The Weather Today.
For North Carolina:—Fair, except showers on the coast
Local forecast for this vicinity: On Friday, partly cloudy, stationary temperature.
Local data for 24 hours ending 8 a. m. today:
Maximum temperature, 90; minimum temperature 67; rainfall 0.06.

CITY IN BRIEF.

Attend to your dog tax.
Dog days will soon be over.
August fogs are now in order.
A dance will take place in the pavilion at Brookside park this evening.
A meeting of the Chamber of Commerce will take place tonight.
Splendid rains are reported in the surrounding country.
Messrs. Whiting Brothers are filling orders for grapes to be shipped to the World's fair.
Let every member of the Chamber of Commerce be at the meeting tonight. It is highly important.
There are four colored doctors registered to practice medicine in this city.
We deeply regret to learn that the condition of Mrs. S. A. Ashe, is considered critical.
The Grand Council of the Legion of Honor closed its session in this city yesterday. It meets again in Fayetteville in 1894.
Raleigh has contributed $250 towards the colored firemen State tournament, to be held here on the 8th and 9th instance.
Mr. Bunn, our member of Congress, stated in his speech last night, that he had just received a dispatch from Speaker Crisp ordering him to return to Washington at once.
The sanitary condition of the city has been much improved of late, we are assured those in a condition to know.
Don't forget the meeting of the Chamber of Commerce tonight. The interests to be considered are of such importance as to render absence of members inexcusable.
There was a baty show at Carolina Beach yesterday, at which some splendid specimens were on exhibition. This is all very well but Raleigh can just beat the world in that line.
We are glad to learn that as soon as some needed repairs are made to the engine at the power house, the fifteen minutes schedule of the street cars will be resumed. The travel seems to justify it.
There will no doubt be a rousing crowd in Raleigh on the 31st to meet Gen. A. E. Stevens, and we should prepare for a grand time. This is demanded in a business point of view. Let us, at all times, look after the stranger within our gates.
Two colored excursions left the city today. One of them goes to Durham via Henderson and Oxford, and the other goes to Wilson under the charge of the colored Odd Fellows. The latter is accompanied by the Durham band.
Mr. Thos. Williams, one of the oldest citizens of New Berne died in that city last Tuesday, aged 77. He was an Englishman and had been a resident of New Berne over fifty years. He was a gentleman of the highest character and well known throughout the Eastern section of North Carolina.
The North Carolinian published by Mr. Josephus Daniels, late of the State Chronicle, has made its appearance. It is a weekly journal of eight columns, neatly gotten up and bears all the earmarks of Mr. Daniels' conceded ability as one of the first journalists of North Carolina. The price is only $2 per annum and we predict for it a wide circulation and great influence.

