The Weather Today.

Local forecast for Raleigh till 8 p. m. tomorrow: Fair, slightly warmer. Local data for 24 hours ending 8 a. m. today:

Maximum temperature, 67; minimum temperature, 67; rainfall 0.11.

CITY IN BRIEF.

Peaches very scarce.

Considerably warmer.

The excursion and watermelon days will soon be upon us in full blast.

The county candidates will soon be buckling on their armor in earnest.

Only a few native watermelons have so far put in appearance.

Mr. Tal Lashley is considered out of danger.

The roads are reported in bad condition and market wagons are rather scarce coming to town.

The Governor's Guard are ordered to report for drill to-night at 8:30 o'clock. Prompt attention requested.

A party of young ladies and gentlemen left Goldsboro last Tuesday for the Catskill mountains, New York.

The crowd at the Guilford Battle Ground celebration on the 4th inst. was estimated at 15,000.

The 110th North Carolina Supreme Court reports will be issued in a few days.

Politics will not get booming hot until about the shank end of the campaign.

A large band of gipsies are travelling through different sections of the state.

The astronomers say there will be beautiful displays of the Planets Mars, Jupiter and Venus during the month of July.

Charlotte is making great preparations for the reception of the editorial fraternity at the next session of the Press Association.

If the weather should clear off and we have some warm sunshine, there will be a perfect rush of watermelons and cantaloupes in market during the next few days.

Now is the time to boom up our centennial. October will soon be upon us, and it should be widely spread that we are going to have a rousing occasion. There is much to be done and we cannot commence too soon.

As the VISITOR has the largest circulation within Raleigh township of any daily paper published in Raleigh, we again call attention to the fact that on July 22d the county commissioners will meet for the purpose of hearing complaints as to the valuation of property in this township.

The VISITOR has a larger circulation within the city limits than any other paper published in Raleigh. This is conceded, therefore, any information intended to reach our people can be accomplished certainly to as large extent, through its columns as by any other channel. This is food for reflection on the part of public officers no less than individuals. Facts are too stubborn things to be hampered by over modesty. "Let justice be done though the heavens fall"—we prefer to write it in English.

The county commissioners have agreed to extend the time for listing property for taxation to Saturday next July 9th, inclusive. Persons not listing by that time will be subject to the penalties of the law. As this is a matter that concerns all our people, the VISITOR deems it a duty to warn them through its columns and it modestly suggests that such decisions of the board should be ordered by them to be printed in several papers. It is a matter that concerns all taxpayers. The office of the tax listers will be kept open Saturday evening until 8 o'clock to accommodate those who cannot conveniently spare time to come earlier.

The merit of Hood's Sarsaparilla is not accidental but is the result of careful study and experiment by educated pharmacists.

The Wilmington & Weldon Railroad has declared a dividend of 4 per cent on their capital stock, payable July 15th, 1892.

The Seventh Day Adventists will hold a general meeting at Blowing Rock, commencing July 13th, and continue until July 25th.

Friday, July 23, is set apart as the day on which tax complaints will be heard from Raleigh township. On Monday July 11th, complaints will be heard from the county at large.

At a meeting of the Democratic State Executive Committee, yesterday, Mr. Ed Chambers Smith was unanimously re-elected chairman, but declined. The committee, after passing a resolution complimentary to Mr. Smith, elected Hon. F. M. Simmons, of New Bern, to fill the position.

Judge Clark.

The Greensboro Record alluding to Judge Clark's speech at the Guilford Battle Ground says: It is a fine effort, worthy of the reputation of Judge Clark, as a brilliant and forceful writer, and all along it breathes forth a lofty spirit of patriotism. The Sentinel hopes to see it soon published in pamphlet form. It will be a valuable paper with which to start a library for the recently organized Historical Society.

Death of Mr. John Myatt.

We deeply regret to announce the death of this well known and highly respected citizen which took place this morning at 7 o'clock, at the boarding house of Mrs. Ira Beckwith, on South McDowell street.

Mr. Myatt was in the 79th year of his age and had resided in Raleigh for more than forty years during which time he was an exemplary member of Edenton street M. E. Church. He leaves a widow and a large circle of friends to mourn his death with whom we most deeply sympathize. The funeral will take place from Edenton street Church to-morrow afternoon, at 3:30 o'clock, to which the relatives, friends and public are invited.

A Glorious Time.

Next Monday July 11th one of the grandest excursions of the season will take place, from Raleigh to the Seaside. It will be one of the best arranged and most delightful trips ever gotten up in this section. While the amplest provision is to be provided for all the excursion will be peculiarly adapted to the comfort of ladies and families. Only a certain number of tickets will be sold, thereby avoiding too great a rush. The train will leave Raleigh at 8 o'clock a. m. arriving in Wilmington by 1 o'clock in the afternoon, where the excursionists can at once take the splendid steamer "Wilmington" for a trip down the beautiful Cape Fear River, to Carolina Beach. Those desiring can also visit the "Hammocks" and "ocean view." Special rates have been secured at the Orton and Parcell Hotels.

The fare for the round trip is only $2.50. A special chaperon for the ladies will be announced tomorrow. The excursion will be under the management of Messrs. R. H. Bradley, J. M. Broughton and T. B. Mosley, who will take special pains to render it the grandest and most enjoyable occasion of the kind yet given. Let the ladies at once prepare for the trip. It will never be regretted, and is the chance of a life time. Tickets can be secured at Alfred Williams & Co's., book store. The excursion will go by way of Goldsboro—quick route.
