NO. 95

The Weather Today.

Local forecast for this vicinity: On Saturday.—Fair weather, slightly cooler. Local data for 24 hours ending 8 a. m. today: Maximum temperature, 94; minimum temperature 73; rainfall 0.00.

CITY IN BRIEF.

Next in order will be the festive scuppernon grapes. Senator Ransom will speak in Durham next Thursday. What is termed a real estate bank is to be established in Winston. The vegetable market is getting on the wane.

The country people are now having a little leisure time. The mountains are still considerably crowded with visitors. The library of Trinity College has been removed to Durham. Tax abstracts are being slowly received by the Auditor. The general demand now is for a gentle rain. It is much needed. The hot spell has thrown a damper on the base ball enthusiasm. The County Candidates will not open the campaign before October. Next Tuesday afternoon has been set apart as the time for christening Brookside Park.

By the time the next fair commences, Hillsboro street will no doubt be a most elegant thoroughfare. This is, as it should be.

There will hereafter, be no arguments in the Supreme Court on Mondays. This is done to avoid travel on Sundays by the different attorneys.

Resolutions of respect are being passed in different sections of the State lamenting the death of Judge Davis.

Politics is getting boiling hot all over the country, and the next two or three months will be the all absorbing excitement.

Mr. J. W. Watson, of Kissimmee, Florida, has sent to Hon. Donald W. Bain, $10 in aid of the Confederate monument fund. Next.

We regret to learn that Miss Julia Hutchings is very ill at Chase City, Va. Dr. James McKee has gone to attend her.

Go out to Caraleigh and see the improvements in that suburb. It looks like it might be a hustling village at no distant day.

The dews are getting heavy and we may soon look for the nights when a little extra covering on the beds will come in all right.

Watchout for the first train to go into the new depot. It is looked for next week. There should be a general jubilee on the occasion.

Take Hood's and only Hood's because Hood's Sarsaparilla CURES. It possesses merit peculiar to itself. Try it yourself.

The walls of the new hotel are fast looming up—so is the opera house. We hope that both may greet the eyes of the next legislature in a finished condition.

Boon up the Confederate monument. Help out all that is possible. The ladies are doing their full duty. Let the men folks show their spirit and liberality.

The race track at the fair grounds is being placed in first class order. New arrivals of blooded horses every day.

A large crowd is expected in the city next week. Two political conventions and the races, to which can be added the formal opening of Brookside Park.

We invite attention to the announcement of the Lion Racket Store, which is now offering goods at such low prices as to attract universal attention. Call and see for yourself. It is a chance not to be missed.

Another exodus craze is looked for in the near future, so it is reported.

Evangelist Fife will open a protracted meeting in September at Weldon.

The visiting druggists are loud in their praise of Raleigh and its people.

Counterfeit $5 bills are said to be looking around.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Farnsworth left today on a trip to Boston, Mass., where they will spend a few weeks.

It is expected that the Raleigh cotton mills will commence work next week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Hubbard have returned from a very pleasant visit to the country.

Miss Blanche Heartt and Master Dennis Heartt have returned to the city from a trip to Durham.

Can't our Board of Aldermen strain a point and give us a new bell on the market house building?

The outlook is that there will be a large attendance at the Deaf and Dumb Asylum next session.

The Washington Post says, "the walking delegates are the only persons who prosper during a strike."

A Chicago woman has brought suit for $50,000 damages for breach of promise. She must have thought her fellow was splendid, perfectly elegant.

Mr. James Bashford, aged about 87, died at his residence near the Agricultural and Mechanical College yesterday.

The condition of Mr. Creekmore, who was recently sent to the Insane Asylum, is said to be somewhat improved.

The proposition for the erection of a splendid hotel on Bogue Sound, is meeting with much favor. It promises to be a paying investment.

There will be a proposition to suspend business in this city during the afternoon of the 17th and 18th insts., so that all may visit the fair grounds to witness the races.

The suits for damages against the Western North Carolina Railroad for injuries sustained in the Boston bridge disaster have been transferred from the State to the United States Court.

Great encouragement is received from different sections of the State for the proposed Confederate monument. Let our business men unite with the ladies in the grand movement and make it a great success.

Argument before the Railroad Commission in the case of E. P. Albee against the Western Union Company has been concluded. The commission had the matter under consideration today.

Owing to the absence from the city of several members of the Board of Managers of the Raleigh Centennial, there will be no meeting this afternoon, but the members are requested to meet on Wednesday afternoon next at 5 o'clock in the Mayor's office.

County Superintendent Chappell will hold an examination for applicants to the Agricultural and Mechanical College on Monday next, 15th inst. Any young man desiring an appointment as county student, will present himself for examination.

This is the season when the bald-headed man's torture begins. The house fly, full fledged and full of activity and vigor, reaches the hairless part of a man's caput, his chosen sporting ground, and appears to revel in inflicting torture upon his helpless victim.

Make your arrangements and go on the colored excursion to Richmond, on the 24th inst. We have tried it, and a more pleasant trip can hardly be imagined. Let there be a goodly number of whites. We know the fact that our colored friends will show them all the attention possible. They take particular pains to do so. The committee in charge, are among our best colored citizens, who will take a pride in having everything all right.
