The Weather Today.

Local forecast for Raleigh till 8 p. m. tomorrow: Light rain; continued cool; clearing Wednesday evening.

Local data for 24 hours ending 8 a. m. today:

Maximum temperature, 74; minimum temperature, 60; rainfall 0.15.

CITY IN BRIEF.

The University Magazine for July is out. It is a good number.

Fires and overcoats were in demand yesterday and today.

Bad weather on the vendors of soda water, milk shakes, limeade etc.

R. P. O. Clerks will go upon Sunday trains between Norfolk and Monroe on the 10th inst.

A regular Sunday mail train will be put on the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad next Sunday.

There will be a meeting of the County Commissioners next Monday to hear complaints relative to the valuation of property.

The trains did not run into the new depot yesterday. We would state that it was from no fault of the Visitor. We talked about it enough.

The remains of the late Mrs. Maria A. Brazz, after appropriate services at Christ Church, were carried to Petersburg, Va., for interment this morning.

On account of the inclemency of the weather the Switchback at the Exposition Grounds will not run till Friday night July 8th at which time everything possible will be arranged for the comfort of its patrons.

Warmer weather and clearing is promised for tomorrow and those who go on the Asheville excursion will just hit it. No dust, a pleasant ride and then in the mountains two nights and whole day.

Fare for the round trip on the excursion to Asheville, is only $3.50. Observation car tickets $1 extra. Only $4.50 for a trip to the Switzerland of America. Don't forget to take in the trip.

There has never been a better chance for a small amount of money to see the beautiful section of North Carolina, than to go on the Asheville excursion which leaves here at 6.30 o'clock tomorrow morning. It will be a grand trip and no mistake.

Class work in the Young Men's Christian Association gymnasium will be commenced to night by Mr. Mangum, of the University of North Carolina; those desiring to enter will be on hand at 8.30 o'clock.

Tomorrow morning the street cars will go out to Elm street, on the Blount street line—A. and M. College on the Hillsboro street line and end of line on Hargett street and all reach the depot in time to deliver passengers for the excursion leaving for Asheville, at 6.30, a. m.

Be sure and be on hand at the depot tomorrow morning in time for the Asheville excursion. It will be one of the most enjoyable occasions of the kind yet given. Remember there will be an observation car attached and the mountain scenery can be seen by daylight.

The Mayor had quite a levee this morning disposing of cases caused mostly from over exuberance on the fourth of July. None of them were of great importance being generally for boisterous language, disorderly conduct etc. The usual penalties were imposed.

The postponement of the fireworks last night, was, of course a disappointment to many, and especially to those who had come from a distance. It was regretted, but all must admit that the condition of the weather was such that no display of a creditable kind could have taken place. As soon as the weather settles, the time of the display will be announced. "All's well, that ends well."

Farmers are getting rather blue over the continued rains.

The State tobacco Association met in Morehead City today.

Now that the 4th of July is over, let us all go to work and boom up the centennial celebration.

The new post office appropriation bill increases the salary of the post master at Raleigh from $3,600, to $3,705.

There will be a meeting of the Junior German Club at the office of Dr. J. H. London this evening at 9 o'clock. A full attendance is requested as important business is to be considered.

The regular meeting of the Board of Stewards of Central Church will be held in the Bible Class room at 8.30 tonight. A full meeting is desired.

The bath houses in Brookside and Potten parks are the recipients of much patronage just now. It is the cheapest and best amusement of the times.

Who can tell us something about the proposed new railroad to the Cape Fear lumber region. Our columns are open for the information of the people.

A learned man says that the word "Editor" means to eat. This is what we call a misnomer because there are but few in this section of the country who make as much as they can well eat taking their families into the count.

Personal Mention.

Capt. T. W. Mason, of the Railroad Commission, is in the city.

We are pleased to learn that Mr. H. J. Dowell, who has been seriously ill, is some better.

Encampment.

All the arrangements are about perfected for the State Guard Encampment at Wrightsville. The first encampment will take place commencing July 22nd. In this, there will be 16 companies. The second encampment commences August 4th, when there will be 17 companies. The grounds are admirably arranged and will fully accommodate all in attendance.

Independence Day.

Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather yesterday, the glorious fourth was celebrated in a fine and rollicking style. From early dawn until late in the night, the boom of diminutive cannon, the popping of crackers and other insignia of a general holiday prevailed extensively. All the banks, the post office, capitol and other public places were closed, and everybody generally seemed to be imbued with a determination to make the most of the grand occasion. Races and contests of different kinds made up a part of the program. The greased pole was a special object of interest, and attracted a very large crowd in front of the court house. A great number of urchins made attempts to reach the desired point, but slipped back just before reaching it. Two or three, however, got to the top and secured prizes. About 5 o'clock in the afternoon a fire alarm was turned on, and the fire department came out in force. Large crowds witnessed the playing of the streams and exhibited their approbation by loud shouts of applause. The forces were handled by Chief Englehard and Assistant Chief Ferrell in a splendid manner.

Towards night the weather did not improve and a steady drizzling rain set in. Owing to this the fire works were postponed until a future date. The opening exercises at Brookside Park were also put off. Due notice will be given when they will take place.

Then altogether the day passed off pleasantly, but we regret to state that there was more disorder and drunkenness than we had hoped for. Several difficulties occurred during last afternoon and night.

New Officer.

The new county Superintendent of Public Instruction, Mr. W. H. Chapell, went into office yesterday. He is a gentleman highly qualified for the position in every respect. Rev. W. G. Clements the retiring Superintendent has the best wishes of the entire community. He has filled the position with the highest credit to himself and to the people of the county.
