The Weather Today.

Nor North Carolina: Fair weather. Local forecast for Raleigh till 8 p. m. tomorrow: Fair weather, continued warm. Local data for 24 hours ending 8 a. m. today: Maximum temperature, 94; minimum temperature 71; rainfall 0.00.

CITY IN BRIEF.

An excursion from Raleigh to Richmond, is under consideration. The county candidates are waking up. Butt's paintings tonight—only 10 cents admission. Call and see them. Days length 14 hours and 11 minutes. We are pleased to hear that Master Claude Denson is still improving. A considerable number of colored excursionists are in the city today. Democratic primaries next Saturday. Yesterday was a scorcher and today has not been much, if any, behind. The Mecklenburg colt show will be held September 23rd. Nearly fifty horses have been entered for the races to come off at the fair grounds, August 17th and 18th. Call upon the Chief of Police and pay your dog tax. It is highly important you should do so at once. Last week there were 175,000 pounds of manufactured tobacco shipped from Winston. The plans for the interior of Trinity College building at Durham have all been mapped out. Don't throw melon rinds on the sidewalks. Broken necks and ankles might be the result. Yesterday as a hot one is said to have caused the "oldest inhabitant" to put on his thinking cap. Empty beer bottles and lightning bugs wanted in some sections of the city. The Rosenthal Clothing Company continues to offer clothing at the most astounding low prices. Call and see for yourself. Emmet, the great comedian proposes to make a southern tour the coming fall and winter and expects to give Raleigh a call. Regular meeting of Centre Lodge No. 3, K. of P., at castle hall to night. Work in first rank. Visiting brethren invited. There will be a meeting of the Royal Arcanum at the office of Messrs Jones & Powell, at 8:15 o'clock tomorrow night. The noonday meetings at the rooms of the Young Men's Christian Association will prove highly interesting and instructive. Wm. G. Hill Lodge, No. 218, A. F. and A. M., will meet in regular communication tonight at 8:15. Visiting brethren invited. Work is progressing at the fair grounds preparatory to the great races to be held there on the 17th and 18th of August. Only a few minor cases such as intoxication, loud talking on the streets etc., were before the mayor this morning. The usual penalties inflicted. We noticed a gentleman today, at work on the tin roof of a house. It was about 11 o'clock and the sun poured fiercely down. We naturally thought of brain fever. There were about 1,000 people present at the Odd Fellows and Masonic barbecue which came off at Wake Forest last Friday. Some interesting speeches were made and an enjoyable time was had generally. Don't fail to see the beautiful paintings now on exhibition in rear of the Fifth Ward drug store. They are splendid artistic representations, and the price of admission is so cheap that all can attend—only 10 cents.

Sweltering hot.

Splendid time on cotton. Grass and weeds flourishing. Grapes are getting plentiful and the daily shipping is large. The street cars done a rushing business yesterday afternoon and night. The open air religious services in Brookside Park were well attended yesterday afternoon. Religious services were conducted at Javolina Beach yesterday by Evangelist Fife.

Work on the new cotton mill on the R & G R Road just north of the city limits has commenced in earnest.

A grand review of the State troops at Wrightsville will take place tomorrow by Governor Holt.

A splendid oil painting of Judge Wm. Gaston has been added to the gallery of the Supreme Court.

Hood's Sarsaparilla absolutely cures all diseases caused by impure blood and it builds up the whole system.

There is much talk of the proposed business meeting at Morehead City on the 19th of August, and it is expected to be a grand success.

The nicest melons seen here this season are now on sale at D. T. Johnson's. They were shipped to him from Wayne county.

Men, young and old, are cordially invited to the noon day prayer meeting held every day at the Y. M. C. A. rooms from 12 to 12:30.

The marriage license business is at almost a standstill. The Register of Deeds has but little now to do in that line.

The mayor of Winston, the president of the chamber of commerce and the editors of the Democratic papers of the city have joined in a request to Hon. Adlai Stevenson to address the people there at some time during the campaign.

