RALEIGH, SATURDAY, JULY 23, 1892.

NO. 78

The Weather Today.

Nor North Carolina: Fair weather. Local forecast for Raleigh till 8 p. m. tomorrow: Fair weather, continued warm, southwest winds. Local data for 24 hours ending 8 a. m. today:

Maximum temperature, 89; minimum temperature 70; rainfall 0.38.

CITY IN BRIEF.

Light, More Light, and better light. Go out to Brookside Park and look at the new pavilion.

"Give us to see and Ajax asks no more."

"There is something rotten in the State of Denmark"

Hide not your lights under a bushel, gentlemen of the Board of Aldermen.

Good season for ripening water-melons.

New Berne now claims a population of over 8 000.

Cantaloupes are now two for a nickel in market.

North Carolina 4 per cent bonds are now quoted at 99.

The tombstones in the city must go—the people say so

Cotton market continues very dull. Good middling 7½; middling 7. Receipts light.

The trustees of Trinity College will meet for the transaction of business August 3rd.

If a little boy has a stone bruise and will apply a little lard at once, it will remove the discoloration.

There will be a meeting of the La L. Circle of the King's Daughters this afternoon at 6 o'clock.

Mrs. Fred Phillips, of Tarboro, is here visiting her daughter, Mrs. Herbert Jackson.

Owing to his attendance at Wrightsville next week Gov. Holt will be unable to accept other invitations.

Three new pupils were received here yesterday for treatment of the Bedal Gold Cure.

A gentleman in New Berne desires the largest watermelon in the state for which he is willing to pay $3.

Joseph Ruby, of Columbia, Pa., suffered from birth with scrofula humor, till he was perfectly cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Charley Heardt, is mighty anxious to have the dog tax collected, because if parties don't come up there will be trouble ahead.

Yesterday afternoon Gov. Holt honored a requisition from the Governor of Tennessee for the rendition of a murderer under arrest in this state.

W. C. Stronach, chairman of the Democratic executive committee, has issued a call for primary meetings on Saturday, July 30th, to elect delegates to the county convention which meets August 2d. These primaries will be held in the country townships at 2 o'clock p. m. and in Raleigh at 8:30 p. m. at the same places at which the late primaries were held.

All lovers of the beautiful and artistic should see the scenes represented tonight in the tent in rear of the Fifth ward drug store, corner of Hillsboro and Salisbury streets. They are not only splendid, but highly interesting. Remember the exhibition commences tonight and continues three days. Admission only ten cents, and it is worth five times the price.

What a good thing it would be if our new opera house should be finished and ready for use the coming fall and winter. There are a number of first class companies in the country, which would be ready to fill engagements here, and some of them are compelled to give us the go by for want of a building, in all respects suitable. With a properly arranged opera house, our Raleigh people would enjoy the best theatrical and musical talent in the land.

Arrangements are on foot for a system of water works at Chapel Hill.

Mr. John Hawkins is canvassing the city in the interest of the Southern Development, a new paper published at Southern Pines.

Whenever the gas is discovered to be leaking in any part of the city, it will be considered a favor to the company to let it be known.

As predicted by the VISITOR some time since, the Raleigh and Gaston railroad shops will not be removed from this city.

The dissatisfaction with the present system of lighting the city is wide spread. We can plainly tell our aldermen that a restoration of the electric lights will be demanded.

Mr. W. B. Turlington will talk to young men at the Young Men's Christian Association tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock. An attractive musical programme has been arranged.

We were shown today by our friend, Mr. J. H. Marshall ("Tobe") three tomatoes from a vine which had produced five, the combined weight of which was about six pounds. They were splendid specimens.

Fayetteville Presbytery will hold a Normal Institute for elders and deacons at Red Springs commencing August 2nd and continuing ten days. Distinguished men from different sections of the Union will be present.

Arrangements are progressing for the building of the shops of the Seaboard Air Line at Monroe. These buildings are not by any means intended to supplant the shops in this city, so we learn.

A stranger was seen recently gazing intently at one of our municipal tombstones. He declared it was a shame that the grave of Sir Walter Raleigh should be marked with such a concern. He thought the great courtier's remains had been transferred from England and buried there.

Messrs. J. R. Ferrel & Co., have a new delivery wagon which does their push, progress and taste decided credit, as it does also the builder, Mr. J. W. Evans who is prominently known for turning out first class work.

