CITY IN BRIEF.

Cucumbers and squash getting plentiful

Most of the young ladies from our seminaries have gone to their homes.

The Federal Court will probably adjourn this week

Peaches are coming in, and will soon be plentiful.

The thermometer was almost in the nineties at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

Dewberry and green apple pies are the correct things for dessert just now.

There are now 1242 convicts in the state, which is a less number than for some years previous.

We are glad to learn that the health of Governor Holt continues to improve

There is a general condemnation of the "ugliness" of the new street lamp posts

The summer exodus will soon begin, and then the widower's club will be again inaugurated.

The Fourth of July boom is reaching all classes. Everybody seems to be in it.

The parks were thronged with visitors yesterday afternoon. The street cars did a tremendous business.

Capt B. P. Williamson is building a half mile race track at his farm just northwest of the city limits.

Work on the new dormitory at the Agricultural and Mechanical College is progressing well.

Characteristics of Hood's Sarsaparilla: The large sale, the merit, the greatest cures. Try it, and realize its benefits.

Next week the Democratic National convention will meet. After that "you can pay your money and take your choice."

It is requested that each county alliance shall send delegates to the tobacco convention which meets in Morehead on the 5th of July.

Regular communication of Wm. G. Hill Lodge, No. 218, A. F. and A. M., tonight at 8 15 o'clock. Visiting brethren invited.

An accident at the power house of the electric railway this morning interfered with the running of the cars today.

Attention is directed to the advertisement of Messrs. Jones & Powell who are prepared to furnish pure Kennebec river ice in any quantity from five to one hundred pounds. Read the advertisement.

Mr. Junius Uzzle, who for sometime has been one of the accommodating conductors of our street railway, left yesterday afternoon for Winston where he takes a position in the new Zinzendorf hotel. We wish "June" all the success possible. He is a clever gentleman in all respects.

On and after today, persons leaving this city on the 7 o'clock a. m. train can make close connection at Durham with a train for Oxford, Clarksville and Buffalo Lithia Springs. The train leaves Durham at 7:58 a. m. arriving at Oxford at 9:40 a. m. and Clarksville at 11:30 a. m.

The torrid season is here.

Be on hand at the meeting of the Chamber of Commerce tomorrow night, and find out what surprises are in store.

Another fruit and vegetable season is fast passing away and still we have no canning factory in or near Raleigh. What is the matter with our moneyed folks any way?

The residents on Hillsboro street think there ought to be a light just this side of the railroad bridge. Some of them requested us to call attention to it.

Intelligence has been received at the revenue department of the seizure near Tabernacle, Guilford county, of a ninety gallon illicit distillery owned and operated by two men named Boreman and Allred.

It is now said that the claim of Receiver Robinson, of the defunct First National Bank of Wilmington, against the Dawson estate for $34,000, will not amount to anything. Attachments have been issued but the property is secured and cannot be touched now.

Rumors

The air is full of them and they portend great achievements beneficial to our beautiful "City of Oaks." We know nothing certain, and therefore we do not pretend to make what is called a "point blank statement." We hear rumors, however, and, it is our business to tell them, as "coming events cast their shadows before." There is much railroad talk—lots of it. There is something in the air that means business. Our people may be sure of this. Great big things are on the tapis, but those who appear to be in the confidence, won't exactly tell. You ask them what all this means, and ten to one the chap of whom you make the query, will place his fore-finger on the right side of his nasal organ, shut his left eye, wink with the other and tell you to look out for news of the most astounding character. You may guess to your hearts content, but no matter. You must rest your souls in patience until the grand denouement which will shake things up generally to a greater extent than was experienced on that fateful 31st of August some years ago, when the quaking of old mother earth made us shake with trembling and fear.

But, a truce to facetiousness and more of solid business.

What if a direct road in the direction of the Cape Fear section should be built from Raleigh to tap the almost boundless and virgin forest and bring hence millions of feet of lumber for building purposes, thus making Raleigh a market of no mean pretensions in that line of industry? This may be so—we guess it.

What if the Atlantic Coast Line folks tired, worn out, and disgusted with the long time rested terminus of the so-called Albemarle and Raleigh railroad, at a point where the howling of the owls at night, and the whistling of the partridge by day, are the only sounds that break the solemn monotony of the surroundings should have suddenly determined to push forward to the civilization so apparent in the capital city of the old North State? This, too, is among the huge probabilities of the near future—so we guess.

What if the Norfolk and Western railway folks having cast an eye towards the Seacoast, find that a good chance to reach the "briny deep" is through our city, where it can join hands with the Albemarle and Raleigh extension in its "march to the sea"—we make a rough guess in this direction also.

But what is the use of indulging in wild speculations? There will be a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce tomorrow night. It will be an open meeting and great developments are expected. Let all attend. We are on the eve of realizing "great expectations." Watch and wait.

Died.

Last night about 9 o'clock at the residence of Mr. A. L. Ferrell, 323 South Person street, of acute dysentery, Mr. Richard Ferrell, aged 62 years. He was taken to the old family burial ground in the eastern part of Wake for burial.

On Saturday afternoon last at 5.10 o'clock, at her residence, corner Person and Davis streets, Mrs. Alecy B. Terry, in the 74th year of her age. The funeral took place at the residence yesterday afternoon at 2 15 o'clock.

Funeral of Col. L. L. Polk.

The remains of Col. L. L. Polk arrived in this city yesterday afternoon between three and four o'clock over the R. & D. Railroad, via the Va., Midland Railroad and Greensboro. The train was considerably behind time. On arrival the gentlemen accompanying the body were met at the depot by a large crowd and the procession started for the First Baptist Church. Among the escort were Senator Peffer, of Kansas, several members of the Federal House of Representatives and other distinguished persons. Mrs. Polk and her daughter in law, Mrs. Denmark also came with the remains. The ceremonies at the church were deeply impressive and solemn and were conducted by the pastor Rev. Dr. Carter. After the sermon, the casket was opened and a very large number of people viewed the remains. The interment took place in Oakwood Cemetery in presence of a large concourse of relatives, friends and citizens generally.

Dr. Thos. D. Hogg has returned from his western trip brim-full of interesting news. It is doing nobody any injustice to say that the Doctor is as well informed on the topics of the day, of every kind, as any man in North Carolina.