The Wilmington Star takes hold in earnest of the matter of a business meeting at Morehead, as recommended by the Raleigh Chamber of Commerce. The proposition will no doubt find favor throughout the State.

Shut down on too much meat this hot weather. Eat sparingly of light food. If you want to keep off fever a good plan is to take about a spoonful of lemon juice in the morning. The doctors say this is a first class idea.

There is still a considerable demand for a repetition of the excursion to Wilmington. The unfavorable weather when the late excursion took place, kept many from going who otherwise would have done so.

Capt. J. A. Dodson has been selected as Superintendent of the Atlanta and Charlotte division of the Richmond and Danville system. Capt. Dodson has risen from a conductor on the road to his present place. He is a fine railroad man, and a most estimable gentleman.

The Raleigh Signal, edited by J. C. L. Harris, Esq., has again made its appearance. It takes ground against the nomination of a Republican State ticket and is quite bitter against Mr. Eaves, the Chairman of the Republican State Executive Committee.

A construction company has been organized at Southport, known as the Southport Construction Company, the purpose of which is to take contracts for the construction of railroad bridges, canals, turnpikes, iron furnaces, water works, etc. The capital stock is $25,000 which may be increased to $500,000.

Died.

On Saturday evening last at 6 o'clock the infant son of the late Dr. Slon H. and Lizzie Woodard Rogers. The funeral services took place from the residence of Mr. E. S. Trapier, on Saunders street yesterday afternoon at 6:30 o'clock.

A Bright Outlook.

We are rejoiced to note that the interest in our approaching State fair is growing every day, and the anticipations are that it will be a great success. The premium lists are out, and being widely distributed, and Mr. Ayer, the secretary, is pushing up matters generally. We must not, however, leave the entire onus of the matter to the officials. It is the duty of all our people to boom up the enterprise to the fullest extent. This is especially incumbent upon the city of Raleigh, in view of the fact, that the centennial existence of the municipality is to be celebrated in connection with the fair.

In this latter connection we hope we will be pardoned for expressing the opinion, that something of more utility than resolutions are needed. What we want now, is action of the most prompt and energetic kind. Committees and sub-committees are, of course, necessary, but they are worthless unless they come up to the full measure of what is expected of them. The VISITOR suggested a month ago that it was time for action. We meant mainly, to assert, that the preliminary steps for widely distributing the programme of the centennial, should be taken, so that the occasion would have wide spread prominence, not only throughout our own but other States. One of the main objects of the celebration will be to draw to our city a large crowd, which, aside from the patriotic character of the case, is one of chief interest.

We hope from now on, there will be no lagging in the premises. The time is short for the preparations that should be made for an occasion of such interest. Let the centennial from now out be the chief talk of our people, accompanied with such action as will make it a credit to our city and State.

Received today a fine lot of N. C. sides and shoulders at D. T. Johnson's.

How Happy the Little Busy Bee

In the words of Socrates, "why is he happy?" In the words of D. T. Swindell, "because he has something to do." Hence it is, we are determined to keep doing a good big rushing business all the time as it is happening we are looking for and not money. Hence, in dull seasons we think it pays us to sell out all goods in our store at exactly what the goods cost us rather than carry any of them over. We must do a big business if it is a losing business. Can not and will not be idle. Hence it is we are selling envelopes at one cent a pack and six papers of pins for five cents, and ladies' Oxford tie shoes for fifty cents a pair, and men's coats and vests for fifty cents, and nice lawns dress goods at three cents a yard, and nice quality dress calico at four cents a yard, and organdees at six cents, and Farisian mull at six cents, and ink two cents a bottle, and novels five cents. Thus it is we walk rough shod over the enemy. Thus it is we will keep up this march of victory and triumph until we rest beneath the beautiful shades in the silent city of Oakwood.

Yours truly,
D. T. SWINDELL.
