The Weather Today.
Local forecast for Raleigh till 8 p. m. tomorrow: Fair and warm.
Local data for 24 hours ending 8 a. m. today:
Maximum temperature, 82; minimum temperature, 72; rainfall 0.00.

CITY IN BRIEF.

Billing hot.
The political agony is over.
Summer solstice in all its glory.
Flies by day and skeeters by night.
Nice time for resting in hammocks beneath the wide spreading oaks.
Cantaloupes have appeared in the Wilmington market.
Home watermelons are looked for in market next week.
Trinity college has been formally accepted by the building committee.
Thermometer at Bobbitt's drug store at 3 p. m. registered 91.

A convention of railroad men is in session at Asheville

Roasting ears are getting plentiful and much cheaper.

Mr. Samuel A. Henzey, president of the Egypt Coal Company, was in the city yesterday afternoon.

Gentlemen of the 4th of July committee don't forget to engage a first class band of music

Mad-dogs are again getting numerous in different sections of the State

The next political movement in order will be the conventions for nomination of county officers

The market house bell will be rung tonight for the Democratic ratification meeting at Metropolitan Hall.

Every testimonial regarding Hood's Sarsaparilla is an honest, unpurchased statement of what this medicine has actually done

Make up your mind to go to Asheville on the excursion, July 6th. Remember it will be the best chance this season to visit the mountains.

It is about fully agreed that the trains will make their first trips into the new union depot on the 4th of July.

A prohibition convention will be held Saturday, July 30th, for the purpose of nominating Wake county officers.

Remember that the 4th of July soliciting committee still lack something to make the celebration what it should be.

The offerings at the Masonic celebration in honor of St. John's day at the Church of the Good Shepherd next Sunday will be equally divided between the Oxford Orphan Asylum and St. John's Hospital.

The Methodists of the city are invited to a reception given this evening from 8 to 10 o'clock by the Junior Epworth League in the Sunday school room of Edenton Street Church.

A large crowd is anticipated from North Carolina at the launch of the battle ship, Texas, at the Navy yard in Norfolk on the 28th inst. Good time for excursion trains.

Mr. J. L. Taylor, who has for some time held the position of general passenger agent at Atlanta, Ga., has resigned and the duties of the office will devolve upon W. A. Turk, assistant general passenger agent.

Don't let politics make us overlook the fact that we are to have a first class State fair the coming fall, to which is to be added as an annex a celebration of the centennial of Raleigh. It takes some little business as well as politics to get along.

As the Black Diamond Quartette have returned from Europe with high honors, perhaps it would be well enough to let our people hear from them in the matter of a concert. A friend has suggested that an entertainment gotten up by them in aid of the hospital fund might prove beneficial all around.

A slight break in the heat just now would be hailed with delight.

There will be a meeting of W. R. Womble Hook and Ladder Company tomorrow night at 8 o'clock.

Still a little time left in which to give in taxes. Better attend to it and avoid indictment. The law is positive on the subject.

The interest in the meeting of the Tobacco Association at Morehead on July 5th, promises to be very largely attended. We hope that Raleigh may have a full delegation.

Special meeting of Wm. G. Hill Lodge, No. 218, A. F. and A. M., will be held tonight at 8 o'clock. Full attendance earnestly desired. Visiting members cordially invited to attend

We hear nothing of late about the excursion to Atlanta. As now is the dull season it would be a good time for the business men of the two cities to make each other's acquaintance.

Love in the Mists.
Love in the Mists.
The scene of which is laid in the mountains of Western North Carolina, among the moonshiners. Written by a Raleigh boy. On sale at Alfred Williams & Co's. Price 25 cents

Mr. Sid J. Smithers an engineer on the C. C. & Augusta Railroad, is in the city, for a short vacation. He is a Raleigh boy and has gained much proficiency in his line of business. His many friends cordially welcome him to his old home

"Love in the Mists"

A large cut of this thrilling book is to be found elsewhere in the columns of the Visitor today. The book is on sale at A. Williams & Co's book store. The price is only 25 cents. The scene of it is laid among the moonshiners of the mountains of North Carolina.

Knights Templar.

A special Conclave of Raleigh Commandery K. T., will be held this evening at 8:30 o'clock sharp to confer the order of the Temple and to perfect arrangements for St. John's day services. Full attendance is earnestly desired.

