RALEIGH, SATURDAY, JULY 16, 1892.

NO. 72

The Weather Today.

Local forecast for Raleigh till 8 p. m. tomorrow: Light rain this evening and Sunday forenoon, decidedly cooler with northerly winds.

Local data for 24 hours ending 8 a. m. today:

Maximum temperature, 93; minimum temperature 72; rainfall 0.00.

CITY IN BRIEF.

Still sweltering hot.

Grapes are fast getting ripe.

There are several barbecues and picnics in contemplation.

Native water melons and cantaloupes.

The cotton crop so far is reported in a splendid condition.

The health of Senator Vance still continues to improve.

A party of young ladies and gentlemen enjoyed a dance at Pullen Park last night.

Biram Lodge, No. 47, A. F. and A. M., will meet in regular communication at 8.15 o'clock Monday evening.

It is gratifying to note that there are fewer crop liens being recorded this year than usual.

The Democratic County Executive Committee held a meeting at the Mayor's office here today.

Preparations for the August races are being made in earnest. They are expected to be the finest that has ever taken place in the State.

It is what Hood's Sarsaparilla actually does, that tells the story of its merit and has given it the largest sale of any medicine.

Services at 11 a. m. and 8:00 p. m. at Brooklyn Methodist church tomorrow by the pastor Rev. K. D. Holmes. City papers please copy.

Remember that if you own a dog in the city limits, you must pay a tax upon it. It is well to think of it, because if you don't, trouble may ensue.

Brick work is progressing rapidly on our opera house. Ruff bricks made at Aberdeen, Moore county, are used, and present a very attractive appearance.

Putting it at the most distant period, we think we are justified in stating that the new Union depot will be ready for trains by the time the fall trade commences.

We are glad to learn that the symptoms in the case of Master Claude Denison are somewhat more favorable to day. We most sincerely hope he may recover.

We hope the Governor's Guard will visit the encampment at Wrightsville, with a good crowd. We want to see the capital city well represented, and as this is the dull season with our merchants, &c., we see no reason why the ranks should not be well filled on that occasion.

"Bill Nye" is getting up material for his humorous sketch to be entitled "The Autobiography of a Justice of the Peace." Now is a good chance for Squires Barbee, Whitaker and Marcon to put in some queer scenes. They could no doubt furnish "Bill" with some stirring scenes, if they took a notion.

With the statue of Washington on the south side of the capitol square and the Confederate monument on the north side, we will have made a good start towards the proper adornment of that beautiful park. Now with Chief Justice Ruffin on the west and Geo. E. Badger on the east side, our State could well boast of honoring her illustrious dead. It will, no doubt, come in time.

The Young Men's Christian Association will have a tent at Wrightsville during the coming encampment of the State Guard from July 20th to August 12th, where most of the State papers and leading periodicals will be on file for the accommodation of the soldiers and others. This is a good idea.

Cooler tomorrow.

Capt. B. P. Williamson is selling some fine blooded stock.

The shipment of melons to the north is getting immense.

Miss Bettie Crockett, of Durham, is visiting friends in this city.

Miss May Howard, of Atlanta, Ga., is visiting friends in this city.

Thermometer today still in the nineties.

Next week the encampment at Wrightsville commences.

Mr. Cleveland refers all applicants for his picture to photographers. He says he has none to give.

The farmers are too busy in ridding the crops of grass to put in their appearance much in town.

Mr. Joshua Melvin, of Durham, died yesterday morning, aged about 60. Sometime since he was sawing a piece of ice when he cut his hand causing erysipelas to set in, resulting fatally.

Little Lina Deaton, the 11 months old daughter of Mr. Isaac and Mrs. M. O. Deaton, 119 West Martin street, is quite ill, and serious doubts, we regret to say, are entertained of her recovery.

The Governor has given his permission for the Lee Light Infantry, of Chester, S. C., to camp at Blowing Rock for two weeks commencing the 19th inst.

Maj. Finger, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, will soon make preparations for a map of North Carolina for the World's fair at Chicago. All the public and private school houses in the State will be designated in colors, as will also all the colleges. The map will be about 14 feet long.

Installed.

Last night, the officers of Murphy Lodge, No. 3, Ancient Order United Workmen, were duly installed. They are as follows:

Master Workman—F. M. Lampkin.
Recorder—L. W. Smith.
Financier—T. J. Bashford.
Receiver—A. McPheters, Jr.

Conventions.

The County Democratic Executive Committee at their meeting today, called two conventions. One of these will be held on Tuesday, August 2nd for the selection of delegates to the District Convention. The other will be held on Saturday, September 3rd, for the nomination of county officers.

The Eclectic

Is a sixteen page monthly, contains entertaining reading and valuable information on a variety of subjects.

July number has two excellent sermons by Drs. Penson and Mangum; now on sale at book-stores and news stands. Subscriptions can be left at the office of Mr. E. M. Uzzell or sent through the post office. Address, THE ECLECTIC, Raleigh, N. C.

Died.

Yesterday, at his residence on the corner of Lenoir and East streets, Mr. John W. Morris, aged 60.

At the residence of her parents on South Wilmington street in this city, this morning at 1:05 o'clock, Miss Carrie C. Utley, daughter of Mr. W. M. and Mrs. M. A. Utley, in the 16th year of her age.

The death of this estimable young lady after an illness of several days has indeed, cost a most distressing gloom, not only over the immediate household, but among a large circle of friends. Her christian character added to her charming qualities, had made her a peculiarly shining light, and her loss is indeed a sad one.

To the afflicted family we tender our most heartfelt sympathy, the only consolation mortals can render in such an affliction.

The funeral will take place from the residence this afternoon at 6 o'clock.

Conference.

The Warrenton District Conference of the M. E. Church South, convened in the Methodist Church in Murfreesboro, yesterday. Rev. S. D. Adams occupied the chair and the devotional services were conducted by Rev. Wm. Grant. The attendance is large.

Thanks.

We are authorized to return the thanks of Mr. J. C. Oldham and his relatives and friends, to those having in charge the management of St. John's Hospital, for the attention and kindness exhibited to Mr. Oldham during several weeks sickness at the institution. He is so much improved as to be able to leave for his home in this county.

Confederate Veterans' Re Union, Wrightsville, N. C.

The Richmond & Danville Railroad Company has instructed its conductors to pass free all pensioners of the State of North Carolina over their lines, en route to the Confederate Veterans' Re Union at Wrightsville, August 16th to 20th inclusive, upon presentation of a certificate signed by the clerks of the Superior courts of the various counties that the holder thereof is a pensioner of the State of North Carolina and his name regularly appears on the pension roll.
