VOL. XXVII.

RALEIGH, TUESDAY, JULY 26, 1892.

NO. 80

The Weather Today.

Northern Carolina: Fair weather. Local forecast for Raleigh till 8 p. m. tomorrow: Fair weather, continued warm.

Local data for 24 hours ending 8 a. m. today:
Maximum temperature, 93; minimum temperature 74; rainfall 0.00.

CITY IN BRIEF.

The torrid wave still continues.

Grape shipments are getting large.

The Beal Gold Cure Co., in this city promises to be a great success.

More breeze than yesterday, but not much change in the heat.

The County Commissioners will meet next Monday.

Cotton receipts very light. Good middling 7½; middling 7.

The Secretary of the Railroad Commission is busily engaged on assessment tables.

The surroundings of Christ Church rectory on New Berne avenue have been much improved.

A break in the heat may be expected in a few days—so say the knowing ones.

The thermometer in the city today about 3 p. m., ranged from 90 to 93, according to location.

Commissioner Robinson has gone to his home in Anson county on a short visit.

Senator Vance will go from the sea coast to his home at "Gombroon" where he will remain during the summer.

Prof G T Winston, of the State University, was in the city yesterday afternoon.

The Durham Globe says it was a serious blow to organized labor when the anarchist shot Friek Saturday.

The next regular meeting of the Board of Aldermen will probably be a most important one. At least, it should be.

There will be a meeting of the Board of Managers of the centennial celebration at the Mayor's office next Friday afternoon.

Rev. A. A. Butler has accepted a call to the Second Baptist church of Durham which will go into effect September 1st.

Characteristics of Hood's Sarsaparilla: The largest sale, the merit, the greatest cures. Try it, and realize its benefits.

Mr. George H. Sears returned from Wrightsville last evening. He says the boys are getting on well, but for the heat, which is almost intolerable. He looks much hardened and tanned, like a full-fledged soldier.

The new Presbyterian church at Greensboro was dedicated last Sabbath. The dedicatory sermon was preached by Rev. W. W. Moore, D. D., professor of Hebrew and Oriental Literature in Hampden Sidney College.

Now is the time to purchase the little ones a carriage and Messers. Thomas H. Briggs & Sons the place to get them of all varieties and at the most favorable prices. Call for them at once as the children need them badly these afternoons.

The exhibition of Butt's paintings are being well attended. There was a large crowd last night, all of whom were delighted. Remember the great pictures are presented tonight representing the drunkard's downward course. It is a beautiful exhibit, with a strong moral lesson. Go and see it. Admission only ten cents.

During the last five years the warmest August was that of 1888, with an average of 78; the coldest was in 1889 with an average of 73.4. The highest temperature was on August 1888, which was 96. The lowest temperature was 62 on August 30th, 1887.

All the street cars were literally packed last night. Everybody that could find room took a ride to enjoy the suburban breezes. The different lines did a splendid business.

We are pleased to note that our friend, Rev. J. B. Bobbitt has returned from a trip to Littleton, where he has been for the past three weeks, with much improved health.

Hanging on a Telegraph Pole.

On yesterday there appeared in the store of D. T. Swindell one hundred pairs lace curtains, large and pretty. Today they are offered at $1.50 a pair. We think they are worth $4.00, but as they came mysteriously we keep up the mystery by selling them at $1.50 a pair.

Personal Mention.

We are sorry to learn that Mr. N. L. Brown is confined at home with sickness.

Mrs. W. M. Brown, Jr., returned home from Louisburg today where she has been visiting relatives.

Mr. Walter Mitchell and Alorzo Smith left today for a trip to Baltimore, Washington and other places of interest.

Mr J. A. Thomas, editor of the Louisburg Times passed through the city today on his way to the press association which meets in Charlotte tomorrow.

Died.

At his residence in this city at 8 o'clock this morning Mr. James A. Smith. He was an estimable man and leaves many friends to regret his decease. The funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon at the Third Baptist church. Friends and acquaintances invited to attend.

At her residence, in Wake Forest, last Sunday morning Mrs. Royall, wife of Dr. William Royall. The cause of death was paralysis with which she was attacked about a week ago.

Mrs. Royall was a most estimable lady and had a host of relatives and friends who will deeply lament her loss.