Ratification Meeting.

We are authorized and requested to announce, that a meeting will be held at Metropolitan Hall at 8:30 o'clock tonight for the purpose of ratifying the nomination of Grover Cleveland by the National Democratic Convention. After the meeting a Cleveland club will be formed. It is expected that Col. Coke, Gov. Holt, R. H. Battle, Esq., and others will be present and address the meeting.

Memorial Association.

It should not be overlooked that a special meeting of the Ladies Memorial Association will take place tonight at 8:30 o'clock in the Supreme Court room. The wives and daughters of ex-Confederate soldiers are also expected to be present, and the public generally are cordially invited.

The object of the meeting is to discuss the enlargement of the association so that its usefulness may be extended. Several prominent speakers are expected, and it will be an occasion of much interest.

Our Glorious Fourth.

As the day approaches interest increases in the matter of celebrating our National Declaration of Independence. It will be a grand occasion, and it may be well expected that thousands will visit our beautiful city. The program, so far as mapped out, will be as follows:

Military parade and drill, firemen's parade and exhibition, foot races, sack races, pole climbing (all for money prizes), barbecue at Brookside Park, fast trips on the electric cars, rides on the switchback railway, reel races by the firemen, exhibition of the city water works. For the first time the new union depot will be used. At night there will be a superb display of fireworks, consisting of rockets, bombs and set pieces.

In a word, it will surpass any similar celebration ever held in Raleigh.

I. O. O. F.

Regular meeting of Seaton Gales Lodge No. 64, I. O. O. F., to night at 8 o'clock sharp for work in the 3rd degree and other important matters to be attended. A full attendance required. Visiting brethren invited.

Y. M. C. A. Notes.

Members of the Young Men's Christian Association who are interested in the outing to Neuse river on Tuesday are requested to attend a meeting to night at 8:30 o'clock to make final arrangements.

Married.

HOLDING-FOWLER:--In the college chapel of Wake Forest college, yesterday morning at 8:30 o'clock, Mr. W. W. Holding an enterprising young merchant was united in marriage to Miss Columbia Fowler, daughter of Dr. Fowler. There was a large crowd in attendance, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. W. B. Morton, of Louisburg. There were many rare and beautiful presents. The contracting parties left on the east bound train yesterday afternoon for Morehead City followed by the best wishes of a host of friends.

Funeral.

The body of the late M. E. A. Heartt arrived in the city, by the western train from Durham yesterday afternoon and was taken direct to the residence of his brother, Maj. C. D. Heartt, from whence, at 4 o'clock p. m., it was taken to Oakwood Cemetery where the interment took place. Several gentlemen accompanied the remains to Raleigh, among them the following: Messrs. Geo. W. Watta, T. B. Fuller, H. A. Reams, C. McGary, H. N. Snow, W. L. Cooper, E. W. Kennedy, Jno. B. Walker and J. R. Blackhall. The pall bearers were, A. M. McPheeters, Jr., W. C. Stronach, Dele Crow, Wm. Craun, C. H. Belvin, Capt. J. R. Ferrall.

Convention News.

As much interest centers in the National Democratic Convention now in session at Chicago, we give below such bulletins of importance as have been received up to our time of going to press:

A dispatch dated 2:30 p. m. today states that the nomination for Vice President lies between Gray, of Indiana, Stevenson, of Illinois, Mitchell, of Iowa, and Morse, of Michigan. 2:40 p. m.—Under the new apportionment of the votes accredited the territories, it takes 607 votes to nominate instead of 699. Under this arrangement therefore it will take 607 to nominate Vice President.

STRAW MATTINGS

We have never been able to offer our patrons so many novel designs in Straw Mattings as we do this season.

There was a time when one could scarcely get any style in these mattings besides a small check or plain white. Now they can be seen in many "carpet effects" closely resembling the patterns as shown in Pussell's carpets.

Probably the most unique patterns are those in the Jap Mattings, being double dyed and in detached figures.

Another new texture in the Jap Matting is that "woven upon the thread," the warp being hemp and the filling of very fine grass. This produces the most even surface of any scraw floor covering.

While we have the more expensive grades, yet we sell a reliable matting at $5 per roll of 40 yards
