CITY IN BRIEF.

Blackberries getting ripe.
The soda and mineral water business has been immense today.
The summer solstice is approaching.
There are rumors of considerable extensions of the street railway.
We will sadly miss the young ladies during vacation.
Judge Bond will not be here at the present term of the court.
Mr. J. L. Ellington was chosen today as foreman of the grand jury in the Federal court.
The trains will be crowded all this week with young ladies returning home from school.
The June term of Durham court is in session with Judge Whitaker presiding.
The new board of County Commissioners will not go into office until the first Monday in December next.
Work is progressing today on the Hargett street line of street railway leveling the road.
Can't we have music on the capitol square these delightful nights? It would be much enjoyed.
The first Baptist Sunday School will not have an excursion, as we learn.
Politicians must be patient. No ballot can be expected at Minneapolis before tomorrow.
The merit of Hood's Sarsaparilla is not accidental but is the result of careful study and experiment by educated pharmacists.
In order to make more room in his establishment, Mr. Dughi will sell hereafter Junaluska wine for $1 per gallon.
Work on the foundation of the new opera house was commenced yesterday. Now let it be rapidly pushed so that by next fall we can have such a building as will do credit to the city.
Several prominent Republicans from this and other sections of the State were in council here yesterday. The general idea was to put out no State ticket but to use all efforts to carry the electoral vote.
Mr. J. A. Holloman, of the Kernersville News has accepted the position of city editor of the State Chronicle of this city. We welcome him to the editorial fraternity of the capital.
Mr. Elmer J. Dowell, who was for some time in the employ of the EVENING VISITOR, has accepted a position in Johnson's drug store, corner of Fayetteville street and Park avenue, opposite the post office, where he will be pleased to see his friends. "Elmer" is a young man of merit, polite, accommodating and of business qualifications. We wish him much success.
Col Fred A. Olds, who for some time, so admirably discharged the duties of city editor of the State Chronicle, has retired from that position. Col. Olds is well known as one of the most accomplished newspaper men in the South. We wish him the greatest measure of success in all that he undertakes.

Go to the court house and list your taxes.

Let the Fourth of July Committee hustle up. There is no time to lose.

The law school at the University for the summer session will open July 1st.

Federal Court was formally opened today by Judge Seymour. There are several important cases on docket.

Don't eat cucumbers and drink milk. Don't forget this, unless you are ready for your friends to make a bill with the undertaker.

A first class excursion to Wilmington will be announced soon. It will be one of the best conducted yet gotten up.

The crowded condition of the street cars will soon necessitate a fifteen minutes schedule. This will be better all around.

Great interest is exhibited here today in the Republican Convention at Minneapolis and bulletins are eagerly looked for.

Don't fail to be on hand at the depot in time for the picnic train to Clarksville tomorrow morning. Remember the train leaves at 7:10 sharp.

Would it not be better for all our business men to join in the early closing movement. The weather is too hot for work from early morning until late at night.

The excursion to Norfolk will come off this year about the middle of July. The management will be under W. L. Freeland and L. Christian. It will be arranged so that the excursionists can visit Washington City.

Superintendent Huff of the electric street railway, seems to never tire in catering to the public wishes. A contract has been made for the erection of a pavilion in Brookside Park. This, with the electric lights, will make the park one of the most attractive places in the State.

The forty fourth annual convocation of the Grand Royal Arch Chapter of North Carolina will convene tonight in Winston. There are twenty one chapters of Royal Arch Masons in North Carolina. The total membership at the last annual convocation was 685.

Arrangements have been made with the proprietor of the Buffalo Lithia Springs to have a hack at Clarksville next Wednesday to carry over and return for a small price, any who wish to spend the day at the Springs. Remember the date, June 8th. The train will leave Union depot at 7:00 a. m. sharp.

The Durham Sun takes us to task about a little twitting we issued forth about the buildings in Durham. We meant no harm, neighbor but we only wanted to draw you out. We are satisfied with the list you furnish and wish you God speed in your efforts to build up your energetic town. You ought to have a government building though. You deserve it.

Base Ball.

The match game of base ball yesterday afternoon between Columbia, S. C. and Winston, was attended by a considerable crowd. The score was 6 to 5 in favor of Columbia.

Raleigh Male Academy.

We regret very much that our limited space did not allow us to give an extensive account of the closing exercises of this most excellent school as we desired. It is sufficient, perhaps, to note that there is not in North Carolina or, indeed, in the Southern States, a primary school of more real merit or which has attained a higher standard of excellence. Since Messrs. Morson and Denson entered on their career here the institution has been on a steady plane of improvement, both in the high order of its studies and in the increased attendance. It is the best stepping stone to our State University and other colleges, furnishing to them each year a large number of scholars. It is in all respects an institution in which all our people should take a great pride.

Convention Flashes.

We give below the bulletins received from the Minneapolis convention from the time it was called to order at 12 o'clock (Minneapolis time) up to our hour of going to press, the difference in time between Raleigh and Minneapolis being about two hours.

It is reported that Mr. Harrison has wired to Minneapolis that if he is not nominated on the first ballot he desires his name to be withdrawn.

12 42 P. M.

Fasset chosen temporary chairman by acclamation. Great cheering. He was not opposed by Harrison men. In taking the chair he announced Harrison and Blaine as the two great leaders of the Republican party.

1:18 P. M.

Reed just entered. Loud applause.

1:23 P. M.

Temporary organization effected. Committees now being appointed. McKinley loudly applauded.

There is much complaint by persons residing in the northern suburbs about cows from the city running at large. Surely it should be known that the no fence law is in force, and persons should keep their stock up.

The best of order will be preserved in Brookside Park. Ladies and children can visit the place at all times, with the full assurance of having a pleasant time. Dr. Smith, the keeper, will see to it that they will receive the finest attention.

We offer today 1,500 lbs of Cassard's best lard, in 20 lb buckets, 20 lbs net. The best way to buy lard in summer.
