CITY IN BRIEF.

Annual concert at St. Mary's tonight.

The Minneapolis convention is still all the topic of conversation.

And now the question is: who will fill Blaine's place in the cabinet?

Go to the city clerk's office and list your taxes. There is a penalty for failure.

The grand jury of the Federal court will probably be discharged in a day or so.

A man in Ashboro has a land grant to a member of his family from George Third.

The Durham party that sailed lately for Europe have arrived safely at Hamburg.

Several criminal cases in the Federal court have been postponed until next term.

Green apples are putting in their appearance, and the small boys will soon writh in pain.

Mr. Greek O. Andrews, of the News and Observer, has gone to Trinity College commencement.

The officials of the penitentiary report the health of the prison as unusually good for this time.

When a so-called statesman gets up to air his views, it is not known how the public will view his airs.

A large crowd went to Clarksville, Va., today on the excursion of the Edenton Street M. E. Sunday school.

The Grand Lodge, K. of P., will meet at Wilmington, June 15th. There will be a numerous attendance from this city.

The game of baseball yesterday afternoon was won by the Winston team on a score of 7 to 2. A fine crowd was present.

Every testimonial regarding Hood's Sarsaparilla is an honest, unpurchased statement of what this medicine has actually done.

Our suggestion for music in the capitol square meets with general approval. We should have it by all means.

The Victor Fire Company (colored) paraded this afternoon with their two horse reel. There was a good crowd.

The train for Wake Forest commencement will leave tomorrow morning at 9:45, returning at 12 o'clock midnight. Fare for the round trip 85 cents.

The condition of Col. L. L. Polk still remains quite critical. His son in law, Mr. Denmark, left yesterday evening for Washington City to attend his bedside.

Another anxious night for politicians. No ballot before Friday will keep alive the highest expectations. No doubt much money will change hands between now and the nomination.

Col. E. D. Hall has recently been in Raleigh looking after matters concerning the coming encampment of the ex-Confederates at Wrightsville. Gov. Holt assured him that he would do all in his power to furnish equipage and otherwise promote the interests of the encampment. They will use the same tents and outfits as the state guard.

A Rare Case.
We had a short but pleasant interview this morning with our old friend Mr. D. H. Gardner, of New Hill, who is postmaster at that place. In many respects, Mr. Gardner has had a wonderful experience. He was born on the 26th of December, 1816, and consequently will be 76 years old this year. To look at him he would easily pass for 60. Mr. Gardner says he has never been confined to his bed with anything like serious sickness. He rarely has had occasion to consult a doctor, and says when he did so he exercised his own judgment about taking the prescription. He has never been addicted to drinking liquor, but says that when he feels bad and thinks a drink would help him he takes it. He never was drunk in his life, but says he remembers on one occasion to have slept in a room with seven barrels of liquor surrounding him but did not touch a drop. Mr Gardner is here on jury duty in the Federal court, and while he thinks his age ought to debar him from public duty, yet when called upon he does not consider it his duty to shirk. He is indeed a remarkable man, and judging from appearances he is good for many years to come.

Home Patronage.
The many improvements made at Morehead City since the last year, show that everything will be in readiness for a very large crowd the present season. This is just as it should be. We want our people to spend as much of their spare money as possible within the State. There is no actual necessity for going to other parts of the union when we have in North Carolina as pleasant and as healthful resorts as can be found in any part of the world. It is bad policy, and surely it does not come fully up to our ideas of our duty in the premises. Morehead City in the East and the many watering places in the mountains should be sufficiently attractive to entice all our people. Spend our money at home as far as practicable. We need it here.

The Right Step.
The energetic secretary and treasurer of the North Carolina Agricultural Society, Mr. H. W. Ayer, has completed arrangements for a board of lady directors for the coming State fair. This is a step in the right direction and must add much to the efficiency of the exhibition. The board will be composed of fifty ladies and there will be a premium of $50 in gold given to the best display made on the occasion and $20 to the second best.

I. O. O. F.
Regular meeting of Seaton Gales Lodge, No. 64, I. O. O. F., tomorrow night at 8 o'clock, sharp. Work in the 1st degree, and other matters of importance will be brought before the lodge which requires the attention of every member. The degree staff especially will not fail to be on hand. A cordial invitation to Manteo Lodge No. 8, and visiting brethren.

THIRM Sec.
Mr. Harris, as chairman of Wake county Republican committee, calls for a ratification meeting at the court house at 8 p. m. on the day news is received of the nomination at Minneapolis.

We learn that the health of Senator Vance is steadily improving which is good news indeed to his vast number of friends in North Carolina.

The resignation of Dr. T. H. Pritchard, of the First Baptist church at Wilmington, is announced.

There is, doubtless, a silver lining to the cloud at Minneapolis—but only a lining.

Let the 4th of July committee hurry up. The time is running down.

A car load of very superior Northern stone ware has been received by W. H. Hughes and will be sold at prices of home made wares. je8 2t

An Explanation.
We hear considerable talk about the shortage of funds with which to pay per diem, etc., of witnesses in the Federal court. This is explained from the fact that June is the last month of the fiscal year for which estimates are made to run the courts, and it oftentimes happens that these estimates are over-run so that a shortage occurs, as no money can be paid out on any account without special appropriation. The court will last during the present week, but will be devoted to the main to civil business.

Died.
At Fint, Wake county, at the old homestead Saturday night at 12 p. m., Mrs. Elizabeth Sorrell, age 63, relict of the late Jacob Sorrell. The funeral and burial took place Monday at 2 p. m. at the family burying ground, which was attended by a large concourse of relatives and friends to show their love and respect for this most estimable lady whom they will miss so much.

Circuit Court.
The criminal calendar was taken up yesterday and much business disposed of. In most of the cases a not pros was entered, or continued.

The case of the State ex rel D. W. Bain, public treasurer, vs. the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad was continued on a motion to remand to the State court and continued to be heard on the first Tuesday of next term.

The annual concert of St. Mary's school will begin at 8:30 tonight. There will be a celebration of the Holy Communion at 7:30 tomorrow morning in the school chapel. The commencement exercises will begin at 10 a. m., in the parlor.

The pupils of the Deaf and Dumb and the Blind Institution are leaving for their homes.
