The Weather Today.

For North Carolina: Local showers in west portion; fair in east; variable winds.

Local forecast for Raleigh till 8 p. m. tomorrow: Light rain on Sunday; Monday warmer and fair.

Local data for 24 hours ending 8 a. m. today:

Maximum temperature, 77; minimum temperature, 55; rainfall 0.03.

CITY IN BRIEF.

No peaches of consequence have so far put in their appearance.

Cool nights and mornings still continue, reminding us of fall.

Chronicle and News and Observer please copy.

The new city directory of Greensboro places the population at 9,500.

Telegraph wires are being put in the new depot.

Most too cool for the bath houses at the parks.

Another barbecue in Brookside Park in a few days.

There will be services at Brooklyn M. E. church tomorrow morning and night at the usual times.

The directors of the National Bank of Greensboro have declared a dividend of 5 per cent.

The school girls are sadly missed on the street cars these delightful evenings.

A proposition to vote $100,000 in Winston for control of the water works has been defeated.

The market is literally crowded today, with all kinds of vegetables in season.

The bright weather today has brought quite a large crowd of our country friends to the city.

See notice of mortgage sale of land by T. R. Purnell, assignee for mortgage.

The Military Encampment at Wrightsville, is the next public event on docket.

The next criminal court for Wake county takes place on the 4th Monday in September.

The Switchback railroad will be in operation at the Fairgrounds tonight between 7 and 10 o'clock.

Posters are being sent out announcing the fire works next Tuesday night. We hope for a large crowd.

A train passed over the Richmond and Danville Railroad, through Charlotte yesterday with 135,000 water melons for the North.

Joseph Ruby, of Columbia, Pa., suffered from birth with scrofula humor, till he was perfectly cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Mrs. Charles M. Walters will act as chaperone for such ladies as may desire to go on the excursion to Wilmington.

Evangelist Fife has purchased a handsome residence in Charlotte for $8,000, and will make that city his future home.

A large and convenient map of the United States has been put up in the Mayor's office. It was sent here by our member of Congress, Mr. Buan.

Come to the Teacher's Institute at Raleigh, N. C., July 11th, to 15th inclusive. Prof. Charles D. McIver will preside. Don't forget it.

A gentleman just returned from a visit to Chatham and other counties, says that the corn, wheat and oats yield are better than for many years past.

If some enterprising person or persons would get an excursion from this city to Atlanta, at a reasonable rate, it would prove a "bonanza" to those who project it, and a great convenience to those who wish to visit the "gate city." We hear the proposition well spoken of on all sides. We hope that before the summer ends to hear that the enterprise has been carried out.

The people in the vicinity of Southern Pines are cultivating blackberries extensively. They ship them to the Northern Markets where they bring good prices.

The time cannot far distant when the extension of the Street car line to Caraleigh would be of great advantage to the people in the vicinity and also to the company. The suburb is building up fast.

Attention is called to the advertisement of the Lyon Racket Store where some of the best bargains of the season can be procured. There is no place in the city where money can be invested to better advantage.

There are few prettier places of resort in the South than our Capitol Square, and it is being yearly improved. With the addition of the Confederate soldiers' monument the square will be very attractive.

The Governors Guard propose to attend the State Guard Encampment which commences on the 17th inst., and they are drilling for the event. The company will probably take between 45 and 50 men.

A man has turned up in Durham with an electric contrivance for feeding horses. You set your alarm clock and fix your hay and corn in the proper place. The clock would go off, and the contrivance would do the rest. It is the invention of a North Carolinian, a Wilson county man.

Excursion to Asheville.

The excursion to Asheville which returned last night was a decided success. The train left Raleigh at 8:10 a. m., on Wednesday, arriving at Asheville at 7:10 p. m.; returning, left Asheville at 10 o'clock yesterday morning, and arrived in Raleigh at 9 o'clock last night. Every one from whom we have heard has expressed whatever agree that it was one of the most enjoyable trips that has ever been taken by any excursion party from Raleigh. Our friend Sanders has proven himself the champion excursions of the State. He goes fast, "gets there" and doesn't forget the comfort of his passengers.

Assessments.

The work of assessments of the various railroads in the state for taxation, is now in progress before the Railroad Commission. Since last year several roads have been added to the list. There has been an increase in the value of some of the roads by the Commission, but, in accordance with the law all the corporations will have a hearing in the matter. Col. A. B. Andrews and Maj. John C. Winder represent their respective systems.

Reliable Footwear.

When we sell a person a shoe our aim is to sell an article of such merit, that it will make a permanent customer. To do this, we cannot sell "shoddy shoes." There are only a few people who wish to buy shoes of this kind, most people wish to buy reliable shoes, and reliable shoes are the only kind we sell. We keep shoes for men, women and children, suited for all kinds of wear and at prices as low as the same goods are sold by any house in the country.

W. H. & R. S. Tucker.

A Glorious Time.

Next Monday July 11th one of the grandest excursions of the season will take place, from Raleigh to the Seaside. It will be one of the best arranged and most delightful trips ever gotten up in this section. While the amplest provision is to be provided for all the excursion will be peculiarly adapted to the comfort of ladies and families. Only a certain number of tickets will be sold, thereby avoiding too great a rush. The train will leave Raleigh at 8 o'clock a. m. arriving in Wilmington by 1 o'clock in the afternoon, where the excursionists can at once take the splendid steamer "Wilmington" for a trip down the beautiful Cape Fear River, to Carolina Beach. Those desiring can also visit the "Hammocks" and "ocean view." Special rates have been secured at the Orton and Parcell Hotels.

The fare for the round trip is only $2.50. A special chaperon for the ladies will be announced tomorrow. The excursion will be under the management of Messrs R. H. Bradley, J. M. Broughton and T. B. Mosley, who will take special pains to render it the grandest and most enjoyable occasion of the kind yet given. Let the ladies at once prepare for the trip.

It will never be regretted, and is the chance of a life time. Tickets can be secured at Alfred Williams & Co's, book store. The excursion will go by way of Goldsboro—quick route.

Don't Complain When You Should Rejoice.

Some people are sour by nature, others are made sour by association. Some people won't read an advertisement for fear of learning something. And many are mad when they are made to read an advertisement by starting off on something to their taste. "Thus" the babies must all wear lace caps in hot weather, and on Monday next Swindell will have a special sale lace caps, at 15 cts. each. Some of these caps are worth three times the amount. Next Monday at Swindell's 15 cents, a d plenty for all.

FLOOR COVERINGS FOR MID

SUMMER.

STRAW MATTINGS. STRAW MATTINGS.

For a reasonable outlay a house keeper can secure the most comfortable of all summer floor coverings—STRAW MATTINGS.

Our stock is larger and we show more novel designs than ever, nor have we at any time offered better values than we do this season.

One of the popular mattings of the day is the JAPAN MATTING, this is "woven in the thread" which produces a surface very much smoother than that of the CHINA MATTINGS.

Probably the most unique designs are seen in inserted patterns and the carpet effects. Prices $5.00 per roll and up.
