Local forecast for this vicinity: On Sunday: Fair, cooler. Local data for 24 hours ending 8 a. m. today:

Maximum temperature, 93; minimum temperature 73; rainfall 0.00.

CITY IN BRIEF.

Hog pens still going.

Hurry up the dog tax.

The health of the prisoners in the penitentiary, is about as good as usual at this season of the year.

Capt. J. S. Joyner, of Franklinton, died yesterday afternoon at 6:10 of Bright's disease.

It is what Hood's Sarsaparilla actually does, that tells the story of its merit and has given it the largest sale of any medicine.

J. B. Hamilton, a former conductor on the Richmond & Danville road, was killed in a wreck which occurred on the Roanoke & Southern road last Thursday.

Stenographers throughout the State are moving in the direction of a State organization. It is now proposed that a meeting for this purpose be held at Raleigh during the State Fair.

We learn that Dr. Eugene Grissom is doing well at his profession in Denver, Colorado. This will be good news to his friends in this city and State.

Senator Vance, yesterday in attempting to join the editors in a drive about the city of Charlotte, tripped at the head of a stair way and came near a serious fall. His wrist was sprained and he was so shaken up that he abandoned the drive.

Drummers, soliciting orders for the fall trade are getting numerous. We saw one just from the south yesterday who reports a most successful tour. He says the outlook is far ahead of last season.

Persons desiring valuable property should not overlook the sale advertised by Mr. J. T. Pullen, administrator, etc., to take place next Monday, August 1. The property embraces some of the most desirable in the city.

How is the matter of a suitable gift to the Cruiser "Raleigh" progressing? This is a matter in which our reputation is at stake and it should not be allowed to lag. As the time for placing the vessel in service is not far distant, the committee in charge should hurry up.

The Centennial committee met yesterday afternoon. Committees were appointed to push things. The Visitor will help in this direction to all extent possible. Being the first paper in North Carolina to suggest the Centennial, we will endeavor to carry out the proposal to the fullest extent. There will be another meeting of the committee August 12th at 5:30 p. m. at the Mayor's office.

The ladies of the reception party were dressed in rich evening toilets and the dashing uniform and gold and tinsel of the officers completed a scene that was indeed brilliant. Gov. Holt was very cordial in his greeting and he was approached with a geniality and heartiness on the part of the people that made the occasion markedly pleasant. The reception was attended by several hundred ladies and gentlemen, and the beauty and chivalry of this city and of this and other States were there to enjoy the affair. Before the reception was half over, the floor of the handsome ball room was crowded with dancers, and a hundred and forty and eight couples swayed poetically to the delicious strains of the violin and harp. Thus the evening passed until past midnight when the last train left the Hammocks to bring the people back to the city.

Keep your head cool.

Talk up the centennial and the fair. Applications for refunding the direct taxes have about stopped.

Try Mr. C. B. Edward's remedy for the ravages of the June bugs on the grape crop.

Politics will be on heavy during the month of August. Several conventions will be held.

Thermometer below the freezing point in Montana last Wednesday. What a country we have.

There was a perfect dearth of news today in the several departments of the capitol and agricultural building.

There have been some alterations in the plans of the new opera house which will render the seating capacity somewhat larger.

The bathing pool at Pullen Park is the centre of attraction these hot nights. Scores of people enjoy the sport and luxury.

It is expected that the new hotel will be in readiness for the reception of visitors by the time the next legislature meets.

We are glad to note that State Treasurer Bain has been somewhat improved by his recent trip to Connelly Springs.

It was a splendid idea to change the time of holding the encampment of the State Guard from July to May. It will be much more pleasant in all respects.

The sanitary precautions in the city are being continued. All persons knowing the existence of any nuisance should promptly report the same to the proper authorities.

A very large crowd went out to Brookside Park last night. The fair grounds and Pullen Park, also, came in for a full share of patronage. The electric cars ran until midnight, and were extensively patronized.

The Insane Asylum near this city, has undergone some very important improvements lately. In all respects it will now compare most favorably with any similar institution in the United States.