The greatest good, to the greatest number, is what the VISITOR wants and the people, by a large majority, want more light and better light. The city and immediate suburbs have about 20,000 people, who do not propose to stumble along in comparative darkness, to the danger of life and limb. The tombstones must go, and, that soon.

The campaign has opened early. Speeches are announced from prominent gentlemen at several places in the State. It is understood that Senator Ransom will stump the State thoroughly for the Democratic ticket. Adlai Stephenson, the Democratic candidate for Vice President will receive an invitation to address the people of Raleigh at sometime during the canvass. No doubt politics will be at fever heat very soon. In the mean time, the VISITOR would like to insert everybody's advertisement, so that business may, at least, keep pace with the political furors.

Open Air Services.

Open air services at Brookside Park at 5 to 6 p. m. tomorrow. There will be short sermons of a few minutes each by members of the local preachers conference. Gospel songs interspersed between the sermons or talks.

Church Services for Sunday.

CENTRAL M. E. CHURCH 11 A. M. Rev. Dr. R. L. Abernethy, of Rutherford College. 3:15 p. m. Rev. Alex. Walker of Durham.

EDENTON ST. M. E. CHURCH 11 a. m. Rev. W. P. Williams of Davidson College. 3:30 p. m. Rev. Dr. R. L. Abernethy, President of Rutherford College.

BROOKLYN M. E. CHURCH 8 p. m. Rev. Saml. Y. Brown.

ASSASSINATED.

H. E. Frick, Manager of the Carnegie works killed. Tremendous Excitement.

The following bulletins were received here this afternoon:

HOME TRAD, Pa. July 23.

H. E. Frick, manager of the Carnegie works was shot three times this morning and fatally wounded. The assassin is a young Jew who arrived at Pittsburgh ten days ago.

FROM NEW YORK.

He refused to give his name and had no connection with the Homestead strikers. He was stabbed by one of Frick's clerks.

THE ASSASSIN'S NAME.

The name of the assassin is Alexander Berman, a Russian Jew, by occupation a printer. He recently resided in 42d street, New York.

This is a fac simile of the lamp posts now in existence in Raleigh, the capital of the old North State, as prepared by our special artist. Their beauty can hardly be questioned, but the saddest reflection is that their tombstone appearance leaves the stranger in doubt as to whether Raleigh is a cemetery or a live city.

Those Horrible Lights.

Correspondence of VISITOR.

We think the city had a fair opportunity last night to appreciate the city lighting, if appreciate is the term. We think a man who had been living in the jungles of Africa, and who had never seen a city of 5,000 inhabitants might appreciate the illumination, but the citizens of Raleigh certainly cannot. The light prospect is exceedingly gloomy. Can not the citizens of Raleigh get a Board of Aldermen who can manage the business affairs of the city on business principles? Certainly the effort should be made to relieve the city of this intolerable mismanagement. We call upon the citizens to put men in at the next election who will run the city affairs for the interest of the city and the convenience of those who must go on the streets at night. This tomb stone light business is simply intolerable. X X

How Happy the Little Busy Bee

In the words of Socrates, "why is he happy?" In the words of D. T. Swindell, "because he has something to do." Hence it is, we are determined to keep doing a good big rushing business all the time as it is happiness we are looking for and not money. Hence, in dull seasons we think it pays us to sell out all goods in our store at exactly what the goods costs us rather than carry any of them over. We must do a big business if it is a losing business. Can not and will not be idle. Hence it is we are selling envelopes at one cent a pack and six papers of pins for five cents, and ladies' Oxford tie shoes for fifty cents a pair, and men's coats and vests for fifty cents, and nice lawns dress goods at three cents a yard, and nice quality dress calico at four cents a yard, and organdies at six cents, and Parisian mull at six cents, and ink two cents a bottle, and novels five cents. Thus it is we walk rough shod over the enemy. Thus it is we will keep up this march of victory and triumph until we rest beneath the beautiful shades in the silent city of Oakwood.

Yours truly,
D. T. SWINDELL.

The cry in North Carolina for years has been—"more hog and hominy" It is pleasant to be assured by the State Department of Agriculture that stock raising has been increased, that a great many more hogs are on hand, and that corn will be in great plenty. Very good all this for the hungry people. It was never wise for North Carolina farmers to keep their smoke houses in Cincinnati and Louisville and their grain fields in the West. A good, wise farmer will try to raise at home all the supplies possible. Hay fields in the north for farmers south is something absurd and inexcusable. —Wilmington Messenger.