A Suggestion

There is no mistaking the temper of our people in the matter of furnishing light for the city of Raleigh. The Aldermen have made a mistake. There can be no doubt of this. All men are liable to errors and, of course, they cannot expect to prove themselves exceptions. When an error has been committed, there are but two courses to be pursued. One of these, is to undo what has been done, or, in case of inability to do this, then to apply such remedy as may be practicable. We find but little division of sentiment. Some few assert in palliation, that the city is too poor to at once put in additional electric lights to supply those removed from certain points. We do not feel that the plea of poverty comes in well here, and, if we were put to the test, we think we could abundantly show it. But this is a matter we do not feel disposed to discuss now. We may do so at a future time. In the meantime we may hint that there is such a thing as "letting out at the spile and holding in at the bung." It is evident to all observant persons that to provide a pressing necessity for our people is not, and cannot be considered, extravagance.

In view of the apparent almost universal dissatisfaction with the action of the Board of Aldermen in this matter of light, let the whole subject be considered at as early a day as possible. If the error committed cannot be undone, then let such remedy as seems practicable be applied, but we can candidly say to our Aldermen that it will not be done. The remedy must be applied sooner or later; why not at once?

A Dughi is prepared to make wine on shares, or for customers who furnish the grapes. Long experience in this business enables him to make a dozen different kinds of wine out of the same grapes. Bring in your unmarketable grapes and save money.

City Ordinance.

For the benefit of all concerned (which includes all our people). We print the following sections from a city ordinance:

Sec 5 Every physician or mid-wife attending or present at the birth of any human being within the city of Raleigh shall, within twenty four hours thereafter, certify the same to the Superintendent of Health upon blanks to be furnished by said superintendent and signed by such physician or midwife, specifying the time and place, ward and street, sex, color, condition, and, as near as can be ascertained, the parentage of such birth, giving the name of father and mother. In case there shall be no attending physician or midwife, then the next of kin or other person present at such birth, shall, within twelve hours thereafter, report the same to the Superintendent of Health, who shall take the necessary steps to ascertain as near as can be the facts aforesaid.

Sec 6. * * * Every person practicing medicine in the city shall make a report by noon of Saturday of each week to the Superintendent of Health, upon a blank furnished by him for the purpose, of all cases of contagious and infectious diseases occurring in his practice, with their location. Any person failing to make such report or failing to comply with this section shall be fined five dollars for each and every failure.

Resolutions of Respect by Central M. E. Sunday School.

WHEREAS, God in His own wise purposes on the 16th day of July, 1892, visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Utley, of Raleigh, and transplanted their sweet and lovely daughter, Carrie, from her earthly home to the eternal one beyond the skies.

RESOLVED 1st. That in her death Central M. E. Sunday School has lost one of its loved and devoted members.

RESOLVED 2nd. That we as a Sabbath school, tender to the bereaved family our heartfelt sympathy in this hour of sore trial and affliction, and point them to the comforting promises of Him who alone can bind up the bruised heart and comfort the sorrowing. May they remember that though Carrie cannot return to them, they can go to her.

RESOLVED 3. That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of this Sunday school, a copy sent to the bereaved family and to the Raleigh Christian Advocate and city papers for publication.

MISS MINNIE REDFORD,
J. H. W. EVANS,
J. O. K. R. D. RIGGAN
Committee.

How Happy the Little Busy Bee

In the words of Socrates, "why is he happy?" In the words of D. T. Swindell, "because he has something to do." Hence it is, we are determined to keep doing a good big rushing business all the time as it is happiness we are looking for and not money. Hence, in dull seasons we think it pays us to sell out all goods in our store at exactly what the goods costs us rather than carry any of them over. We must do a big business if it is a losing business. Can not and will not be idle. Hence it is we are selling envelopes at one cent a pack and six papers of pins for five cents, and ladies' Oxford tie shoes for fifty cents a pair, and men's coats and vests for fifty cents, and nice lawns dress goods at three cents a yard, and nice quality dress calico at four cents a yard, and organdees at six cents, and Farisian mull at six cents, and ink two cents a bottle, and novels five cents. Thus it is we walk rough shod over the enemy. Thus it is we will keep up this march of victory and triumph until we rest beneath the beautiful shades in the silent city of Oakwood.

Yours truly,
D. T. SWINDELL.