Columbus stood an egg on the end, but he had to crack it first. Franklin first drew lightning from the clouds, but Edison has gotten away with him. The man that invented the first locomotive is now "unwept and unsung"—and so on. The old woman killed the bear but the old man claimed the credit, and got it.

It is said that the estate of George Vanderbilt upon which he is now erecting a baronial castle in Buncombe county, represents forty farms which were purchased from the mountaineers at a total cost of about $600,000.

The Mecklenburg county criminal court which meets next Monday will have the largest criminal docket in its history. Over one hundred cases will be sent to the grand jury.

Julian S. Carr, President of the State Association of Democratic clubs has called a meeting of the Association to take place in this city August first.

The Rock Springs camp meeting will begin on the second Thursday in August. It is the most famous camp meetings in the western section of North Carolina. A new arbor has been built, with metal roof, which will accommodate 5,000 people.

Rev. J. N. Cole will preach at 11 a. m. at Edenton St. Methodist church tomorrow morning and at Central at 8:15 at night. Central church will be closed in the morning and Edenton Street church closed at night. The Sunday schools of both churches will meet at their accustomed hour as usual.

Returned.

The Governor's Guard returned from Wrightsville yesterday afternoon and were cordially received by the citizens generally. They all report a good time.

Attention, Rescue Fire Co.

Every member is ordered to be present at the regular monthly meeting of Rescue Company to be held on Monday night at 8 o'clock sharp, at their hall.

Imported at $1.50.

LACE CURTAINS.

You have all heard of bargains, but you never saw a bargain and will never know what a real value is until you see those lace curtains we are selling for $1.50 a pair, well worth $3.50. We had a great deal of trouble getting these goods to sell for that money, but we do not mind trouble. What we want to do is to save you money, and that we can do if you buy your goods at SWINDELL'S.

The Business Meeting.

The proposition of the Raleigh Chamber of Commerce for a meeting of business men to take place at Morehead is gaining wide spread circulation, and all the signs are, that the occasion will be one of much interest and importance. We hope, that an effort will be put forth to induce capitalists from different sections of the Union to attend, so that we can lay before them the inducements offered for investment in various enterprises. It is an opportunity to advance our material interests that should be highly appreciated and acted upon.

Died.

This morning at 7:30 o'clock, after a long and painful illness, at her residence on North, West street, Miss Mollie Nowell, daughter of Mr. Huff Nowell, aged 19. She was a member of Brooklyn M. E. church, and leaves a mother, father, two brothers and one sister to mourn their loss, with whom we deeply sympathize.

The funeral will take place tomorrow morning at 8 o'clock from the residence, No. 305 North, West street, services by Rev. K. D. Holmes. City papers please copy.

A DRUMMER IN LUMBER.

He Passes Bogus Checks and is Arrested.

A man under the name of Rosenberg has come to grief for passing bogus checks in Durham and Oxford. He is a drummer, and on last Thursday he was given a good order by a firm in Durham. He left for this city on the 9:30 train yesterday, but before doing so presented at bank a check for $75 on the National Capital Bank of Washington which was cashed. The cashier became suspicious and telegraphed to find out from the firm he pretended to represent something about him. It turned out that no such firm was in existence. The drummer tried the same game in Oxford but did not succeed. Policeman Kenn got on his track and came to Raleigh after him. On arriving here he learned that Rosenberg had procured a horse and gone to Garner. Kenn followed and succeeded in arresting him in Selma. He had $150 on his person, which is held for the benefit of the parties swindled.

The Durham Sun says: Policeman Kenn with the drummer arrived in Durham yesterday afternoon and was met at the depot by the bank officials. The poor unfortunate fellow fell on the shoulders of the cashier and wept bitterly, begging him not to prosecute him. He said he had never been guilty of such wrong doings before, that he was to be married soon and needed the money, which was the cause of his going wrong. It was truly pitiful to see the man in his great distress, and many felt sorry for him, still they knew he was a rascal. The cashier told him he would not prosecute him if he would return the money. He was taken to Oxford last night, where he was tried for forgery this morning, but before leaving here stated that his right name was Seagal.