Fine nights now for lawn parties.
Merchants getting ready to go north for fall goods.
Over $50,000 was spent in revenue stamps in Winston last month.
Tide over the dull season and bring in your advertisements.
Frost is predicted for early in October. The katydids say so.
Thermometer climbing up to the nineties again today.
It is expected that over seven hundred men will be in the encampment at Wrightsville next week.
All eyes are turned to the meeting of the Board of Aldermen tomorrow night.
Black sashes are going out, to the great discomfiture of the young, fashionable gentlemen.
A gay time is anticipated at Brookside Park tonight. No doubt a large crowd will be in attendance.
The new buildings for the state normal and industrial school for girls at Greensboro, is progressing finely.
Col P. F. Faison has gone to look after the convict farm near Wilmington.
Don't forget to look at "Mars" tonight. If you discover anybody in it, don't say we told you so.
The new hotel and opera house are beginning to assume definite proportions.
We are glad to see Mr. C. L. Smith who has been down with typhoid fever, out again and at his post in Norris' Dry goods store.
The Durham folks are bragging about their new hotel, and some of them say it will be ready before ours is. We believe friend Page will see about that.
The people of New Berne are to have broken shell put on their streets. It is said to make most admirable street paving.
Lookout for the races at the fair grounds. It's going to be a big thing. Some of the best stock in the south will be on hand.
September 23d has been fixed upon as the date that Hon. A. E. Stevenson is expected to visit Charlotte. Arrangements to receive him will be made on a large scale.
Get your glasses ready and take a look at the planet "Mars" tonight. She will only be 35,000,000 miles off, and if we cannot see all that is going on at that distance, we must be blind indeed.
Messrs. Thomas & Maxwell have removed to their new quarters on Exchange Place, in A. G. Rhodes & Co's old stand, where they will be pleased to see the public.
How about the funds to purchase a gift for the cruiser Raleigh? It is said that the vessel is being arranged for service and the understanding is the gift must be ready at that time.
A meeting of the Cleveland and Carr Democratic club will take place tonight at 8:30 o'clock at the mayor's office. Punctual attendance requested.
FRANK STROBACH,
President
Mr. N. B. Garrett, of Waycross, Ga., who with his family have been spending several weeks in the State, visiting among his and his wife's relatives and friends, dropped in to see us yesterday afternoon. Mr. Garrett is a native of Wake and pays his annual visits to his old home where he is always a welcome visitor. We are glad to see him looking the picture of health.
The sheriff of Mecklenburg county has his hands full looking after people who persist in eating watermelons in the court house. It is said that at times the floor is so slippery that justice is in danger of occasionally being upset. We have watermelons fends around Raleigh, too, but they do not confine themselves to the court house, as Tobe Marshall, the janitor of Metropolitan Hall will testify.

Crops and politics are now all the talk.
The dear people are much in demand just now.
The Friends yearly meeting at High Point on the 10th inst., will be an interesting meeting.
The merit of Hood's Sarsaparilla is not accidental but is the result of careful study and experiment by educated pharmacists.
The re-union of Confederate Veterans in Charlotte the latter part of this month will be a most interesting occasion, and doubtless well attended.
There is no abatement in the stock of watermelons and cantaloupes on the market. They are simply immense in size, quantity and flavor.
The next in order will be the convention of the Peoples or Third party. You can then pay your money and take your choice.
We hope our friend Mial, Register of Deeds, will get at the county index as soon as possible. It is greatly needed.
Rev. Dr. P. H. Hoge, of the First Presbyterian church of Wilmington, has been elected to a professorship in Union Theological Seminary Virginia.
Everything at Cost.
Yes everything in our mammoth store at cost—if you do not believe this and benefit yourself it is your fault not ours. We have opened the way if you do not find it you suffer not us, you let that slow foolish idea of wait, wait get the best of you until you wait, too late then when this great bargain is out of reach you think what a slow foolish thing I have been now to avoid this trouble. Come at once to SWINDELL'S.
The Business Meeting.
President Latta, of the Chamber of Commerce, has caused to be sent out a circular letter setting forth the arrangements for the proposed meeting of business men in Morehead City on August 10th. The rate of board at the Atlantic hotel has been placed at $3 per day and liberal summer rates are in force to and from Morehead. On August 8th the New Berne fair will be held and this can be taken in at special rates. A number of prominent gentlemen are expected to be present and address the meeting. Altogether it will be a most attractive as well as an interesting occasion.
Ladies Fine Shoes.
We are preparing for a fine shoe trade in ladies, misses and men's shoes. Hence we have taken lots of trouble to secure the control of Baring Bros. Cincinnati shoes for ladies which is admitted by all shoe manufacturers to be the most beautiful fitting shoe and the most durable shoe made in America. Our first shipment of Baring shoes have arrived.
D. T. SWINDELL.
Prohibition Convention.
The Prohibition Convention which met in Greensboro yesterday had representatives from eighteen counties. Up to late yesterday afternoon no nominations had been made and no platform adopted. The sum of four hundred dollars had been raised for campaign purposes. The nominations were no doubt made today. The convention was opened with prayer by Rev. T. F. McCulloch. Hon. J. H. Southgate, of Durham, was made temporary chairman, and delivered an eloquent speech.
The body met in the court house which was most tastefully decorated by the ladies. Among the mottoes were the following: "One, with God is a majority." "Trust in God and go forward." "A vote against whiskey is a vote for Christ." "We have our arms around the American people."
