and ladies from various states of the union. One of the distinguished visitors is Hon Harris Taylor, author of the constitutional history of England and the United States. The baccalaureate sermon preached by Rev Dr. J. W. Carter last Sunday, was attended by a very large crowd. Many from Raleigh were present, among them a large number of young ladies.

Union Decoration Day.

Although there was only an informal celebration of the National Decoration Day yesterday, the services were of the most impressive character, under the direction of Gen. Meade Post, No. 89, of which our esteemed friend and fellow citizen, Mr. C. H. Baine is commander. It is a pleasure to note that there were representatives present from the Confederate Veterans at the Soldier's Home, and also many ladies. This is just as it should be. There is no malice on the part of the surviving soldiers of the Confederacy and those who fought for the Union. So far as they are concerned all is forgiven and this feeling should actuate all in our common country. The services were opened by Rev. Dr. Hunter, of St. Augustine Normal School. A national hymn was rendered and Rev. I. McK. Pittinger, of the Church of the Good Shepherd delivered a brief address. His theme was that sublime sentence; with malice toward none, and charity for all; let us have peace." The decoration of the graves closed the exercises.

Excursion.

The Sunday school of Edenton Street Methodist church has selected Clarksville, Va., and next Wednesday as the time for their annual excursion and picnic. It will be a delightful time no doubt, as Clarksville is a pretty place situated on the Roanoke river in a pleasant section of the Old Dominion. The fare is only $1.50 and all who go will have a most enjoyable occasion.

The Soldiers' Home.

We most sincerely hope that those of our people possessed of means will aid to such an extent as they may feel justified in giving towards the improvement of the buildings and surroundings at the Soldiers' Home. It is a most worthy object and one that should appeal to the State pride of all. We presume that Mr. W. C. Stronach will gladly welcome such contributions as may be forwarded to him. There are many improvements needed to make the old veterans comfortable and surely they deserve it.

We were shown today, a Blaine badge in the shape of an ivory button, arranged to put on the coat with the inscriptions above and below "Reciprocity, Protection." In the centre of the button is the word "Blaine." It was sent to one of the delegates from North Carolina to the Minneapolis Convention evidently for the purpose of bolstering up the Blaine boom. The recipient, however, is an uncompromising Harrison man.

The Sunday School excursion of the Baptist Tabernacle church left for Winston this morning at 6:30 o'clock sharp. There were ten regular coaches besides a car fixed up for the purpose—all loaded to their utmost capacity. There were two locomotives.

All the weather prophets now predict warm weather in the near future. It is needed, especially for the growing crops.

We sell remnants at half price on Mondays. WOOLLCOTT & SONS.

A Soft Spot.

The great volume of millinery goods which we have handled this spring, and the many kind remarks of encouragement which we have heard convince us we have found a soft spot in the hearts of the people. We have been for years looking for this soft spot. Then why shouldn't we? The people know and appreciate merit. We are up to the times in millinery goods, in style, in quality, and in price we are far under any one else, and if all this would not draw the trade, nothing would. Our millinery trade in May was just twice what it was last May. You are benefitted. So are we.

Yours truly,
D. T. SWINDELL.
